a quarter century of artistic practice Bad New Days examines the evolution of art and criticism in Western Europe and North America over the last twenty five years exploring their dynamic relation to the general condition of emergency instilled by neoliberalism and the war on terror Considering the work of artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tacita Dean and Isa Genzken and the writing of thinkers like Jacques Rancière Bruno Latour and Giorgio Agamben Hal Foster shows the ways in which art has anticipated this condition at times resisting the collapse of the social contract or gesturing toward its repair at other times burlesquing it Against the claim that art making has become so heterogeneous as to defy historical analysis Foster argues that the critic must still articulate a clear account of the contemporary in all its complexity To that end he offers several paradigms for the art of recent years which he terms abject archival mimetic and precarious Sam Durant, 2011

House documents, 1882 Takedown Farah Nayeri, 2022-01-25 Farah Nayeri addresses the difficult questions plaguing the art world from the bad habits of Old Masters to the current grappling with identity politics For centuries art censorship has been a top down phenomenon kings popes and one party states decided what was considered obscene blasphemous or politically deviant in art Today censorship can also happen from the bottom up thanks to calls to action from organizers and social media campaigns Artists and artworks are routinely taken to task for their insensitivity In this new world order artists critics philanthropists galleries and museums alike are recalibrating their efforts to increase the visibility of marginalized voices and respond to the people's demands for better ethics in art But what should we the people do with this newfound power With exclusive interviews with Nan Goldin Sam Durant Faith Ringgold and others Nayeri tackles wide ranging issues including sex religion gender ethics animal rights and race By asking and answering questions such as Who gets to make art and who owns it How do we correct the inequities of the past What does authenticity exploitation and appropriation mean in art Takedown provides the necessary tools to navigate the art world Thinking Utopia Jörn Rüsen, Michael Fehr, Thomas W. Rieger, 2006-12-01 After the breakdown of socialist and communist systems in the East it had become fashionable to declare the so called end of utopia end of history end of narratives The authors of this volume do not share this view but think that it is time to rehabilitate utopian thought The political concept of Utopia that has given its name to these transcendental projections onto the world has been too narrow to describe and analyze the moving forces of the mind perceiving human existence beyond reality By broadening the perspectives of utopian studies these essays enable the reader to reconstruct scholarly paradigms and strategies of utopian complex and holistic thinking in modern cosmology philosophy sociology in literary historical and political sciences and to compare traditions and ways of Western utopian thought to the practice in the East Art and Memorialisation Genevieve Grieves, Amy Spiers, 2024-11-09 This edited volume reflects on the profound effort undertaken by artists to contest settler denial and amnesia to disclose Australia's foundations in racialised violence and land theft The book examines how First Nations creative and cultural practitioners have turned to the unique spaces of art and culture to remember and mourn the profound loss of life caused by British invasion and colonisation in the absence of official commemoration and public acknowledgement of the damage caused. It significantly focuses on a number of creative practitioners driving this powerful memory work containing contributions from some of the leading thinkers on truth telling through creative practice including Fiona Foley, Dianne Jones, Vicki Couzens, Julie Gough, a Tony Birch, Paola Balla, Neika Lehman, Arlie Alizzi, Charmaine Papertalk, Green Kate, Golding Odette, Kelada and Clare Land. An important contribution to scholarship on the public memorialisation of difficult histories, this significant edited collection foregrounds First Nations, female, queer, trans and gender diverse artists and scholars from the continent that is known as Australia. Taken together, these deeply researched, considered texts, poems and conversations lend vital critical perspectives on the ways artists are confronting settler colonial Australia's toxic colonial memorial culture of denial. This book recognises that through a range of creative means and mediums, artists and cultural practitioners are making essential contributions to truth telling, devising evocative, sensitive ways to make the injustices committed against First Peoples not only visible and tangible but also strongly felt and grieved.

Memorial Mania Erika Doss, 2022-12-22 In the past few decades, thousands of new memorials to executed witches, victims of terrorism and dead astronauts, along with those that pay tribute to civil rights organ donors and the end of Communism, have dotted the American landscape. Equally ubiquitous, though until now less the subject of serious inquiry, are temporary memorials: spontaneous offerings of flowers and candles that materialize at sites of tragic and traumatic death. In Memorial Mania, Erika Doss argues that these memorials underscore our obsession with issues of memory and history and the urgent desire to express and claim those issues in visibly public contexts. Doss shows how this desire to memorialize the past disposes itself to individual anniversaries and personal grievances, to stories of tragedy and trauma, and to the social and political agendas of diverse numbers of Americans. By offering a framework for understanding these sites, Doss engages the larger issues behind our culture of commemoration. Driven by heated struggles over identity and the politics of representation, Memorial Mania is a testament to the fevered pitch of public feelings in America today.

The Routledge Companion to Surrealism Kirsten Strom, 2022-11-08 This book provides a conceptual and global overview of the field of Surrealist studies. Methodologically, the companion considers Surrealism's many achievements but also its historical shortcomings to illuminate its connections to the historical and cultural moments from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty-first-century vantage point. Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise, and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own. The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature, film, and political and intellectual history.

Space (Re)Solutions Peter Mörténböck, Helge Mooshammer, 2014-03-15 The rapid changes currently taking place in our urban, political and institutional environments have shifted spatial practice to centre stage both in civic life and academic research Social networking political projects cross border movements artistic interventions urban and environmental initiatives self organized educational practices all articulate the challenges involved in organizing the spaces we share In this volume visual culture scholars from around the world discuss the practical turn in different fields of critical engagement proposing fresh ways to assert an interpenetrated space of research and intervention

Indigenous Activism in the Midwest

Margret McCue-Enser, 2025-09-01 In Indigenous Activism in the Midwest: Refusal, Resurgence and Resisting Settler Colonialism Margret McCue Enser examines how Minnesota Indigenous activists use public memory sites to interrupt and challenge the dominant narrative of place She explores how Indigenous activism reveals and disrupts material discursive and performative rhetorics of settler colonialism This work cultivates the ground between rhetorical studies of place and space and Indigenous studies in which place is central to Indigeneity and activism Using largely in situ analysis and drawing on Indigenous and rhetorical scholarship as well as Indigenous and mainstream press the analysis focuses on sites such as an outdoor art installation a historic settlers village centennial and sesquicentennial farms and a celebrated military fort

Slocum 266: Slocum and the Blue-Eyed Hostage Jake Logan, 2001-04-01 Slocum s on the run from a crazed Comanche Slocum signs on to guard a wealthy Comanchero trader for some quick cash never expecting to get a white squaw in the bargain The woman was abducted by brutal Comanche Chief Black Horn who s only willing to part with her for a very high price a mess of repeating rifles to be exact Slocum and his boss are unwilling to provide the violent tribe with even more dangerous firearms So they leave without the lady or so they think Soon she s caught up with them and Slocum s saddled with the job of finding her a safe place to settle But just because decent folk won t sell rifles to the Comanches doesn t mean no one else will And on his quest to find safe haven for the blue eyed runaway Slocum s about to cross trails with some very unsavory characters who just might lead him to lock horns with Black Horn himself
