experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story      South Asian Filmscapes Elora Halim Chowdhury, Esha Niyogi De, 2020-11-30 New political realities and shared histories connect film cultures across borders In South Asia massive anticolonial movements in the twentieth century created nation states and reset national borders forming the basis for emerging film cultures Following the upheaval of the partition of India and Pakistan in 1947 and the Bangladesh Liberation War of 1971 new national cinemas promoted and reinforced prevailing hierarchies of identity and belonging At the same time industrial and independent cinemas contributed to remarkably porous and hybrid film cultures reflecting the intertwining of South Asian histories and their reciprocal cultural influences This cross fertilization within South Asian cultural production continues today South Asian Filmscapes excavates these complex politics and poetics of bordered identity and crossings through selected histories of cinema in South Asia Several essays reveal ways in which fixed notions of national identity have been destabilized by the cross border mobility of filmed arts and practitioners while others interrogate how filmic politics intersects with discourses of nationalism sexuality and gender religion and language Together they offer a fluid approach to the multiple histories and encounters that conjure South Asia as a geographic and political entity in the region and globally through a cinematic imagination      For a New Classic Sociology Alain Caillé, Frédéric Vandenberghe, 2020-10-25 This book examines the future of the social sciences and the reconstruction of society in contemporary times Drawing on the lead piece For a New Classic Sociology it calls for a new theoretical synthesis that overcomes the fragmentation specialization and professionalization within the social sciences The position paper and the responses by a team of world class social theorists provide an alternative to utilitarianism and the colonization of the social sciences by rational choice models propose a new articulation of social theory and moral social and political philosophy It recommends a return to classical social theory and explores articulations between theories of reciprocity care and recognition A radical intervention in the study of the social sciences the volume will be indispensable to scholars and researchers across the social sciences especially social theory and sociology and social anthropology Contributions by Frank Adloff Jeffrey C Alexander Francis Chateauraynaud Raewyn Connell François Dubet Philip Gorski Nathalie Heinich Qu Jingdong Mike Savage Michael Singleton and Philippe Steiner      Ulrich Beck Mads Peter Sørensen, Allan Christiansen, 2012 In Ulrich Beck Mads P Sørensen and Allan Christiansen provide an extensive and thorough introduction to the German sociologist's collected works Focusing on the theory outlined in Beck's chief work Risk Society and on his theory of second modernity Sørensen and Christiansen explain the sociologist's ideas and writing in a clear and accessible way      Cold Intimacies Eva Illouz, 2013-04-23 It is commonly assumed that capitalism has created an emotional world dominated by bureaucratic rationality that economic behavior conflicts with intimate authentic relationships that the public and private spheres are irremediably opposed to each other and that true love is opposed to calculation and self interest Eva Illouz rejects these conventional ideas and argues that the culture of capitalism has fostered an intensely emotional culture in the workplace in the family and in our own relationship to ourselves She argues that economic relations have become deeply emotional while close intimate relationships have become increasingly defined by economic and political models of bargaining exchange and equity This dual process by which emotional and economic relationships come to define and shape each other is called emotional capitalism Illouz finds evidence of this process of emotional capitalism in various social sites self help literature women s magazines talk shows support groups and the Internet dating sites How did this happen What are the social consequences of the current preoccupation with emotions How did the public sphere become saturated with the exposure of private life Why does suffering occupy a central place in contemporary identity How has emotional capitalism transformed our romantic choices and experiences Building on and revising the intellectual legacy of critical theory this book addresses these questions and offers a new interpretation of the reasons why the public and the private the economic and the emotional spheres have become inextricably intertwined Critical Theories in International Relations Tayyar

Ari,2023-04-04 This edited book focuses primarily on contemporary debates and the critical and postmodern theories to be considered a significant contribution to the field This book shows that critical international relations theories which are incomprehensible and challenging are easy and understandable The book analyzes the Frankfurt School constructivism post colonialism feminism critical geopolitics political economy Copenhagen School Aberystwyth School Paris School and Ontological security Critical Theories in International Relations argues that neither identity nor security can be considered a fixed and objective issue can change according to time and space and depend on historical and sociological factors Nothing is given for critical approaches and they are produced and reproduced in ever changing conditions that lead to new truths and meanings These are the results of reflexive and non linear interactions In this context it is made pedagogically understandable to the readers within this framework From the Margins to New Ground Lea Hagoel,Devorah
