literature scholars from twelve different countries contribute to the ongoing debate on the importance of picturebook research focusing on aesthetic and cognitive aspects of picture books Contributors take interdisciplinary approaches that integrate different disciplines such as literary studies art history linguistics narratology cognitive psychology sociology memory studies and picture theory Topics discussed include intervisuality twist endings autobiographical narration and metaliterary awareness in picturebooks The essays also examine the narrative challenges of first person narratives ellipsis and frame breaking in order to consider the importance of mindscape as a new paradigm in picturebook research Tying
