Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World Pamila Gupta, 2018-10-18 Pamila Gupta takes a unique approach to examining decolonization processes across Lusophone India and Southern Africa focusing on Goa Mozambique Angola and South Africa weaving together case studies using five interconnected themes Gupta considers decolonization through the twined lenses of history and ethnography accessed through written oral visual and eyewitness accounts of how people experienced the transfer of state power She looks at the materiality of decolonization as a movement of peoples across vast oceanic spaces demonstrating how it was a process of dispossession for both the Portuguese formerly in power and ordinary colonial citizens and subjects She then discusses the production of race and class anxieties during decolonization which took on a variety of forms but were often articulated through material objects The book aims to move beyond linear histories of colonial independence by connecting its various regions using the theme of decolonization offering a productive and new approach to writing post national histories and ethnographies Finally Gupta demonstrates the value of using different source materials to access narratives of decolonization analyzing the work of Mozambican photographer Ricardo Rangel and including lyrical prose and ethnographical observations Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World provides a nuanced understanding of Lusophone decolonization revealing the perspectives of people who experienced it This book will be highly valuable for historians of the Indian Ocean world and decolonization but also those interested in ethnography diaspora studies and material culture Why Peacekeeping Fails D. Jett, 2000-03-01 Dennis C Jett examines why peacekeeping operations fail by comparing the unsuccessful attempt at peacekeeping in Angola with the successful effort in Mozambique alongside a wide range of other peacekeeping experiences The book argues that while the causes of past peacekeeping failures can be identified the chances for success will be difficult to improve because of the way such operations are initiated and conducted and the way the United Nations operates as an organization Jett reviews the history of peacekeeping and the evolution in the number size scope and cost of peacekeeping missions He also explains why peacekeeping has become more necessary possible and desired and yet at the same time more complex more difficult and less frequently used The book takes a hard look at the UN's actions and provides useful information for understanding current conflicts Whatever Happened to the Post-apartheid Moment? Peter C. J. Vale, 2004 Mozambique's Samora Machel Allen F. Isaacman, Barbara S. Isaacman, 2020-09-08 The precipitous rise and controversial fall of a formidable African leader Samora Machel 1933 1986 the son of small town farmers led his people through a war against their Portuguese colonists and became the first president of the People's Republic of Mozambique Machel's military successes against a colonial regime backed by South Africa Rhodesia the United States and its NATO allies enhanced his reputation as a revolutionary hero to the oppressed people of Southern Africa In 1986 during the country's civil war Machel died in a plane crash under circumstances that remain uncertain Allen and Barbara Isaacman lived through many of these changes in Mozambique and bring personal recollections together with archival research and interviews with others who knew Machel or participated in events of the revolutionary or post revolutionary years The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Miguel Cardina, 2023-09-14 The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Memory Politics and Uses of the Past presents a critical and comparative analysis on the memory of the colonial and liberation wars that led to a regime change in Portugal and to the independence of five new African countries Angola Mozambique Guinea Bissau Cape Verde and S o Tom and Pr ncipe Covering more than six decades and based on original archival research and critical analysis of sources and interviews the book offers the first plural account of the public memorialisation of this contested past in Portugal and in former colonised territories in Africa focussing on diachronic and synchronic processes of mnemonic production This innovative exercise highlights the changing and crossed nature of political memories and social representations through time emphasizing three modes of mnemonic intersections the intersection of distinct historical times the intersection between multiple products and practices of memory and the intersection connecting the different countries and national histories The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Memory Politics and Uses of the Past a major output of the research developed by CROME Crossed Memories Politics of Silence a project funded by a Starting Grant 715593 from the European Research Council ERC The book advances current knowledge on Portugal and Lusophone Africa and deepens ongoing conceptual and epistemological discussions regarding the relationship between social and individual memories the dialectics between memory power and silence and the uses and representations of the past in postcolonial states and societies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Literary Connections Between South Africa and the Lusophone World Ludmylla Lima,John T. Maddox IV,Anita De Melo,2022-10-12 Literary Connections between South Africa and the Lusophone World connects literatures and cultures of South Africa and the Portuguese speaking nations of Africa and beyond and is set within literary and cultural studies The chapters gathered in this volume reinforce the critical and ongoing conversations in comparative and world literature from perspectives of the South It outlines some possible theoretical and methodological starting points for a comparative framework that targets transnationally literatures from the South This volume is an additional step to renew the critical potentialities of comparative literary studies Spivak 2009 as well as of humanistic criticism itself Said 2004 as South Africa and the Lusophone world except its former colonizer Portugal are outside the spatial and cultural dimension usually defined as European and or North American In this sense and due to the evident geographical and socio historical links between these regions critical scholarship on their literary connections can contribute to unprecedented perspectives of representational practices within a broader contextual dimension and in so doing provides the emergence of what Boaventura de Sousa Santos called epistemologies of the South Santos 2016 as it considers cultural exchanges in the space of so called overlapping territories and intertwined histories Said 1993 International Film Guide 1979 Peter Cowie,1978 The Winds of History Andreas Zeman,2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clich s of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people's room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside
