Santa Fe Fantasy Quest For The Golden City:

Santa Fe Fantasy Elmo Baca, 1994 Santa Fe is a timeless and transcendental place that has drawn people for centuries and about which countless fantasies have been woven This book presents a pictorial essay that shows why The City Different has had such a powerful effect upon people of different times races and cultures and why its allure persists Spirit

Ascendant Edward Gonzales, David L. Witt, 1996 Patrocino Barela emerged in 1936 as one of America's most important artists when he was featured in a show of Federal Art Project artists in New York's Museum of Modern Art He was the first Mexican American artist to receive such a high degree of recognition His carvings in native juniper wood depict deep psychological and mystical insights into the human condition Barela's art is not easily classified although his carvings display parallels to Romanesque art in their narrative quality and to Modernism in their sophisticated definition of space There is also the aspect of the primitive or of Eros as Barela is in touch with the life force the deepest level of humanity shared by all peoples and all cultures In this way his imagery suggests the tribal art of Polynesia Africa Mesoamerica and the pre Christian Middle East The artist made his home in Canon New Mexico outside of Taos He never learned much about writing and he spent much of his life working on the farms and ranches of the Rocky Mountain states He lived and died in poverty His tragic death by fire took place in the workshop where he had carved some of the most profound art of our time Driven by the undeniable need to create Barela's art transcends time and place His work comes from the roots of the land and Hispano society of New Mexico The imagery he made from the erotic to the tragic to the religious shows individuals bearing the struggles of life Barela eludes many traps into which the works of lesser artists fall and achieves penetrating insights into our deepest emotions Montezuma Jon Bowman, 2002 The Montezuma Castle near Las Vegas New Mexico ranks among the undisputed architectural gems of the state Built in the 1880s as arguably the most opulent and fashionable resort west of the Mississippi the Montezuma hosted US presidents and titans of industry as well as European and Japanese nobility and the outlaw Jesse James Patrons enjoyed the first bowling alley in the West the first electric lighting in New Mexico celebrated hot springs and spas and exquisite cuisine including fresh fish and sea turtles hauled by rail from the West Coast and Mexico In spite of its illustrious past the Montezuma stood empty for much of the last century the structure vandalised and falling into ruin Chances for its resurrection looked dim until 1997 when the National Trust for Historic Preservation designated the former hotel as one of America's eleven Most Endangered Historic Places It was the first property west of the Mississippi to gain that attention and a committed preservation effort followed Here is the story of the castle's heritage its architectural grandeur and its rebirth as an educational complex serving the diverse global population of students attending the United World College of the American West founded by Armand Hammer with help from Prince Charles Shelter from the Storm Kirk Gittings, Gussie Fauntleroy, 2005 The second volume in the New Mexico Magazine Photo Series features the photography of Kirk Gittings This compact beautiful collection of many of the best of Gittings photographs will excite all who love New Mexico His is a magnificent oeuvre from photographs of the ruins at Chaco Canyon to the charming chapels of northern New Mexico His images capture the rich detail of architectural interiors as well as the sleek exteriors of the state's most contemporary buildings Author Gussie Fauntleroy organizes and introduces Gittings images in the context of New Mexico's shelters and sanctuaries tracing the influence of the state's earliest structures through to its most modern edifices Fauntleroy writes There is a coherence in Gittings sensibility vision and style that runs through both his commercial and fine art photography From ancient to ultra modern the architecture of New Mexico rooted in the earth graced by the craftsman's hand and offering a sense of continuity in materials and form has much to tell about who we have been and who we are Kirk Gittings's work has appeared in numerous publications including Architectural Digest View Camera Magazine Sunset Su Casa Art in America Santa Fe Trends and for many years New Mexico Magazine He has made New Mexico his home for forty five years
