More victims soon appear strung up in similarly dramatic fashion on other major attractions throughout Europe. Who is killing them? Why? Who will be next? Hailed as queen of the cozy police procedural, Publishers Weekly USA Today bestselling author Carlene O'Connor returns to County Cork in Ireland's lush countryside where locals are simmering with excitement over the reality TV baking contest coming to town until someone serves up a show-stopping murder that only Garda Siobhan O'Sullivan can solve. Distinctive, captivating characters match a gripping plot full of surprises. O'Connor reinforces her place among the top rank of cozy writers. Publishers Weekly STARRED REVIEW. In Kilbane, opinions are plentiful and rarely in alignment. But there's one thing everyone does agree on: the bakery in the old flour mill just outside town is the best in County Cork, well worth the short drive and the long lines. No wonder it's about to be featured on a reality baking show. All six contestants in the show are coming to Kilbane to participate, and the town is simmering with excitement. Aside from munching on free samples, the locals, including Siobhan, get a chance to appear in the opening shots. As for the competitors, not all are as sweet as their confections. There are shenanigans on the first day of filming that put everyone on edge, but that s nothing compared to day two when the top contestant is found face down in her signature pie The producers decide to continue filming while Siobhan and her husband Garda Macdara Flannery sift through the suspects Was this a case of rivalry turned lethal or are their other motives hidden in the mix And can they uncover the truth before another baker is eliminated permanently     Silent Nights Are Murder Libby Klein,2024-09-24 Despite her best efforts gluten free baker Poppy McAllister finds herself confounded by a case of murder this Christmas in the latest installment of this delightful culinary B now it looks like it s going to be a murder y Christmas after all
