War and the political conflicts in postwar Europe Thoroughly annotated and scrupulously researched Volume Three captures Warren in an extraordinary phase in his life and career reaching his maturity and making many commitments at once yet pursuing them all with a seemingly boundless energy The Selected Letters of Elizabeth Stoddard Jennifer Putzi, Elizabeth Stockton, 2012-11-15 In response to the resurgence of interest in American novelist poet short story writer and newspaper correspondent Elizabeth Stoddard 1823 1902 whose best known work is The Morgesons 1862 Jennifer Putzi and Elizabeth Stockton spent years locating reading and sorting through more than 700 letters scattered across eighteen different archives finally choosing eighty four letters to annotate and include in this collection By presenting complete annotated transcripts The Selected Letters provides a fascinating introduction to this compelling writer while at the same time complicating earlier representations of her as either a literary handmaiden to her at the time more famous husband the poet Richard Henry Stoddard or worse as the Pythoness whose difficult personality made her a fickle and unreasonable friend The Stoddards belonged to New York's vibrant close knit literary and artistic circles Among their correspondents were both family members and friends including writers and editors such as Julia Caroline Ripley Dorr Rufus Griswold James Russell Lowell Caroline Healey Dall Julian Hawthorne William Dean Howells Helen Hunt Jackson Edmund Clarence Stedman and Margaret Sweat An innovative and unique writer Stoddard eschewed the popular sentimentality of her time even while exploring the emotional territory of relations between the sexes Her writing in both her published fiction and her personal letters is surprisingly modern and psychologically dense The letters are highly readable lively and revealing even to readers who know little of her literary output or her life As scholars of epistolarity have recently argued letters provide more than just a biographical narrative they also should be understood as aesthetic performances themselves The correspondence provides a sense of Stoddard as someone who understood letter writing as a distinct and important literary genre making this collection particularly well suited for new conceptualizations of the epistolary genre The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound,

Selected Letters of Matthew Arnold Clinton Machann, Forrest D. Burt, 2016-01-06 Contains a selection of letters from the English poet Matthew Arnold Selected Letters of Vernon Lee, 1856-1935 Sophie Geoffroy, Amanda Gagel, 2020-09-16 Vernon Lee was the pen name of Violet Paget 1856 1935 a prolific author best known for her supernatural fiction and her radical polemics She was also an active letter writer whose correspondents include many well known figures in fin de siècle intellectual circles across Europe. However, until now, no attempt has been made to make these letters widely available in their complete form. This multi-volume scholarly edition presents a comprehensive selection of her English, French, Italian, and German correspondence compiled from more than 30 archives worldwide that reflect her wide variety of interests and occupations as a Woman of Letters and contributor to scholarship and political activism. Letters written in a language other than English have been expertly translated by scholars Sophie Geoffroy from the French, Crystal Hall from the Italian, and Christa Zorn from the German. The edition focuses on those letters concerning the writing ideas and aesthetics that influenced Lee's articles, books, and stories. Full transcriptions of some 500 letters covering the years 1856-1935 are arranged in chronological order along with newly written introductions that explain their context and identify the recipients, friends, and colleagues mentioned. Since scholarship on Lee's critical and creative output is still in the beginning stages, these letters will serve a purpose to students and researchers in a number of academic fields.

In this second volume covering the years 1885-1889, the 421 assembled letters follow Violet Paget (Vernon Lee) in her early thirties. Recovering from the stinging reception of her first novel and from Annie Meyer's death, she turns to essay writing on aesthetics and ethics and ghost stories. After Mary Robinson's engagement to marry French orientalist Prof. Darmesteter, she travels to Spain, Gibraltar, and Tangiers and briefly falls under the spell of the Orient. She also takes a liking to Scotland, and many of her close friends are Scottish: Alice Callander, Lady Archie Janey Sevilla, Archibald Campbell, and so is her future partner, Clementina Anstruther Thomson. The letters reflect the expansion of her subject matter from cultural studies, art history, and aesthetic philosophy. Her charity work in hospitals in Florence and her readings in Political Economy lead her thinking towards social reform and political issues. Her brother's mental illness and her own breakdown bring about an awareness of body and mind balance and a taste for outdoor pursuits: mountaineering, bicycling, horse riding, swimming, and for experimental psychology: rotating mirrors, hypnosis, and therapies: hydrotherapy. The Pagets move away from the city center of Florence into the Villa Il Palmerino, then in the countryside where both Eugene and Vernon recover. Correspondents include Lee's parents, Matilda and Henry Ferguson Paget; her step brother, poet Eugene Lee Hamilton; English poetess Mary Robinson; English poet Robert Browning; British novelist and journalist Ellen Mary Abdy Williams; British social reform activist and editor Percy William Bunting; Irish journalist and activist Frances Power Cobbe; Irish scholar and novelist Bella Duffy; British eugenicist Karl Pearson; British publisher William Blackwood; Scottish writer Robert Louis Stevenson; American novelist Henry James; American connoisseur and arts patron Isabella Stuart Gardner; French translator and critic Marie Thérèse Blanc-Thibaut; Lady Louisa Wolseley; Irish historian and activist Alice Stopford Green; Italian Countess Angelica Pasolini Rasponi; Italian poet, writer, and critic Enrico Nencioni; Italian novelist, essayist, and critic Mario Pratesi; Italian editor and man of letters Francesco Protonotari; Italian painter Telemaco Signorini.
