Cobbett's Political Register William Cobbett, 1814 Sharpe's London Magazine: a Journal of Entertainment and Instruction for General Reading..., 1847 Vols 22 23 include illustrations by George Cruikshank Sharpe's London Magazine Anna Maria Fielding Hall ("Mrs. S. C. Hall, "), 1847 On RACE and RACISM: Humanity's Bottom Line Lauren Joichin Nile, 2024-09-23 Lauren Joichin Nile introduces what she believes is humanity's racial bottom line with a compelling account of her personal experiences growing up in 1950s and 60s segregated New Orleans. In so doing, she posits what she believes is humanity's universal racial story. Lauren explains how starting out from Southern Africa, fully formed human beings over thousands of years walked out of Africa, populated the entire rest of Planet Earth, and over 2,000 generations physically adapted to their new environments, gradually taking on the appearance of the many races of modern-day humanity, making all of us literally one biologically related human family. She then provides an abbreviated account of some of the most significant events of humanity's racial history and an explanation of how that history has affected the American racial present. She also analyzes a number of controversial topics, including whether there are truly superior and inferior races. Finally, Lauren shares what she believes are the specific actions that humanity must take in order to heal from our wretched racial past, realize that across the planet we all truly can love one another, and as a species, walk into a wiser, more empathetic, compassionate human future. Lauren Joichin Nile is an author, keynote speaker, trainer, and licensed attorney who specializes in assisting organizations in increasing their emotional intelligence, compassion, and productivity. The goal of her work with organizations is to help create environments in which understanding and kindness are valued, and as a result, every person is equally welcomed and uniformly appreciated, irrespective of all demographic differences. The goal of Lauren's speaking and training in the greater society is to help the human species grow in both wisdom and compassion. Mr. Humanity Albert D. Stave, 1983-08-01 Anarchism in the Chinese Revolution Arif Dirlik, 2023-09-01 Arif Dirlik's latest offering is a revisionist perspective on Chinese radicalism in the twentieth century. He argues that the history of anarchism is indispensable to understanding crucial themes in Chinese radicalism. And anarchism is particularly significant now as a source of democratic ideals within the history of the socialist movement in China. Dirlik draws on the most recent scholarship and on materials available only in the last decade to compile the first comprehensive history of his subject available in a Western language. He emphasizes the anarchist contribution to revolutionary discourse and elucidates this theme through detailed analysis of both anarchist polemics and social practice. The changing circumstances of the Chinese revolution provide the immediate context, but throughout his writing, the author views Chinese anarchism in relation to anarchism worldwide. Arif Dirlik's latest offering is a revisionist perspective on Chinese radicalism in the twentieth century. He argues that the history of anarchism is indispensable to understanding crucial themes in Chinese radicalism. And anarchism is particularly significant. The Ghost of John Bull; Or, the Devil's Railroad. A Marvellously Strange Narrative, Etc. [A Political Congress, 2001 Humanity's Beauty and Risk Ahmed Fathi Shalabi, 2023-09-19 We experience beauty and risk on a daily basis in what we see, what we feel, how we accept and judge others, and why we are human. Beauty and risk both challenge and frustrate us to think, learn, listen, and question ourselves. Humanity's Beauty and Risk is an exploration of that challenge. One part poetry and two parts philosophy, this text explores the stages of human development: Infancy's Dictums, Toddler's Structure, Childhood's Truth, Adolescence's Love, Adult's Maturity, and the Higher Self. Readers are guided to be fully present, aware of where they are and what they are doing, and to question what they think they know about these two captivating states. This mental exercise can be practised on a daily basis, making us more aware of how and why we experience, feel, and accept beauty and risk in our lives. When we reflect on those experiences, we think about what makes us different and what makes us human.

The History and Management of Bees John Wighton, 1842

The Black Count Tom Reiss, 2012-09-18 WINNER OF THE PULITZER PRIZE FOR BIOGRAPHY ONE OF ESQUIRE'S BEST BIOGRAPHIES OF ALL TIME General Alex Dumas is a man almost unknown today, yet his story is strikingly familiar because his son, the novelist Alexandre Dumas, used his larger-than-life feats as inspiration for such classics as The Count of Monte Cristo and The Three Musketeers. But hidden behind General Dumas's swashbuckling adventures was an even more incredible secret: he was the son of a black slave who rose higher in the white world than any man of his race would before our own time. Born in Saint Domingue (now Haiti), Alex Dumas made his way to Paris where he rose to command armies at the height of the Revolution until he met an implacable enemy he could not defeat. The Black Count is simultaneously a riveting adventure story, a lushly textured evocation of 18th-century France, and a window into the modern world's first multi-racial society. TIME magazine called The Black Count one of those quintessentially human stories of strength and courage that sheds light on the historical moment that made it possible. But it is also a heartbreaking story of the enduring bonds of love between a father and son.
