Mr. & Mrs. Mephistopheles & Son Michael Lopes,1975      Drama Collection Richard R. Kennedy,2013-02-01 Collection of plays that s great for High School Drama Clubs and class readings Productions royalty free      Dombey and son Charles Dickens,1926      National Courier ,1915      The Poets & Writers, Inc Poets & Writers, Inc,1977      The Musical Leader ,1927      Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1994      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1890      Fun ,1866      The Illustrated naval and military magazine ,1886      Racing Calendar for ... ,1865      The Musical World ,1864      Gardeners' Chronicle ,1867      The Gardeners' Chronicle ,1927      Sons of Fire: A Novel (Complete) Mary Elizabeth Braddon,1912-01-01 The meet was at the Pig and Whistle at Melbury nine miles off Rather a near meet compared with the usual appointments of the South Sarum hounds the ostler remarked as Allan Carew mounted a hired hunter in the yard of the Duke s Head chief and indeed only possible inn for a gentleman to put up at in the little village of Matcham a small but prosperous hamlet lying in a hollow of the hills between Salisbury and Andover He had only arrived on the previous afternoon and he was sallying forth in the crisp March morning on an unknown horse in an unfamiliar country to hunt with a pack whose master s name he had heard for the first time that day Can he jump asked Allan as he scrutinized the lean upstanding bay not a bad kind of horse by any means but with that shabby under groomed and over worked appearance common to hirelings Can t he sir There ain t a better lepper in Wiltshire And as clever as a cat We had a lady staying here in the winter Mrs Colonel Parkyn brought two acks of her own besides the colonel s two unters and liked this here horse better than any of em She was right down mashed on him as the young gents say I wonder she didn t buy him said Allan She couldn t sir Money wouldn t buy such a hunter as this off my master He s a fortune to us I hope I may be of Mrs Parkyn s opinion when I come home said Allan Now then ostler just tell me which way I am to ride to get to the Pig and Whistle by eleven o clock The ostler gave elaborate instructions A public house here an accommodation lane there a common to cross a copse to skirt three villages one church a post office and several cross roads You re safe to fall in with company before you get there concluded the ostler whisking a bit of straw out of the bay s off hind hoof and eyeing him critically previous to departure If I don t I doubt if I ever shall get there said Allan as he rode out of the yard He was a stranger in Matcham a foreigner as the villagers called such alien visitors He had never been in the village before knew nothing of its inhabitants or its surroundings its customs ways local prejudices produce trade scandals hates loves subserviencies gods or devils And yet henceforward he was to be closely allied with Matcham for a certain bachelor uncle had lately died and left him a small estate within a mile of the village a relative with whom Allan Carew had held slightest commune lunching or dining with him perhaps once in a summer at an old family hotel in Albemarle Street never honoured by so much as a hint at an invitation to his rural retreat and not cherishing any expectation of a legacy much less the bequest of all the gentleman s worldly possessions comprising a snug well built house in pretty and spacious grounds with good and ample stabling and with farms and homesteads covering something like fifteen hundred acres and producing an income of a little over two thousand a year It need hardly be stated that Allan Carew was not a poor man when this unexpected property fell into his lap The children of this world are rarely false to the gospel precept to every one which hath shall be given Allan s father had changed his name ten years before from Beresford to Carew upon his succession to a respectable estate in Suffolk an inheritance from his maternal grandfather old Squire Carew of Fendyke Hall Millfield Allan an only son was not by any means ill provided for when his maternal uncle Admiral the Honourable Allan Darnleigh took it into his head to leave him his Wiltshire property but this bequest raised him at once to independence and altogether dispensed with any further care about that gentleman like profession the Bar which had so far repaid Mr Carew s collegiate studies labours outlays and solicitude by fees amounting in all to seven pounds seven shillings which sum represented the gross earnings of three years So riding along the rustic high road in the clear morning air under a sapphire sky just gently flecked with fleecy cloudlets Allan Carew told himself that it was a blessed escape to have done with chambers and reading law and waiting for briefs and that it was a good thing to be a country gentleman to have his own house and his own stable not to be obliged to ride another man s horses even though that other man were his very father not to be told after every stiffish day across country that he had done for the grey or that the chestnut s legs had filled as never horse s legs filled before nor to hear any other reproachful utterances of an old and privileged stud groom who knew the horses he rode were not his own property Henceforth his stable would be his own kingdom and he would reign there absolute and unquestioned He could choose his own horses and they should be good ones He naturally shared the common creed of sons and looked upon all animals of his father s buying as screws and duffers His own stables would be something altogether different from the drowsy old stables at home where horses were kept and cherished because they were familiar friends rather than with a view to locomotion His stud and his stable should be as different as if horses and grooms had been bred upon another planet
