Queenan, 2011-08-11 Judge Queenan tells a very human story of his life family and travels withholding no family secrets Included is an account of his diverse and evolving career as a lawyer who handled business transactions drafted estate plans tried cases and at the end found greatest satisfaction in representing corporations reorganizing under chapter 11 He tells of the losing party in one case sending a bomb in the mail to his client We also learn of the disastrous results of a Ponzi scheme that used ruses similar to those of Bernard Madoff Judge Queenans high values and commitment to due process of law are apparent throughout He is still troubled by the prejudicial effect of the press conferences held by the district attorney in the Brinks armed robbery case which came before the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts when he was a young law clerk with the court In giving an account of his years on the bench a time when he was also teaching in law school Judge Queenan makes law and trials understandable to the layman He rejects the notion that bankruptcy is a refuge for the dishonest and lazy and he decries the countrys toxic fascination with debt taking special aim at abusive leveraged buy outs of corporations He recalls memorable witnesses and lawyers tells how he determined who was lying and explains what he did to reduce the length of trials Perhaps most informative of all he describes how a judge makes law rather than just grabbing a rule off the shelf A former campaign worker for Robert Kennedy Judge Queenan shows his passion for politics He gives a critique of the Supreme Courts 2000 decision in Bush v Gore which handed the presidency to George W Bush As one who demonstrated against the war in Iraq before the war began he examines the wars terrible consequences and traces its long political fallout that contributed to the election of Barack Obama for whom the judge delivers a unique panegyric

Yesterday's Reflections Albert F. Schmid, 2013-02-22 In Yesterdays Reflections author Albert F Schmid invites us to consider the various holidays that are celebrated throughout the year He provides interesting facts about each holiday and includes the religious origins of them where relevant because many of our holidays have a religious connection He also explains important points about the holidays such as why Easter is always on a Sunday and why Thanksgiving is always on the fourth Thursday in November In addition he includes devotionals on topics ranging from Contentment to God Is Where Love Is Each devotional includes the pertinent Scriptures a story to illustrate the point being made and Schmid's comments For example The Rear View Mirror tells the story of Grace who remembers her father's advice for driving in the snow find a snow plow and follow it When she encounters a blizzard she does this an hour later the driver stops to make certain she is all right as he had plowed a large parking lot was moving on to the next business and was concerned when he noticed that she was following him We often become comfortable thinking that we can just follow the snow plow when in truth we need to learn to trust God and let Him lead the way Yesterdays Reflections is an inspiring collection that reminds us that we are Christ's ambassadors and that God expects each of us to live and act as though He is making His appeal through us The best sermons are not preached they are lived
