Long Shots:

Close-ups and Long Shots in Modern Chinese Cinemas Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2020-10-31 Two of the most stylized shots in cinema the close up and the long shot embody distinct attractions The iconicity of the close up magnifies the affective power of faces and elevates film to the discourse of art The depth of the long shot in contrast indexes the facts of life and reinforces our faith in reality Each configures the relation between image and distance that expands the viewer's power to see feel and conceive To understand why a director prefers one type of shot over the other then is to explore more than aesthetics It uncovers significant assumptions about film as an art of intervention or organic representation Close ups and Long Shots in Modern Chinese Cinemas is the first book to compare these two shots within the cultural historical and cinematic traditions that produced them In particular the global revival of Confucian studies and the transnational appeal of feminism in the 1980s marked a new turn in the composite cultural education of Chinese directors whose shot selections can be seen as not only stylistic expressions but ethical choices responding to established norms about self restraint ritualism propriety and female agency Each of the films discussed Zhang Yimou's Red Sorghum Ang Lee's Lust Caution Hou Hsiao hsien's The Assassin Jia Zhangke's I Wish I Knew and Wei Desheng's Cape No 7 represents a watershed in Chinese cinemas that redefines the evolving relations among film politics and ethics Together these works provide a comprehensive picture of how directors contextualize close ups and long shots in ways that make them interpretable across many films as bellwethers of social change

Popularizing Science in the Digital Era Sichen Xia, 2023-06-23 This book offers a comprehensive overview of TED talks as a digital multimodal video genre exploring the ways in which myriad rhetorical structural digital and multimodal resources are used to communicate scientific knowledge to lay audiences Drawing on insights from genre analysis the systemic functional approach to multimodal discourse analysis and the social semiotic approach to multimodality the volume examines the communicative contexts in which TED talks are constructed their rhetorical structure the deployment of multimodal tools and diachronic developments The book reflects on the ways in which TED talks are uniquely positioned to offer new insights into how experts disseminate scientific knowledge for non specialist audiences constructed as they are within a community defined by a fluidity and diversity of audiences and speakers The volume offers strategies for not only making the process of disseminating specialized knowledge more engaging and accessible but also expanding their own semiotic and communicative repertoires increasingly crucial in our digitally driven era This book will be of interest to students and scholars of English for Specific Purposes multimodality discourse analysis and digital communication The Classical Hollywood Cinema David Bordwell, Janet Staiger, Kristin Thompson, 2003-09-02 Acclaimed for its breakthrough approach and its combination of theoretical analysis and empirical evidence this is the standard work on the classical Hollywood cinema style of film making from the silent era to the 1960s The Sentimental in Chinese Cinema Hui Miao, 2022-03-30 This book explores manifestations and perpetuations of the sentimental in Mainland Chinese cinema from the 1990s to the 2000s A sentimental Chinese cinema one that articulates notions of homecoming and belonging emerged in the 1990s with its distinctive styles The representations and configurations of this evolving style of Chinese cinematic expression are not only thought provoking in their own right but also in the way they contrast with past forms of Chinese sentimental cinema and with sentimental aesthetics elsewhere in the world These new representations have transformed established family centred expressions of the sentimental in Chinese cinema The new sentimental emphasises togetherness and a yearning for belonging which often appear in the themes of homecoming and home longing This also forms a cultural resistance towards the increasingly alienating and isolating forces of globalisation and urbanisation This book analyses the sociocultural conditions that have allowed for a renewed understanding of the sentimental and the cultural identity markers that are perpetually under contestation Letterboxed Harper Cossar, 2011-01-14 When widescreen technology was introduced to filmmaking in 1953 it changed the visual framework and aesthetic qualities of cinema forever Before widescreen a director's vision for capturing beautiful landscapes or city skylines was limited by what could be included in the boxy confines of an Academy Ratio film frame The introduction and subsequent evolution of widescreen technology has allowed directors to push the boundaries of filmmaking Letterboxed The Evolution of Widescreen Cinema explores the technological changes of the widescreen technique and how the format has inspired directors and also sparked debates among film critics Examining early filmmakers such as Buster Keaton and D W Griffith and genre pioneers like Nicholas Ray and Douglas Sirk Harper Cossar explains how directors use wider aspect ratios to enhance their creative visions Letterboxed tracks the history of stylistic experimentation with the film frame and demonstrates how the expansion of the screen has uncovered myriad creative possibilities for directors Effective TV Production Gerald Millerson, 1994-04-11 Effective TV Production gives a

succinct but thorough overview of the production process Whatever your role in television this book outlines the main functions of your job placing them in the context of all other operations and showing how they are interrelated The book shows how within the often severe limitations of time and money it is possible to originate interesting and competitive television programmes It describes the essentials of good camerawork and relates them to considerations of audio staging lighting make up and wardrobe techniques and the way in which a production is developed in approach and style form the initial stages to the moment of shooting This edition is substantially revised to reflect developments in technology and contemporary production styles Gerald Millerson d books on television have long been acknowledged as among the best ever published

Cross-Cultural Filmmaking Ilisa Barbash, Lucien Taylor, 2023-09-01 This extraordinary handbook was inspired by the distinctive concerns of anthropologists and others who film people in the field The authors cover the practical technical and theoretical aspects of filming from fundraising to exhibition in lucid and complete detail information never before assembled in one place The first section discusses filmmaking styles and the assumptions that frequently hide unacknowledged behind them as well as the practical and ethical issues involved in moving from fieldwork to filmmaking The second section concisely and clearly explains the technical aspects including how to select and use equipment how to shoot film and video and the reasons for choosing one or the other and how to record sound Finally the third section outlines the entire process of filmmaking preproduction production postproduction and distribution Filled with useful illustrations and covering documentary and ethnographic filmmaking of all kinds Cross Cultural Filmmaking will be as essential to the anthropologist or independent documentarian on location as to the student in the classroom This extraordinary handbook was inspired by the distinctive concerns of anthropologists and others who film people in the field The authors cover the practical technical and theoretical aspects of filming from fundraising to exhibition in lucid and c

Finnish Cinema Henry Bacon, 2016-10-01 This book presents an expert analysis of the transnational aspects of Finnish cinema throughout its history As a small nation cinema Finnish film culture has even at its most nationalistic always been attached to developments in other film producing nations in terms of production and distribution as well as genres and aesthetics Recent developments in film theory offer exciting new approaches and methodologies for the study of transnational phenomena in the field of film culture both past and present The authors employ a wide range of cutting edge methodologies in order to address the major issues involved in transnational approaches to film culture Until recently much of this research has focused on globalization and questions related to diasporic cinema while transnational issues related to small nation film cultures have been marginalized This study focuses on how small nation cinemas have faced the dilemma of contributing to the construction and maintenance of national culture and identity while responding to audience tastes largely shaped by foreign cinemas With Finland s intriguing political placement between East and West along with the high portion of film history preserved in Finnish archives this thoroughly contextualized multidisciplinary analysis of Finnish film history serves as an illuminating case study of the transnational aspects of small nation cinemas Race In Play Carl E. James, 2005-04-01 In Race in Play James takes the reader on an edifying walk through the structural and institutional communities that support and sustain sports while also examining individual links between sport schooling and the educational and career aspirations of youth. He also explores issues of race, racialized minority youth, and Black men and women in sport. Well known for his work in the sociology of sport, Dr. James builds on his earlier research, casting his gaze on the lived experiences of athletic identified students and on the outcomes of their athletic and academic performances.
