M. W. Harvey,1991 Jack Cade s Rebellion of 1450 was one of the most important popular uprisings to take place in England during the Middle Ages It began as an orchestrated demonstration of political protest by the inhabitants of south eastern England against the corruption mismanagement and oppression of Henry VI s government This is the first full length study of Cade s revolt to be published this century Harvey charts the course of the rebellion and its associated troubles during the early 1450s and explores the nature of the society which gave rise to these upheavals She uncovers the identities of the rebels explains their actions assesses their relations with the magnates and examines their achievements illuminating the eventual collapse of Henry VI s reign into the War of the Roses Major Chancellor's Mission Paula Marshall,2003 Poor Relief and Community in Hadleigh, Suffolk 1547-1600 Marjorie Keniston McIntosh,2013-04-01 At the cutting edge of new social and demographic history this book provides a detailed picture of the most comprehensive system of poor relief operated by any Elizabethan town Well before the Poor Laws of 1598 and 1601 Hadleigh Suffolk a thriving woolen cloth center with a population of roughly 3 000 offered a complex array of assistance to many of its residents who could not provide for themselves orphaned children married couples with more offspring than they could support or supervise widows people with physical or mental disabilities some of the unemployed and the elderly Hadleigh s leaders also attempted to curb idleness and vagrancy and to prevent poor people who might later need relief from settling in the town Based upon uniquely full records this study traces 600 people who received help and explores the social religious and economic considerations that made more prosperous people willing to run and pay for this system Relevant to contemporary debates over assistance to the poor the book provides a compelling picture of a network of care and control that resulted in the integration of public and private forms of aid
