Lunar Legends:

Special Mission John E. Muller, Lionel Fanthorpe, Patricia Fanthorpe, 2014-08-28 Kerrigan was a legend of his own life time He was the kind of electric personality around whom strange stories accumulate like iron filings dancing towards a magnet When Kerrigan failed to return from a special mission in 2178 the stories grew wilder Some of his crew refused to believe he was dead others went to look for him By 2180 it was as fashionable to go to Lunar Base to look for Kerrigan as it had been fashionable to hunt monsters in Loch Ness two centuries before His brother Harry was open minded about the stories even a little sickened by the transport companies who were cashing in on Kerrigan s disappearance Then Harry met Susan Croft and his opinions of the transport companies changed a little Susan was a telepath and she believed that Kerrigan was trying to contact her Lunar however is a big empty dusty place and it was worse than looking for a needle in a haystack Then one day they saw Kerrigan or something that looked like Kerrigan
