New Technology-Based Firms in the New Millennium Ray Oakey, Aard Groen, Gary Cook, Peter Van der Sijde, 2010-12-13 A collection of the best papers presented at the High Technology Small Firm HTSF Conference held in the UK at Manchester Business School in June 2007 It includes chapters that are devoted to the critical problems of HTSF financing comprising two contributions from the UK and from Sweden the Irish Republic Italy and Belgium New Technology-Based Firms in the New Millennium Aard Groen, Gary Cook, Peter van der Sijde, 2015-06-16 The papers in this volume address key themes relating to improving our understanding of the processes involved in high technology entrepreneurship and of the design of effective policy to promote it Topics examined include start ups entrepreneurship clusters inter firm collaboration and growth strategy for high technology small firms New Technology-based Firms in the New Millennium Raymond P. Oakey, W. E. During, Saleema Kauser, 2004 New Directions in Regional Economic Development Sameeksha Desai, Peter Nijkamp, Roger R. Stough, 2011 The introduction of endogenous growth theory has led to new interest in the role of the entrepreneur as an agent driving technical change at the local regional level This book examines theoretical and methodological issues surrounding the interface of the entrepreneur in regional growth dynamics on the one hand and on the other presents illuminating case studies In total the book s contributions amplify understanding of such critical issues as the relationship between innovation and entrepreneurship the entrepreneur s role in transforming knowledge into something economically useful and knowledge commercialization with both conceptual and empirical contributions The emergence of endogenous growth theory has unleashed a flurry of new hypotheses and related inquiries that have in turn created an exciting dynamic in the conceptual theoretical and empirical foundations of the field A central feature has been the recognition that local initiatives matter in how regions grow and adjust to changes and shocks Moreover it is the role of technical change driven by entrepreneurs that motivates these initiatives This volume begins by outlining and explaining the theory and method behind entrepreneurship and development This is followed by specific case studies of practice and policy These cases are region specific offering the reader concrete empirically based research results Scholars and students in economics entrepreneurship and public policy will find this volume a valuable tool in understanding the latest research in regional economic development Entrepreneurship, Sustainable Growth and Performance Hans Landström, Hans Crijns, Eddy Laveren, David Smallbone, 2008-01-01 Collectively the authors present an informative overview of some of the best European research in entrepreneurship that exists at present In addition the variation in research traditions and approaches offer the reader an interesting insight into the various disciplinary perspectives that can shed light on entrepreneurial activities including insights from psychology sociology finance and strategy The attempt to examine both individual and firm level analysis is also a strength of this book given that the majority of entrepreneurship research tends to focus on just one of these streams and there is a dearth of work that is able to integrate and understand both dimensions

simultaneously the book provides value for money for those whom entrepreneurship research within a European context is a particular interest Jean Clarke International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research This book brings together some of Europe's finest scholars showcasing the richness diversity and quality of European entrepreneurship research Collectively the authors present an authoritative overview of state of the art research on current entrepreneurship themes This book is a must read for scholars policymakers and students interested in staying updated about the current state of entrepreneurship research Johan Wiklund Syracuse University US The 20th edition of the RENT conference took place where it started 20 years ago in the European capital Brussels The current volume presents the best papers of this conference and offers a grand view of the state of the art of European entrepreneurship research Drivers as well as consequences are dealt with from many different angles Taken together it gives a thorough description of the scarcest and most essential of all input factors of the modern economy entrepreneurship Roy Thurik Erasmus University Rotterdam The Netherlands This book provides an invaluable state of the art overview of current European research in the field of entrepreneurship It focuses on four themes each of which illustrates a key dimension in the overall theme entrepreneurs and their role in entrepreneurship entrepreneurship in family businesses performance of new ventures and entrepreneurial processes Entrepreneurship Sustainable Growth and Performance is written from various perspectives by eminent academics with different methodological approaches It is an invaluable resource for researchers scholars and students as well as consultants and policymakers with an interest in entrepreneurship and small businesses

The Process of Internationalization in Emerging SMEs and Emerging Economies Hamid Etemad, 2013-01-01 This book the fourth volume in the McGill International Entrepreneurship Series brings together 27 top scholars to explore the structural complexities evolving relations and dynamic forces that are shaping a new system of multi polar multi level international business relations It examines entrepreneurial efforts and relations in different national and corporate cultures each embedded in and also constrained by country specific socio economic structures and each vying for consumer attentions in competitive global markets The new millennia has experienced much rapid change much of it implicit intangible and not covered by the headlines of the popular press The bipolar business system of the 20th century that prioritized the relationship between firms and consumers of developed countries is giving way to an emerging multi polar and multi level international system that considers consumers and companies in developing economies as well In this book scholars from around the world analyze the nascent architecture and relations in this quickly evolving system They explore the structural complexities evolving relations and dynamic forces that are shaping and re shaping the new system and examine entrepreneurial efforts and relations that cement its structure The chapters in this volume portray the operating conditions of firms across 14 emerging country environments and industries ranging from basic foods and information technology to complex business processes Students and professors of international business entrepreneurship marketing and management studies will find this volume an indispensable addition
