Wherein the Copyright Has Been Completed by the Deposit of Two Copies in the Office Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1923 Stephen King Rocky Wood, 2017-02-10 This companion provides a two part introduction to best selling author Stephen King whose enormous popularity over the years has gained him an audience well beyond readers of horror fiction the genre with which he is most often associated Part I considers the reception of King's work the film adaptations that they gave rise to the fictional worlds in which some of his novels are set and the more useful approaches to King's varied corpus Part II consists of entries for each series novel story screenplay and even poem including works never published or produced as well as characters and settings John Brunner Jad Smith, 2013-01-30 Under his own name and numerous pseudonyms John Brunner 1934 1995 was one of the most prolific and influential science fiction authors of the late twentieth century During his exemplary career the British author wrote with a stamina matched by only a few other great science fiction writers and with a literary quality of even fewer importing modernist techniques into his novels and stories and probing every major theme of his generation robotics racism drugs space exploration technological warfare and ecology In this first intensive review of Brunner's life and works Jad Smith carefully demonstrates how Brunner's much neglected early fiction laid the foundation for his classic Stand on Zanzibar and other major works such as The Jagged Orbit The Sheep Look Up and The Shockwave Rider Making extensive use of Brunner's letters columns speeches and interviews published in fanzines Smith approaches Brunner in the context of markets and trends that affected many writers of the time including Brunner's uneasy association with the New Wave of science fiction in the 1960s and 70s This landmark study shows how Brunner's attempts to cross fertilize the American pulp tradition with British scientific romance complicated the distinctions between genre and mainstream fiction and between hard and soft science fiction and helped carve out space for emerging modes such as cyberpunk slipstream and biopunk Settling the World M. John Harrison, 2020-08-20 Throughout his career M John Harrison's writing has defied categorisation building worlds both unreal and all too real overlapping and interlocking with each other His stories are replete with fissures and portals into parallel dimensions unidentified countries and lost lands But more important than the places they point to are the obsessions that drive the people who so believe in them characters who spend their lives hunting for and haunted by clues and maps that speak to the possibility of somewhere else This selection of stories drawn from over 50 years of writing bears witness to that desire for difference whether following backstreet occultists amateur philosophers down and outs or refugees we see our relationship with the other in microscopic detail and share in Harrison's rejection of the idea that the world or our understanding of it could ever be settled The Vampire Archives Otto Penzler, 2009-09-29 The Vampire

Archives is the biggest hungriest undeadliest collection of vampire stories as well as the most comprehensive bibliography of vampire fiction ever assembled Dark stormy and delicious once it sinks its teeth into you there s no escape Vampires Whether imagined by Bram Stoker or Anne Rice they are part of the human lexicon and as old as blood itself They are your neighbors your friends and they are always lurking Now Otto Penzler editor of the bestselling Black Lizard Big Book of Pulp has compiled the darkest the scariest and by far the most evil collection of vampire stories ever With over eighty stories including the works of Stephen King and D H Lawrence alongside Lord Byron and Tanith Lee not to mention Edgar Allan Poe and Harlan Ellison The Vampire Archives will drive a stake through the heart of any other collection out there Other contributors include Arthur Conan Doyle Ray Bradbury Ambrose Bierce H P Lovecraft Harlan Ellison Roger Zelazny Robert Bloch Clive Barker Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
