Poet in the Grandstand Thomas Porky McDonald, 2010-11-18 In the area of ballpark hopping there have been a number of accounts written recorded or talked about in recent times sometimes for a cause or others just as a gimmick Through Poet in the Grandstand poet and writer Thomas Porky McDonald gives us a most unique twist on a preoccupation which has grown in the past few decades in the wake of the closings of classic old yards and the birth of the more entertainment and nostalgia driven open air parks From his first trip in 1990 to the fabled Comiskey Park of Shoeless Joe Jackson Bill Veeck and the Go Go Sox on through to the 2010 opening of Minnesota's fabulous Target Field featuring the modern M M Boys Joe Mauer and Justin Mourneau McDonald offers up a book that is part travelogue and part poetic tribute to all the places that men and women have gone to over the years for a very personal sense of joy This journey done methodically over two decades picks up steam as the chapters begin to flow The effect of McDonald himself clearly growing as a poet through the years is accentuated by the fact that more and more pieces are written in the later trips The end result is a most interesting volume of not just ballparks but Americana as numerous attractions taken in during those ballpark weeks and weekends are also noted and or dissected For fourteen seasons on his own and then six more accompanied by friend and confidant Adam Boneker McDonalds travels highlighted by over 300 poems can take the reader back to a simpler time or into the possibilities of the future In chapter and in verse Poet in the Grandstand has something for both the baseball enthusiast and the curious traveler Fans of the game and lovers of the road will each find much to offer within these pages From Street to Table Christian Lapastora,2020-12-31
