Reading Children's Literature: A Critical

Introduction - Second Edition Carrie Hintz, Eric L. Tribunella, 2019-03-28 Reading Children's Literature offers insights into the major discussions and debates currently animating the field of children's literature. Informed by recent scholarship and interest in cultural studies and critical theory, it is a compact core text that introduces students to the historical contexts, genres, and issues of children's literature. A beautifully designed and illustrated supplement to individual literary works assigned, it also provides apparatus that makes it a complete resource for working with children's literature during and after the course. The second edition includes a new chapter on children's literature and popular culture, including film, television, and merchandising, and has been updated throughout to reflect recent scholarship and new offerings in children's media.

Talk about Books! Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2003-07-30 Book clubs, literature circles, and reading groups are great ways to promote literacy and books to young readers. This new guide provides everything you need to run a dynamic, no-fuss book discussion group with elementary and middle school students. Featuring 15 titles of diverse genres, it offers discussion topics and activity ideas for some of the best new reads for kids. Brought to you by the authors of the highly acclaimed Reading Rules: Motivating Teens to Read, this guide is an outstanding resource for starting and running a stellar literary discussion group, whether it's in a school, public library, or community center. Grades 4-8 School Library Journal, 1997

Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum, teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature. However, standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse. Cultural Journeys introduces pre-service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity. More than just an annotated list of books for children, Pamela S. Gates and Dianne L. Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K-8. At the same time, the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods. With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography, this book is a valuable resource that pre-service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in-service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods. 100 Most Popular African American Authors Bernard A. Drew, 2006-11-30 Here's a one-stop resource containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers, along with complete lists of their works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide stresses African American writers of popular and genre literature, from Rochelle Alers and Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley and Omar Tyree, with a few classic literary giants also included. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Where can you find information about popular contemporary African American authors? Web sites can be difficult to locate and unreliable.

particularly for some of the newer authors and their contents are inconsistent and often inaccurate Although there are a number of reference works on African American writers the emphasis tends to be on historical and literary authors Here s a single volume containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with lists of their works Short profiles provide an overview of the author s life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author s published works Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years this guide covers African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley Omar Tyree and Zane A few classic literary giants who are popular with today s readers are also included e g Maya Angelou Toni Morrison and Richard Wright Readers who want to know more about their favorite African American authors or find other books written by those authors students researching AA authors for reports and papers and educators seeking background information for classes in African American literature will find this guide invaluable High school and up
