Mr Siggie Morrison with his Comb and Paper Bill Reed, 2015-06-07 Blurb Act I PARSONS I m beginning to feel what his friends must have gone through when they were really seeing him off The longer they wait the more improbably it is that the bloody plane will ever leave They mouth platitudes to each other about every man having the unimpeachable right to die at home They don t look into each other s eyes knowing that not one of them has even bothered to tell the old boy about pipe dreams tobacco smoke delusions What they mean really is that they can t wait any longer to get him off their hands Blurb Act 2 SURROUND MONOLOGUE I didn t care I had my ticket in my hand in the plane I would have had my ticket in my hand if they hadn t taken it off me before I got on That s not the point It s as good as having your ticket in your hand when you re sitting in the plane and they haven t turfed you off because if they haven t turfed you off then that means you must have had a ticket in your hand to be able to be there on the plane And what I ve got a right to expect is a bit of help from someone coming up and saying Siggie Someone to come up and say my name It s a tremendous bit of help when someone remembers your name when they come up and say Siggie It s terrible when someone comes up and opens his mouth to speak but says nothing Blurb Act 3 As a director I was immediately impressed by the inherent theatricality of the play of what constitutes a theatrical event In this work that gives us not just a play but an experience of the struggle for creation Peter Batey Artistic Director Bullsh Bill Reed, Ron Edwards, 2015-06-02 A humorous narrative writtenn for nthe stage around Ron Edwards best selling book Australian Yarns Living on Mars Bill Reed, 2016-01-16 A harvesting of 6 full length plays by Bill Reed which have not been published in book or ebook form before yet were performed by professional companies Tasker Tusker Tasker Bill Reed, 2015-01-14 John Tasker is a divided but enjoined man Physically he is running from the law while hunting down his own father just as his father used to track down the wild tuskers in Sri Lanka At the same time mentally he is tracking down his murderous brother s enemies imaginably or not with a deadly efficiency Adding to his confusion is how his indolent lawyer s job in the Attorney General s Department has itself suddenly become fraught with danger for his own personal safety The resultant clash that erupts between his fervently adopted Australia and his fervently rejected Sri Lanka isn t helping the mental chaos he is thrown into on an otherwise perfectly acceptable day One trouble is his state of being so enjoined Through his own mind s eye he sees how his own milieu has been drawing him inevitably towards the cliff s edge Also through his and his brother s mind s eye he sees too much of the terrorizing worldwide Tamil organizations and from a close up much too gory And through his and his father s mind s eye he sees no good nurture purpose to his existence except the sighing and dying and the leavings from him He can see how it s all so willfully like his father s wild snared tuskers endeavouring to escape trying to drag the lines dragging the antler d sambhur s skulls through the hopelessly impossible bush On top of all this he has the living scaffold of the Sri Lankan Inspector Ekanayake now and ever looming over him The Inspector doesn t care a hoot about any mind s eye or mind s eyes bloody ing hell sorry He only cares for the hunt s

