Commercio, 2022-12-06 During Soviet rule the state all but imposed atheism on the primarily Islamic people of Kyrgyzstan and limited the tradition of polygyny a form of polygamy in which one man has multiple wives Polygyny did continue under communism though chiefly under concealment In the decades since the fall of the Soviet Union the practice has reemerged Based on extensive fieldwork Polygynous Marriages among the Kyrgyz argues that this marriage practice has become socially acceptable and widely dispersed not only because it is rooted in customary law and Islamic practice but because it can also enable men and women to meet societal expectations and solve practical economic problems that resulted from the fall of the Soviet Union Michele E Commercio's analysis suggests the normalization of polygyny among the Kyrgyz in contemporary Kyrgyzstan is due both to institutional change in the form of altered governmental rules and expectations and to institutional endurance in the form of persistent hegemonic constructions of gender Polygamous Marriages in Peninsular Malaysia Norani Othman, Yaso Nadarajah, Rozana Mohd Isa, 2025-04-28 This book presents the first national study of the practice of polygamy undertaken amongst Malay Muslims contextualised within the broader social legal and political context of Malaysia A collaboration between the Sisters in Islam NGO and three universities in Malaysia it examines the perspectives of both men and women through quantitative and qualitative data analysis of over 1 200 surveys and more than 60 in depth interviews charting the legal financial social and emotional impacts of polygamy It incorporates both progressive Islamic scholarly thought and the unique sociologically rich perspectives of the study respondents In doing so the data serves to strengthen advocacy for awareness and law reforms within Islamic jurisprudence frameworks and institutions As one of the most comprehensive surveys ever conducted on polygamy in a Muslim society this represents a major tour de force within a little explored field with tremendous potential for societal impact This book is relevant to academics and graduate students seeking a deeper understanding of the issues related to Muslim polygamous marriage and to researchers within the broader fields of gender studies family studies Islamic studies and Islamic legal studies It is also a landmark resource for activists and policymakers seeking to advocate on behalf of marginalised groups particularly women and children in polygamous families Marabout Women in Dakar Amber B. Gemmeke, 2008 This rich ethnographic study explores the life and work of successful marabout women in Dakar It is set against the background of their private family lives of developments in Senegalese society and of global changes While including female experts in spirit possession and plant based healing it also gives a rare insight in the work of women who offer Islamic knowledge such as Arabic astrology numerology divination and prayer sessions With the analysis of marabout women s work this study sheds light on the ways in which women s authority in esoteric knowledge is negotiated legitimated and publicly recognised in Dakar The study focuses especially upon marabout women s strategies to gain their clients trust Reference to rural areas is a significant element in this process This study thus contributes to an understanding of the gendered way in which trust and scepticism are related to marabouts work and of the role of a connection between Dakar and the rural areas therein Elite Malay Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen, 2018-09-14 Elite Malay women's polygamy narratives are multiple and varied and their sentiments regarding the practice are conflicted as they are often torn between personal and religious convictions This volume explores the ways in which this increasingly prominent practice impacts Malay gender relations As Muslims elite Malay women may be forced to accept polygamy but they mostly condemn it as women and wives as it forces them to manage their lives and loves under the threat of polygamy from a husband able to marry another woman without their knowledge or consent a husband that is married but available Multiple Wives, Multiple Pleasures Joan DelPlato, 2002 This is a critical study of French and British art and written texts poetry literature travel accounts art criticism orientalist works about the harem produced in the period from 1800 1875 Original readings are provided for over 150 harem pictures from well known salon paintings to rarely published erotic popular prints and book illustrations Multiple Wives Multiple Pleasures examines these works closely often establishing fresh contexts for many of the more well known nineteenth century harem pictures and often providing a consideration of lesser known harem pictures that have been rarely published until now

Social Theory in Contemporary Asia Ann Brooks,2010-07-14 Philosophical debates around reflexivity identity and intimacy have preoccupied Western social and cultural theorists since the 1990s and this book examines them in relation to the Chinese diasporic cultures in Asia The debates are set within the context of globalization and its impact on cultural gendered and ethnic identities in late modernity Polygamy and Law in Contemporary Saudi Arabia Maha Yamani,2022-07-01 The topic of polygamy in Islamic countries is generally perceived by outsiders as something linked to harems and Hollywood style foreign intrigues The practice is frequently viewed through sexual connotations and male power versus female powerlessness The purpose of this book is to shed light on the often misunderstood polygamous situation in modern Saudi Arabia Through a unique series of local interviews with both men and women involved in polygamy both maritally and professionally the author invites the reader into the homes and personal lives of the people directly affected

The result is a moving candid examination of the frame of mind impulses incentives reasons and circumstances that drive individuals towards polygamy as well as the social legal economic and emotional consequences that inevitably follow The book also examines the historical origins of Islamic polygamy in Mecca and Medina as well as the legal situation in Saudi Arabia today The author argues that a combination of gender differences created through local laws and public policy decisions the revival of customary tribal practices and the pressures created by the sudden materialism of modern life have all led towards a misapplication of the original Islamic legal essence of the practice and a re adaptation of the laws regulating Studies In Family Planning: India, 2003-06 As a programme of directed social and behavioural change Family Planning has made considerable progress in India An impressive library of family planning research has also been created in the process There is however a disturbing communication gap between the research and the policy maker planner administrator Research findings do not get canalized into action programmes These two remain discrete activities with very little of interface between them One of the reasons for this is lack of systematization of research findings A stage has been reached when the stock taking of the existing body of research has become necessary to provide a sort of system or order to the widely scattered data and findings and to identify research gaps This double exercise will render current research utilizable and will stimulate further research This is what Professor Kamala Gopal Rao does in this book A distinguished researcher in the field of family planning Dr Rao has attempted to summarize and present in common format over 500 studies conducted in India between 1950 1973 on different aspects of family planning The main findings of the studies are critically reviewed for their relevance to the ongoing family planning programme She has also reviewed the methodologies employed in family planning research She suggests strategies to promote utilization of research The book fulfils the much felt need for a ready reference for researchers and a guide to administrators policy makers and programme planners concerned with family planning
