Same Planet Different World:

Same Planet - Different World Ben Clabaugh, 2013-02-18 , Mind's Eye, World's Canvas Barrett Williams, ChatGPT, 2025-08-15 Mind's Eye World's Canvas pulls back the curtain on everyday sight and the hidden brainwork that makes it possible. Reality, it argues, isn't a fixed map but a dynamic negotiation between your senses and your brain's best guesses. From perception as construction to the quiet rules that guide attention, this book turns complex ideas into a practical guide you can use in daily life. In accessible language, you'll explore how the brain uses prior ideas to predict what you'll see, hear, and feel. Learn why optical illusions aren't tricks but windows into the brain's shortcuts. See how memory edits, reshapes your past, and how brief expectations can alter taste, color, and mood. The journey moves through art, technology, sleep, city life, and culture, showing perception at work in museums, on screens, in traffic, and in conversations. You'll discover how painters and designers hack perception, how user interfaces scaffold what you notice, and how virtual and augmented reality push the brain's predictions to new heights. Across the chapters, practical experiments, real-world examples, and thought-provoking questions invite you to notice more, question assumptions, and cultivate sharper observation. The book also offers simple routines to recalibrate perception during sleep, in learning, and in decision-making, transforming curiosity into daily practice. Perfect for artists, students, professionals, and anyone who wants a more vivid, responsible view of the world, Mind's Eye, World's Canvas promises not just to inform but to change how you see. Open it and begin the lifelong practice of seeing more clearly, listening more deeply, and understanding the world as a perceptual masterpiece. From color, light, and sound to memory, bias, and ethical perception in daily life, Mind's Eye, World's Canvas offers a navigable map for curious readers. The Boy Who Fell to Earth Kathy Lette, 2024-06-20 Meet Merlin. He's Lucy's bright, beautiful son who just happens to be autistic. Since Merlin's father left them in the lurch, Lucy has made Merlin the centre of her world. Struggling with the joys and tribulations of raising her adorable yet challenging child, if only Merlin came with operating instructions, Lucy doesn't have room for any other man in her life. By the time Merlin turns ten, Lucy is seriously worried that the Pope might start ringing her up for tips on celibacy, so she resolves to dip a toe back into the world of dating. Thanks to Merlin's candour and quirkiness, things don't go quite to plan. Then just when Lucy's resigned to singledom, once more Archie, the most imperfectly perfect man for her and her son, lands on her doorstep. But then so does Merlin's father, begging for a second chance. Does Lucy need a real father for Merlin, or a real partner for herself? Praise for Kathy Lette: Fabulous, fast-paced, funny, unapologetically female. Nobody does it better. DEBORAH FRANCES WHITE, THE GUILTY FEMINIST. Deliciously rude and darkly funny but with compassion and humanity at its heart. Read with relish. NICOLE KIDMAN. Kathy Lette can turn from raunchy farce to the most tender emotion in a trice.