conclusion and how John Tasker should know it What is the Inspector doing in Canberra and asking so many pointed questions What might he know about the shadowy and murderous Tasker twin brother with apparently the justified alias of Tusker All John Tasker can now see is how his world and the manic world of his fearsome brother are being forced to converge so suddenly and so bizarrely This is the first title in the ongoing Inspector Ekanayake series      The Rhyming Cutlets of Pirip Bill Reed,2021-03-24 We cannot blame Charles Dickens for not meeting our national Arts treasure Philip P Pirip but go blame yr rotn Fate whos flushs beat yr faces straights It could be said though Dickens did lend his major characters to Philip P Pirip although lend might not be the best word rather freedom opened the door to its wide open spaces to allow them to escape and give vent to their grievances with their famous author seeing as to how he never once mentioned the fabulous Surnev diamonds that they once had their hands on and now wanted back at whatever cost to literature Fabulous royalties might have been Charles Dickens s lot but the diamonds were the only avenue for riches beyond creative writing for Miss Haversham Estella Mister Jaggers Compeyson Orlick Biddy and a whole cast of actors and naked actresses who now demanded their jewel dues and were willing to kill for them That escape fell to them after Great Expectations found its way onto one of the heaps in the rubbish tip that was beloved of Pirip and in fact the location of his Tiphome a dump in itself From that fact it was only a short fictional distance for the Dickens s characters to land on Pirip s lap with a vengeance They came to lap but I stukk out tongue take thapt How our hero struggles with them might not be in any universal history books but in artistic circles it set the standard for the license to cull      Throw Her Back Bill Reed,2018-01-10 Smith and then his son Terry found they were just as snagged on Hindu s damning wheel as their forebears had been for over 170 years until the family finally managed to carry on to Australia The two of them thought they could ride belatedly to the rescue of Terry s once little she twin who was simply never handed over at the adoption ceremony those years before especially since they discovered she had escaped being returned to sender at birth as some sort of yoni assembled piece of mis s manufacture But they found themselves caught in the spokes of child rackets caste delusions and probes into the country s female gender issues that are only attached by wires to ultrasound machines Nandi Baba the Kapalika priest with his best brandy Tantra practices gave them hope of saying enough s enough until his conjured Hag goddess a quiver sexually came down upon them The book is set in Australia India and Sri Lanka and is fictionally based on real events and most devastatingly on even Indian Government statistics showing in many places mathematically impossible discrepancies between official birth rates of boys over girls      The Wolfman of Oz Bill Reed,2020-06-04 Y ou could say man into wolf and wolf into man got blasted into existence You could also say the Tasmanian Aborigines and the Tasmanian Wolf got blasted out of existence It s called extinction and it lasts forever and when lhe the wolfman did the sums of early Tasmania it all added up This was except for one thing the existence of the truly last Thylacine Wolf hiding out somewhere life giving and life preserving from the ever hunters and the always killers This made it all the more urgent for lhe to find the great beast first in order to brace up its unique animal kind courage before they tracked it down They are always tracking it down But he was Man and also Wolf as one and he was on the scent too that for every eye done to extinction was a human hunter's eye and for every done in eye tooth was a human hunter's tooth And for flesh what better than human flesh But first there was his famous arch enemy to hunt down and run from both It was bad enough when he planted his foot in the wrong place and the Army's report about it concluding In any hairy situations this will undoubtedly change how he gets a lot of looks But what would the Army know about the trauma that transmogrifies It's always been nits or nothing with him anyhow It's just that he the wolfman didn't want to end up like the presumed last Tasmanian Wolf hanging from a rafter That great shame

The Wild Waves Whist Bill Reed, 2018-01-26 Come unto these yellow sands And then take hands Curtsied when you have and kissed The wild waves whist He was so good at Serious Matters but the trouble was people never took him seriously let alone kept dying around him Nor did it help that he was the wrong person in his body such that the precocious girl child who claimed to be the better fit kept nagging him while they bobbed along the shipping lanes of the Indian Ocean He shouldn't have shouted Left when it should have been Right to send his Humvee into an Afghani roadside bomb He shouldn't have left his darling wife and bubba to be alone in their Queenslander while he dabbled in giving witness to the whole of Sydney's woes He should have honoured his Sri Lankan heritage and his becoming Australian more He should have popped some pill or whatever to get rid of the Bard He shouldn't have married himself to the problem of the Australian Aborigines in its sexier form and its sweeter siren songs only to find there are no words left only the shuffle within the dandruff drifts of falling cigarette ash His Petey the clown's plaffy shoes didn't help his image either In fact he wasn't embedded in anything at all He was merely bobbing along with the washes And concerning calm surfaces very sloppily too Plus there were too many snakes in the world

Burke's Company Bill Reed, 2017-10-04 the Theatre of the Absurd and the Theatre of Cruelty are even more pervasively embodied in the plays of Alexander Buzo Thomas Keneally and Bill Reed In Buzo's case it is Absurdism which is especially apparent in Keneally and Reed Artaudian myth and language in space It was Reed in Burke's Company who pioneered Artaudian techniques in a play of stature If the play is given imaginative production it powerfully exemplifies one of Artaud's most famous metaphors The figures on stage will suggest universal human victims burning at the stake signaling through the flames Professor Dennis Carroll Contemporary Australian Theatre Currency Press

