Shankara on the Absolute Shri Shankara,2022-12-19 This is volume one of the six volume Shankara Source Book which contains writings by Shri Shankara arranged systematically by subject Shri Shankara was a great philosopher sage who expressed the non dual teachings in such a complete and satisfactory way that his formulation has been followed by authentic teachers of the non dual tradition ever since Most of his writings are in the form of commentaries on revealed texts such as the principle Upanishads the Bhagavad Gita and the Brahma Sutras so what he said was placed around those texts which are far from systematic His aim was to demonstrate that underlying the apparent contradictions and differences on the surface all the great revealed scriptures in fact point ultimately to one Supreme Truth He wished to do this in order to overcome the confusion that was causing hardship to the people at large and creating difficulties for dedicated seekers Shankara probably lived in the 8th century and died in his early 30s Shankara considered other views in great detail sometimes provisionally accepting elements of their arguments and then pointing out where those views lead to difficulties One of the great qualities of the non dual teachings as formulated by Shankara is that they are able to recognise and incorporate what is valid and useful in other views All this can make it difficult to find what Shankara said on particular subjects To meet this difficulty in the Source Book the writings have been freshly translated and brought together under subject headings These in turn have been arranged in six volumes each covering one broad topic These are Volume 1 Shankara on the Absolute Volume 2 Shankara on the Creation Volume 3 Shankara on the Soul Volume 4 Shankara on Rival Views Volume 5 Shankara on Discipleship Volume 6 Shankara on Enlightenment Śamkara on the Absolute Śamkara, Anthony John Alston, 1987 Revival: Contemporary Indian Philosophy (1936) S. Radhakrishnan, J. H. Muirhead, 2018-12-20 The book includes essays which are all written by philosophers of or about forty five years of age They fall into two main groups those in which the writer devotes himself chiefly to the exposition of the great Vedic tradition as he has apprehended it and made it the basis of his own life's work and those in which the writer while on the whole remaining true to the spirit of that tradition has sought to give new interpretations of it either by instituting comparisons of it with the Western doctrines most closely allied to it or by treating of modern problems in a way which though suggested by what he has learned from the West is yet stamped with the mark of his own racial sympathy Western readers will naturally find the latter group more attractive but this volume will have failed of its purpose if it does not give them some sense of the truth that underlies even the essays with which owing to the presuppositions on which these are founded they find themselves least in sympathy Causality Jeaneane Fowler, 2020-02-21 This book examines the concepts of cause and effect from two dimensions The first concerns the macrocosm of the Universe and how each belief system views creation The second dimension explores the ways in which beliefs about creation influence the microcosmic world in terms of the nature of the self the proximate goals within each system the answers each belief system offers to the presence of evil and suffering in existence and ideas about the ultimate goal of release from them All these ideas inform and are fundamental to the understanding of the present day practices of different faiths presenting challenges for scriptural testimony balanced with existential living The final two chapters explore current research in physics concerning the beginnings of the cosmos and what implications such research might have for existence within it with the final chapter examining scientific views of the nature of the self Contents include Judaic and Christian Traditions Islam Hinduism Early Buddhism Sikhism Classical Taoism Recycled Stardust Ashes to Ashes and Dust to Atoms The Life and Death of the Self New Perspectives on Advaita Vedānta Malkovsky, 2000-05-26 This volume is a collection of essays by leading scholars who treat various aspects of the Hindu thinker a kara ca 700 CE and his system of Advaita Vedānta Topics include the contemporary relevance of a kara for inter religious dialogue and human rights as well as revised assessments of a kara's understanding of divine grace the role of the gods Buddhism a kara's relation to later Advaita and the unity of the Self The introductory essay of this commemoration volume assesses the place and value of Richard De Smet's work in the context of twentieth century a kara scholarship The contributors break new scholarly ground and offer fresh perspectives on a kara and Advaita Vedānta and help reassess traditional understandings of this great master of non duality The Spirit of Indian Philosophy Nikunja Vihari

