Connections in the Raw By Kevin A Knight After reading a book about barefoot running Kevin A Knight began barefoot running as a way to reduce pain in his hip and back Not only did the pain go away but he gained wonderful insights while he ran In Connections in the Raw Kevin chronicles stories and insights from years of barefoot running Kevin shares his perspective that deep connections exist in our lives between us and the Creator other people and with nature and that we all have access to wisdom that is rewarded to all who will listen Readers interested in running and barefoot running will be enlightened but even non running readers will be moved by his reflections on the challenges and delights of feeling his feet on pavement Knight hopes readers will come away with a new understanding of the wonders of creation and be inspired to listen for what it might tell them He also hopes it encourages readers to get out and run with or without shoes on      The Churchman ,1926

Through Life's Obstacles comes Sunshine part 2 Stephanie Lynn Panayiotou,2024-09-23 This is my second Book Part 2 in a continue from where we left off after my first one through life s obstacle s come s sunshine In solving everyday mysteries I hope you enjoy it i have 5 attached 5 short stories i wrote as well      Best of Covered Wagon Women Kenneth L. Holmes,2011-11-28 The diaries and letters of women who braved the overland trails during the great nineteenth century westward migration are treasured documents in the study of the American West These eight firsthand accounts are among the best ever written They were selected for the power with which they portray the hardship adventure and boundless love for friends and family that characterized the overland experience Some were written with the skilled pens of educated women Others bear the marks of crude cabin learning with archaic and imaginative spelling and a simplicity of expression All convey the profound effect the westward trek had on these women For too long these diaries and letters were secreted away in attics and basements or collected dust on the shelves of manuscript collections across the country Their publication gives us a fresh perspective on the pioneer experience

A Carnival of Parting Ann Grodzins Gold, 2023-07-28
 Madhu Natarajan is a Rajasthani farmer with no formal schooling He is also a singer a musician and a storyteller At the center of A Carnival of Parting are Madhu Nath's oral performances of two linked tales about the legendary Indian kings Bharthari of Ujjain and Gopi Chand of Bengal Both characters while still in their prime leave thrones and families to be initiated as yogis a process rich in adventure and melodrama one that offers unique insights into popular Hinduism's view of world renunciation Ann Grodzins Gold presents these living oral epic traditions as flowing narratives transmitting to Western readers the pleasures moods and interactive dimensions of a village bard's performance Three introductory chapters and an interpretive afterword together with an appendix on the bard's language by linguist David Magier supply A Carnival of Parting with a full range of ethnographic historical and cultural backgrounds Gold gives a frank and engaging portrayal of the bard Madhu Nath and her work with him The tales are most profoundly concerned Gold argues with human rather than divine realities In a compelling afterword she highlights their thematic emphases on politics love and death Madhu Nath's vital colloquial telling of Gopi Chand and Bharthari's stories depicts renunciation as inevitable and interpersonal attachments as doomed yet celebrates human existence as a carnival of parting Madhu Natarajan is a Rajasthani farmer with no formal schooling He is also a singer a musician and a storyteller At the center of A Carnival of Parting are Madhu Nath's oral performances of two linked tales about the legendary Indian kings