The Shadow Teller's Plays Bill Reed, 2017-12-13 In a volume containing 14 original plays including three shadow play adaptations of Gogol Morton and Runyon classics the author resurrects a sadly neglected theatre genre the shadow play combining traditional shadow techniques with normal acting to create full bodied mainstream plays These plays do not use shadow puppetry type techniques that need people contorting themselves however wonderfully to form shapes but rather normal acting prowess together and usual props of mainstream theatre with the new back lighting technologies The result is plays which are realistic and yet overlain with the imaginative fantasies that figure theatre can bring in a fallow area lying between mime and conventional stage plays a rediscovered form of a modern staging that crosses between live and shadow effect whether in workshopping for all ages and group size or for professional productions Shadow plays comprise the theatre landscape for live actors re skilled to jump from behind the screen one dimensional acting to front of the screen three dimensional acting at any moment of the play They allow a new and exciting way of presenting the combination of the real and the surreal in ways that offer broadened audience and student experiences under the master of storytelling of a shadow teller together with the master of pacing of a mobile light spotter

Daddy the 8th Bill Reed, 2016-06-24 An ensemble of actors who are about to start rehearsing a play about the Moree race riots visit Endeavour Lane in Moree to get a feel of the lie of the land This is where the young Aboriginal Cheeky McIntosh was shot and killed during the infamous 1982 rumble between local whites and blacks The leader director writer of the ensemble has a more intimate knowledge of the site Back in 1982 he remembers playing cricket with his school chums using as a lark a wicket made up of a piece of the makeshift stockade Cheeky and his mates tried to hole up behind Now while the actors mill around Endeavour Lane an old man appears in their midst sits down and declares he is waiting for a bus Endeavour Lane is a dead end to take him to the murder trial of the three Whites charged with Cheeky's death The old man is Daddy a local Moree elder Is he out of his time Is he trying to interfere with the ensemble's thinking about putting on a play about that night back in 1982 Is he really waiting for a bus to take him to some trial about the riot They might be the wiser if they could concentrate on what Daddy is saying rather than arguing amongst themselves They do understand though that dabbling with the theatre is dabbling with an illusion that can be more real than reality and just as killing Still they cannot understand why that full scale riot at Myall Creek Massacre even further back in 1838 should keep cropping up in what should have otherwise been their lazy n hazy Sunday morning especially since not a line of script has been written yet It begs the question about which Daddy down the millennia are they dealing with here Bill Reed is a novelist playwright and short story writer He has worked as editor and journalist both in Australia and overseas and has won national competitions for drama and for long and short fiction

Me, the Old Man Bill Reed, 2015-03-03 I not only write books I am this book The actual person or persons After a flash flood in 1965 an elderly man became trapped down a Sydney parkland storm drain Children discovered him but did not tell their parents Instead they fed him a biscuit and a little water once a day for three weeks When he was finally rescued the flesh on his legs had become putrescent He could not remember how long he had been down there Bill Reed extends this situation to explore the interaction of innocence and inhumanity that is so prevalent in these days of random violence Here the old man like so many others has come to Australia with all the hopes of regeneration But the sun has not shone on him very much and his brother and sister have disowned him He has had to live in sordid hostels and to endure the barbs of a society that pays respect only to the fittest As his mind drifts the old man dreams he is back home in Belfast He has got beyond the smell of his own rotting flesh and the fleas and rats He no longer feels the cold or works up the desperation to plead with the children to get help He floats mentally waiting for the final water rush of the coming last storm And as he does so the author uses himself as a character to the story as one of the brutalisers the sheer fact of writing about the old man in this terrible state possibly morally aligning him to the teasing torturing children

