United Nations Sanctions and International Law Vera Gowlland-Debbas, 2021-11-15 The reactivation of the Security Council at the beginning of the last decade has resulted since the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq on August 2 1990 in increasing use of its powers under Chapter VII of the Charter and the adoption of measures against a number of state and non state entities The notion of a threat to the peace has now come to encompass violations of fundamental norms of international law such as human rights and humanitarian law and the wide ranging measures adopted have included such innovations as the establishment of the UN Compensation Commission or that of the two international criminal tribunals for Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda These measures have not only infringed on the legal rights of the targeted state sometimes with irreversible effects where they have remained in force over a long period of time and its population but also on those of implementing states and of private rights within these states The current debate over the legitimacy and long term effects of economic sanctions on states and their populations makes it imperative to re evaluate this instrument and the broader peace maintenance function of the Security Council in the light of current community concerns Part One of this book addresses the theoretical issues by focussing on 1 The place of sanctions in the international legal system 2 the limits to the powers of the Security Council and the question of accountability and 3 an assessment of the alternatives to collective economic sanctions Part Two looks at the relationship between sanctions and humanitarian issues examining the relationship between 1 Sanctions and human rights law 2 sanctions humanitarian issues and mandates and 3 sanctions and humanitarian law Part Three focuses on implementation by states of Security Council sanctions resolutions by examining 1 Sanctions and private rights and 2 special problems for implementing states Part Four addresses the future in reassessing the place and ethics of sanctions in an international legal system which is giving increased importance to the individual This work is based on papers presented at a colloquium of the Graduate Institute of International Studies in Geneva How Sanctions Work N. Crawford, A. Klotz, 1999-01-28 How Sanctions Work surveys theories of international sanctions and offers detailed analyses of the effect of sanctions on apartheid South Africa Chapters by respected international experts cover cultural isolation oil and military embargoes trade boycotts financial sanctions and divestment consequences for black South Africans and regional effects The book shows how sanctions both directly and indirectly hurt the apartheid regime while in some cases offering succour to the anti apartheid movement Sanctionner l'apartheid ? Colonisation, décolonisation, coopération (XIXe-XXe siècles) DIARRA

Abdoulaye, 2014-04-17 Cet ouvrage embrasse une période qui débute avec l'entreprise coloniale dans les années 1880 et traverse tout le XXe siècle marqué en son milieu par la décolonisation et la mise en route des processus d'indépendance. Après un rappel de la pensée socialiste européenne au début du XXe siècle, le livre revient sur les idées et les pratiques de la gauche française : SFIO, Parti communiste, Parti socialiste unifié face à la décolonisation de l'Afrique. Au travers des débats qui positionnent les uns et les autres, le lecteur retrouvera les noms des acteurs qui s'imposeront : Jean Jaurès, Léon Blum, Guy Mollet, François Mitterrand, Michel Rocard. Les nouvelles institutions de la Ve République vont opérer une mutation de la vie politique française. Mais cette évolution ne s'accompagnera pas d'une transformation des comportements et des représentations en matière internationale, notamment africaine. Cela sera patent dans le programme commun qui permettra l'arrivée de la gauche au pouvoir en 1981. Et pourtant, dans cette période, les débats sur le tiers monde, sur les règles économiques, changer et sur le nouvel ordre international sont bien présents dans les discussions et les résolutions de la gauche. Avec l'élection de François Mitterrand en 1981, la politique tiersmondiste du PS n'a pas résisté : la preuve du pouvoir, comme le montrera l'abandon de la politique de Jean-Pierre Cot en 1982. Malgré les liens du parti avec l'Internationale socialiste et les pistes nouvelles que cette dernière ouvrait, la pratique du domaine réservé au niveau de la présidence de la République a très fortement limité les stratégies reformistes. Dans sa dernière partie, l'ouvrage traite de l'abolition de l'apartheid en Afrique du Sud, de la fin des Blocs et de la guerre froide, de l'avènement de nouvelles relations internationales et d'une certaine évolution de la pensée de la gauche concernant l'Afrique. La suppression du ministère de la Coopération en 1998 sous Lionel Jospin en sera un signe. Avec l'arrivée de François Hollande au pouvoir et son engagement au Mali, puis en Centrafrique, ce sont de nouvelles initiatives qui engagent les socialistes français. Membre de la Cour constitutionnelle du Mali (1994-2008) et expert de l'Organisation internationale de la Francophonie (OIF), Abdoulaye Diarra est diplômé de l'université Paris X Nanterre (doctorat de thèse) et de l'université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne. Il a écrit de nombreux articles sur l'évolution de la vie politique du Mali et sur les processus de démocratisation dans les pays francophones d'Afrique noire. Il est aujourd'hui recteur de l'Université des sciences juridiques et politiques de Bamako.

Gorbachev, Italian Communism and Human Rights Autori Vari, 2023-01-27T14:44:00+01:00 The chapters brought together in this volume build on the idea that in the 1970s 1980s the global language of human rights contributed to stimulating ideas of reform in the communist world. The protagonists were Mikhail Gorbachev and the Italian communists. The experience of the PCI was in many ways a peculiar case but one that was linked to underground ideas of cultural change even in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union. Gorbachev's ascent signalled a fundamental shift as he rejected the approach of reducing human rights to an ideological battleground and instead made it the centrepiece of a universalist relaunch. By exploring the encounter between reform communists and human rights the authors reconstruct the metamorphosis and the end of communism within the context of the wider transformations taking place in European political cultures at the end of the Cold War.

The International Legal System in Quest of Equity and Universality Laurence Boisson de Chazournes, Vera Gowlland-Debbas, 2021-10-18 Georges Abi Saab began his writing and teaching at a time when the process of decolonization and thereafter the quest for emancipation began to make its far reaching impact on the international scene producing significant changes in the international environment both quantitatively in increasing the number of nation States and qualitatively in changing patterns of interests and claims. This was bound to result in new pressures on the international legal system itself and in a questioning of the traditional Eurocentric content of international law. In his work and teaching Professor Abi Saab viewed the dynamics of international law as a function of two driving forces the emergence of the third world and the sense of injustice In his view the first driving force the emergence of the third world raised the problem of exclusion exclusion from participation in the elaboration of international law and the decision making process and exclusion as beneficiaries of the resulting rules of international law At the same time this new force introduced diversity into the international scene reflecting the richness of the international community in its different facets This process remains relevant today reflecting the contemporary problem of exclusion of new actors as well as their quest for participation The second driving force the sense of injustice posed a teleological problem for him that of defining community values in order that they capture the different facets of justice whether formal or distributive So long as there is no effective organic structure international law in his view will continue to remain effectiveness oriented reflecting rather than impacting on the structures of power Nevertheless it is undeniable that there is an on going process of development of community values and interests as Georges Abi Saab wrote with reference to international crimes law like all social phenomena is a continuous unfolding a continuous process of elaboration He has also considered that the dynamics of the international legal process itself can be captured from the perspective of international organizations as vehicles for change in the international system From his early writings Georges Abi Saab approached the United Nations Charter as a blueprint both normative and institutional for a certain type of international society International institutions with all their imperfections continue for him to be the means of realization of the law of cooperation which lies at the heart of his concept of the international system The themes selected for this volume in honour of Professor Georges Abi Saab are intended to reflect his unique and pioneering contribution to the field of international law The contributors are drawn from what he has always considered to be his large family of former students in his forty years of teaching Georges Abi Saab has acted as mentor to generations of students from all over the world who have benefited from his vision insights originality and creative and stimulating use of language The contributors also include colleagues and friends who share a similar vision of the international legal system AF Press Clips ,1968