Banerjee,2023-10-13 First published in 1975 The Spirit of Indian Philosophy provides a systematic overview of Indian philosophy The book is divided into four major parts dealing with Indian epistemology Indian metaphysics Indian ethics and Indian philosophy of religion It makes a departure from usual method of investigating Indian philosophy by dealing with its different schools individually and separately It discusses themes like sources of cognition nature and criterion of true cognition problem of error materialism realism dualism Indian theories of causation reflective morality the ethics of non violence Indian atheism and Indian religion of God to argue that the usual conception of Indian philosophy in general as religious spiritualistic and pessimistic is contrary to the fact that the doctrine of Karma transmigration and rebirth strictly speaking is incompatible with the Indian ways of thinking and in deed is an imposition upon them ab extra This is an essential read for scholars and students of Indian philosophy Metaphysics Mr. Rohit Manglik,2023-08-23 In this book we will study about the nature of reality existence objects time space and the universe beyond physical observation Thinkers of the Indian Renaissance S A Abbasi,1997 Māyā in Radhakrishnan's Thought Donald A. Braue,1984 Revival: Thought and Reality - Hegelianism and Advaita (1937) Poolla Tirupati Raju,2018-07-27 This work is a contribution to certain aspects of idealistic philosophy It is a comparative study yet it is not a comparison for the sake of comparison This book examines the supra rational Absolutism of the West developed under the Hegelian influence and in the light of the criticisms shows the peculiar character of the Advaita Vedanta of Sankara It is therefore not a mere exposition but a criticism and construction The discussions are not cosmological but epistemological and metaphysical approached from the side of logic The work may also be viewed as a reorientation of Sankara's system It places Sankara's philosophy in line with the idealistic philosophies of the West so that we can understand the peculiarities of the former in terms of the latter It thus discovers or brings into clearer light the guiding principle of Sankara's thought It brings out the full significance of the principles of non contradiction applied by Sankara as a test of truth and reality and shows its difference from the same principle as understood by Hegel and the Hegelians The aim of this work is to attempt at laying the metaphysical foundation of the logic of supra rational Absolutism the interpretation of Advaita is based mostly on polemical works The Philosophy of Sankar's Advaita Vedanta Shyama Kumar Chattopadhyaya,2000 Study on Sarirakamimam sabhas ya by Sankaracarya Signposts to Silence J.S. Krüger,2018-12-01 Signposts to Silence provides a theoretical map of what it terms metaphysical mysticism the search for the furthest most inclusive horizon the domain of silence which underlies the religious and metaphysical urge of humankind in its finest forms Tracing the footsteps of pioneers of this exploration the investigation also documents a number of historical pilgrimages from a variety of cultural and religious backgrounds Such mountaineers of the spirit who created paths trodden by groups of followers over centuries and in some cases millennia include Lao Tzu and Chuang Tzu Siddhattha and Jesus Sankara and Fa tsang Plato and Plotinus Isaac Luria and Ibn Arabi Aquinas and Hegel Such figures teachings and traditions including the religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Taoism are understood as at their most sublime not final destiny and the end of the road but signposts to a horizon of ultimate silence The hermeneutical method employed in tracking such pioneers involves four steps sound historical critical understanding of the context of the various traditions and figures reconstruction of the subjective intentional structure of such persons and their teachings design by the author of a theoretical map of the overall terrain of metaphysical mysticism on which all such journeys of the spirit are to be located while providing a theoretical context for understanding them tendentially i e taking the ultimate drift of their thinking essentially to transcend their subjective intentions drawing out within the space available some political taken in a wide sense implications from the above such as religio political stances as well as ecological and gender implications Continuing the general direction of thought within what the author endorses to be the best in metaphysical mysticism in its historical manifestations the book aims to contribute to peace amongst religions in the contemporary global cultural situation It relativizes all claims to exclusive absolute truth that might be proclaimed by any religious or metaphysical mystical position while providing space for not only tolerating but also affirming the unique value and dignity of each This orientation moves beyond the stances of enmity or indifference or syncretism or homogenisation of all as well as that of mere friendly toleration It investigates the seemingly daunting and inhospitable yet immensely significant Antarctica of the Spirit the meta space of silence behind the various forms of wordy inter relationships It affirms pars pro toto totum pro parte and pars pro parte that each religious mystical and metaphysical orientation in its relative singularity represents or contains the whole and derives value from that and that each represents or contains every other This homiversal solidarity stimulating individual uniqueness is different from and in fact implies criticism of the process of globalisation While not taking part in a scientific argument as such Signposts to Silence aims at promoting an understanding of science and metaphysical mysticism as mutual context for each other and it listens to a number of voices from the domain of science that understand this
