New Testament Sermons:

Sermons (148-183) on the New Testament Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1992 Sermons 148-183 are on the New Testament. The English reads smoothly and clearly. The sermons have helpful subdivisions in the contents as well as the text. Highly recommended. Library Journal A must for libraries. Catholic Library World An excellent resource. Choice Preaching the New Testament Ian Paul, David Wenham, 2013-04-05 The New Testament writers proclaimed their message passionately and persuasively. This volume explores how we can preach faithfully from those texts. The chapters cover the main texts and genres of the New Testament and offer particular insights into the infancy narratives, parables, miracles, the Sermon on the Mount, ethics, future hope, and judgment, archaeology and history, hermeneutics, and the New Homiletic Building on sound principles of interpretation, communication, and application. This book supports the efforts of preachers and Bible teachers to proclaim the good news to listeners today. Contributors include Charles Anderson, D. A. Carson, the late R. T. France, Justin Hardin, Mariam Kamell, I. Howard Marshall, Jason Maston, John Nolland, Peter Oakes, William Olhausen, Klyne Snodgrass, Helge Stadelmann, Christoph Stenschke, Stephen Travis, Paul Weston, and Stephen Wright. Sermons On Selected Lessons Of The New Testament St. Augustine of Hippo, 2012 This is the extended and annotated edition including an extensive biographical annotation about the author and his life. The Sermons of St. Augustine, besides their other excellencies, furnish a beautiful picture of perhaps the deepest and most powerful mind of the Western Church, adapting itself to the little ones of Christ. In them, he who has furnished the mould for all the most thoughtful minds for fourteen hundred years is seen forming with loving tenderness the babes in Christ. Very touching is the child-like simplicity with which he gradually leads them through what to them were difficulties, watching all the while whether he made himself clear to them, keeping up their attention, pleased at their understanding, dreading their approbation, and leading them off from himself to some practical result. Very touching the tenderness with which he at times reproves the allowance which he makes for human infirmities, and for those in secular life if they will not make their infirmities their boast, or in allowed duties and indulgences forget God. But his very simplicity precludes the necessity of any preface. His Sermons explain themselves. They appear from a passage in the Commentary on the Psalms to have been often taken down in writing at the time by the more attentive sort of hearers, as were those of St. Chrysostom. Possidius states that this was done from the commencement of his presbyterate, and that thence through the body of Africa, excellent doctrine and the most sweet savour of Christ was diffused, and made manifest the Church of God beyond seas when it heard thereof, partaking of the joy. Sermons on Selected Lessons of the New Testament Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.), 1844 You Are the Light of the World Jack R. Lundbom, 2024-08-27 This book is a collection of sermons on the New Testament preached by the author in churches where he has been a pastor, intended mainly for lay audiences. Sermons are arranged according to the church year. The sermons can also double as devotional reading. Sermons on Selected Lessons of the New Testament Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1854 Sermons on
