Inerrancy and Worldview Vern S. Poythress,2012-05-31 Though the Bible presents a personal and relational God popular modern worldviews portray an impersonal divine force in a purely material world Readers influenced by this competing worldview hold assumptions about fundamental issues like the nature of humanity evil and the purpose of life that present profound obstacles to understanding the Bible In Inerrancy and Worldview Dr Vern Poythress offers the first worldview based defense of scriptural inerrancy showing how worldview differences create or aggravate most perceived difficulties with the Bible His positive case for biblical inerrancy implicitly critiques the worldview of theologians like Enns Sparks Allert and McGowan Poythress who has researched and published in a variety of fields including science linguistics and sociology deals skillfully with the challenges presented in each of these disciplines By directly addressing key examples in each field Poythress shows that many difficulties can be resolved simply by exposing the influence of modern materialism Inerrancy and Worldview s positive response to current attempts to abandon or redefine inerrancy will enable Christians to respond well to modern challenges by employing a worldview that allows the Bible to speak on its own terms Intersectional Incoherence Cindi Textor,2024-11-05 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Intersectional Incoherence stages an encounter between the critical discourse on intersectionality and texts produced by Korean subjects of the Japanese empire and their postwar descendants in Japan known as Zainichi Koreans Arguing for intersectionality as a reading method rather than strictly a tool of social analysis Cindi Textor reads moments of illegibility and incoherent language in these texts as a product of the pressures on Zainichi Koreans and their literature to represent both Korean difference from and affinity with Japan Rejecting linguistic norms and representational imperatives of identity categories Textor instead demands that the reader grapple with the silent absent illegible or unintelligible Engaging with the incoherent she argues allows for a more ethical approach to texts subjects and communities that resist representation within existing paradigms Theatre of the Arts ,2021-07-26 This volume celebrates Wilson Harris s eightieth birthday and more than fifty years of creative writing The most original and profound writer of the Caribbean he has revolutionized the art of fiction and its language He has himself contributed to this volume and several Caribbean writers of a younger generation Cyril Dabydeen Fred D Aguiar Andrew Jefferson Miles Mark McWatt Caryl Phillips Lawrence Scott pay tribute here to his genius The essays are by critics from the Caribbean Britain the United States and continental Europe who have long admired and explored his work They cover the various genres of Harris s writing his poetry fiction and criticism and deal with major aspects of his work bringing out its relevance to the contemporary context of violence in the world its modernity and its contribution to the renewal of the humanities Memoirs and Letters Oscar W.
