The Gothic, Postcolonialism and Otherness T. Khair,2009-11-04 Starting with a re examination of the role of the colonial racial Other in mainstream Gothic colonial fiction this book goes on to engage with the problem of narrating the subaltern in the post colonial context It engages with the problems of representing difference in lucid conceptual terms with much attention to primary texts and highlights the strengths and weaknesses of colonial discourses as well as postcolonialist attempts to write back While providing rich readings of Conrad Kipling Melville Emily Bront Erna Brodber Jean Rhys and others it offers new perspectives on Otherness difference and identity re examines the role of emotions in literature and suggests productive ways of engaging with contemporary global and postcolonial issues

Materiality in Modernist Short Fiction Laura Oulanne,2021-05-30 Materiality in Modernist Short Fiction provides a fresh approach to reading material things in modern fiction accounting for the interplay of the material and the cultural This volume investigates how Djuna Barnes Katherine Mansfield and Jean Rhys use the short story form to evoke the material world as both living and lived and how the spaces they create for challenging gendered social norms can also be nonanthropocentric spaces for encounters between the human and the nonhuman Using the unique knowledge created by literary works to spark new conversations between phenomenology cognitive studies and new materialisms complemented with a feminist perspective this book explores how literature can touch the basic experience of being in feeling and making sense of a material world that is itself alive and active From a sensitive reading of how three women used the material world to make their readers see feel and question the norms shaping our experience this volume draws a theory of reading affective materiality that illuminates modernism and the short story form but also reaches beyond them The Open Access version of
