Xenocitizens Jason Berger, 2020-06-02 In Xenocitizens Jason Berger returns to the antebellum United States in order to challenge a scholarly tradition based on liberal humanist perspectives Through the concept of the xenocitizen a synthesis of the terms xeno which connotes alien or stranger and citizen which signals a naturalized subject of a state Berger uncovers realities and possibilities that have been foreclosed by dominant paradigms Innovatively re-orienting our thinking about traditional nineteenth century figures such as Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau as well as formative writers such as William Wells Brown Martin R Delany Margaret Fuller and Harriet Beecher Stowe Xenocitizens glimpses how antebellum thinkers formulated in response to varying forms of oppression and crisis startlingly unique ontological and social models as well as unfamiliar ways to exist and to leverage change In doing so Berger offers us a different nineteenth century pushing our imaginative and critical thinking toward new terrain

The Purrfect Trilogy: Lynn Margaret Hamilton, 2013-05-31 The Purrfect Trilogy was written for the millions of ordinary everyday people who will move our civilization into a new era and feel overwhelmed by this task These books are written to the science of vibration Different levels of understanding are woven through the text so one will be right for you Each time you read them your comprehension changes as you can see more than you could before As your comprehension changes so your vibration changes and manifests according to your new tone As we understand within ourselves so we manifest without to explore our level of understanding individually and collectively Through this journey of the rational mind and the emotional heart you'll explore different levels of understanding eventually coming to see a bigger picture of yourself as you understand more about the human condition and our interconnectedness Micro to macro The only way to greater understanding of humanity and how we create is through greater understanding of self and the magic within oneself The magic we use every day but often misuse when we don't realize we're energy beings who use our mind to do magic every day The Three Step Lesson of This Trilogy Book 1 See with two eyes Book 2 Open your heart to others and your experiences Book 3 Live in your brother/sisterhood/your wholeness
