Edited by E. Williams and E. Parsons. With Memoirs of His Life by S. Hopkins Jonathan Edwards, 1817 God's Church-Community David Emerton, 2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer's thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations. These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action A Year with Dea Brythwen Sinclair, An Exposition of the Old Testament ... By John Gill. [Edited by David Alfred Doudney. With the Text.],1853 Work and Object Peter Lamarque, 2010-06-03 Work and Object is a study of fundamental questions in the metaphysics of art notably how works relate to the materials that constitute them Issues about the creation of works what is essential and inessential to their identity their distinct kinds of properties including aesthetic properties their amenability to interpretation their style the conditions under which they can go out of existence and their relation to perceptually indistinguishable doubles e g forgeries and parodies are raised and debated A core theme is that works like paintings music literature sculpture architecture films photographs multi media installations and many more besides have fundamental features in common as cultural artefacts in spite of enormous surface differences It is their nature as distinct kinds of things grounded in distinct ontological categories that is the subject of this enquiry Although much of the discussion is abstract based in analytical metaphysics there are numerous specific applications including a study of Jean Paul Sartre's novel La Naus e and recent conceptual art Some surprising conclusions are derived about the identity conditions of works and about the difference often between what a work seems to be and what it really is Dissertation of the end for which God created the world. Dissertation on the nature of true virtue. History of the work of redemption. An attempt to promote explicit agreement and visible union of God's people in extraordinary prayer. Distinguishing marks of a work of the spirit of God Jonathan Edwards, 1829 The Coming of God Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl,2004-07-27 Winner of Grawemeyer Award In this remarkable and timely work in many ways the culmination of his systematic theology world renowned theologian Jurgen Moltmann stands Christian eschatology on its head Moltmann rejects the traditional approach which focuses on the End an apocalyptic finale as a kind of Christian search for the final solution He centers instead on hope and God's promise of new creation for all things Christian eschatology he says is the remembered hope of the raising of the crucified Christ so it talks about beginning afresh in the deadly end Yet Moltmann's novel framework deeply informed by Jewish and messianic thought also fosters rich and creative insights into the perennially nettling questions of eschatology Are there eternal life and personal identity after death How is one to think of heaven hell and purgatory What are the historical and cosmological dimensions of Christian hope What are its social and political implications In a heartbreakingly fragile and fragment world Moltmann's comprehensive eschatology surveys the Christian vista bravely envisioning our horizons of expectation for personal social even cosmic transformation in God Newman and Heideggerian Philosophy Claude Cernuschi, 2012-03-22 This book investigates the writings and works of the American Abstract Expressionist artist Barnett Newman in light of ideas articulated by one of Germany's most important and influential philosophers Martin Heidegger At the intersection of art history and philosophy an int [With Preface to Vol. 1. by T. Douglas, 2023-10-04 Helen Grant's Schooldays by Amanda M Douglas Published by Good Press Good Press publishes a wide range of titles that encompasses every genre From well known classics literary fiction and non fiction to forgotten or yet undiscovered gems of world literature we issue the books that need to be read Each Good Press edition has been meticulously edited and formatted to boost readability for all e readers and devices Our goal is to produce eBooks that are user friendly and accessible to everyone in a high quality digital format Adam's Dream Joseph Romanella, 2012-11-30 According to the Holy Scriptures in the beginning Adam felt very alone and deeply longed to have a partner like him God therefore caused him to fall into a deep sleep took one of his ribs and fashioned woman from it Notably there is no mention in the Holy Bible that he later awoke In Adams Dream author Joseph Romanella presents a strong and very compelling argument that Adam as the universal man or mind is still sound asleep and has progressed to dream of humankind as his direct off spring He believes that with this new revolutionary knowledge gained through Divine Grace the self centered mentalities of human beings along with their narrow points of view concerning life and the outside world will also have to undergo corresponding changes In fact by comprehending that we are currently living inside of a very realistic fantasy as imaginary personal figures we are immediately placed in the proper perspective to significantly change the way that we think feel perceive will and behave As a result with this Holy Knowledge we are in a position to attract many good things into our earthly lives not only to prosper us spiritually but also in every other way Moreover with this new light a clearer awareness and a deeper acceptance of Gods Intimate Love for each one of us automatically arises And contrary to popular religious beliefs we also come to the realization that by faith all of our sins past present and future have already been forgiven and we have been empowered to enter into the Glorious Freedom Rest Life Joy Wisdom Righteousness and Eternal Embrace of our Heavenly Father without the need for any good works or sacrifices on our part Time and Identity Joseph Keim Campbell, Michael O'Rourke, Harry S. Silverstein, 2010-05-28 Original essays on the metaphysics of time identity and the self written by distinguished scholars and important rising philosophers. The concepts of time and identity seem at once unproblematic and frustratingly difficult Time is an intricate part of our experience it would seem that the passage of time is a prerequisite for having any experience at all and yet recalcitrant questions about time remain Is time real Does time flow

Do past and future moments exist Philosophers face similarly stubborn questions about identity particularly about the persistence of identical entities through change Indeed questions about the metaphysics of persistence take on many of the complexities inherent in philosophical considerations of time This volume of original essays brings together these two essentially related concepts in a way not reflected in the available literature making it required reading for philosophers working in metaphysics and students interested in these topics The contributors distinguished authors and rising scholars first consider the nature of time and then turn to the relation of identity focusing on the metaphysical connections between the two with a special emphasis on personal identity. The volume concludes with essays on the metaphysics of death issues in which time and identity play a significant role This groundbreaking collection offers both cutting edge epistemological analysis and historical perspectives on contemporary topics Contributors Harriet Baber Lynne Rudder Baker Ben Bradley John W Carroll Reinaldo Elugardo Geoffrey Gorham Mark Hinchliff Jenann Ismael Barbara Levenbook Andrew Light Lawrence B Lombard Ned Markosian Harold Noonan John Perry Harry S Silverstein Matthew H Slater Robert J Stainton Neil The Genius of H.