Using Edward Nugent's real writings to give an authentic voice to the old man doesn't help his frame of mind either Bill Reed has been involved in writing and publishing for most of his life in Australia Britain Canada and the Subcontinent He has had nine plays professionally staged and has written thirteen novels including 1001 Lankan Nights books 1 and 2 He has won national awards in playwriting short story and novel categories He now resides in Sri Lanka Edward Nugent was born in Belfast in 1900 and migrated to Australia after WW2 eventually living in a Salvation Army home in Adelaide where his major preoccupations were his manual typewriter and his old fiddle He tragically died in a room fire in 1979 two days after receiving an advanced copy of this book The quote above was his reaction You Want It, Don't You, Billy? Bill

Reed, 2016-07-02 Bill and Billy are having marital problems but these pall when compared to the problems they have to face from their next door neighbour If that wasn't enough there is the general alarm put out to be on the alert for a serial murderer thought to be in the district In the heavy night of the Mornington countryside their weekender cottage offers scant protection from what is determined to befall them from the outside and what is determined to torment them from the inside It is not as if they find themselves living in some scripted fiction where the fear comes driving at them intermittently but can be pulled back from with a flick of a light switch No this night they find themselves within the clutches of an evil that is constant unharboured and unanchored This night the pretend fear becomes the real fear the production gallops towards reality It is difficult to tell who is who or what is what The only thing Bill and Billy and anyone else know is that all becomes very real dead mad Dogod Bill Reed, 2015-04-02

Ed following is the Thomas Nelson Australia's 1977 blurb for the original edition but here annotated in italics by the author for this reprint Bill Reed's first novel is a celebration of the Australian language Dogod employs a language that uses our sounds our national images our landscapes and our slang to examine our rhythms and forms of speech Leading back through the images as words of Joyce Carroll Thackeray and Shakespeare I thought I was the one making with the jokes here here is a lament for the human condition as it is affected in modern times I lamented a bit over the manuscript too All I know was it was a neat pile of typescript pages but next morning it had paw marks all over it As a bone to a dog so are we as toys to the gods Hence Dog god a chaotic deity tossing and pouncing with bestial delight on His Its favourite human plaything Jelf A walking disaster area Jelf hardly needs Dogod's assistance to attract the natural and unnatural contempt of his associates as he lurches on his apocalyptic journey apocalyptic is first class with his allotted dog pass Jelf travels Economy through Australia's visible and invisible landscapes Dogod is both funny and profound It is an examination of the comic tragedy that is within each of us and within our society Its wit its humour and its deeper purposes are brilliantly sustained Its challenge is for you the reader At least putting reader singular was spot on NB Also there's nothing about the plot here I remember distinctly that there was one as in Jelf chasing Alyce chasing Quilty chasing Henry chasing a whole host of others or vice versa while the Australian dream really doggedly chases them all and keeps spoiling the plot like the real hound it is About the author Bill Reed is a playwright novelist and short story wroughtist He dangles shaken hanging from the pelt      Crooks Bill Reed,2015-04-07 You would have to wonder why a Rhodes Scholar a VC winner and a Commissioner of Police named his son Frank E R Stein by way of a ha ha monstrous joke or why he cackled derision every time his eyes lit upon the boy or why he showered more affection on his adopted son Costas the otherwise offspring of a Mr Bigs of organized crime And as the well is so poisoned such is the quest Frank Stein must make to seek revenge for the gangland killing of his crusading crime fighting half brother At least it is a way to presuppose the kingpins presumably coming for him too after all even as a joke it s not how you bow out but how you get stuck in Rape assassination shocking intrusions of a vicious crime world it s all there for a tragic and hilarious story to unfold before Frank Stein assisted by his own side comprising of a woman in search of an international bestseller and an indigenous brother who survives writing sports reports without going to any games when all he needs is a deaf dumb and blind rich white sort to tide him over And yes haunting over all is a shadowy guardian Chinese toughie as well as his ubiquitous father from his wheelchair One has to ask what have the famous father s shocking WW1 experiences to do with the resulting mayhem What has be done to his sons What did the Nip bullet the old boy finally coughed up after forty years look like even as a metaphor Underlying the rich gallery of these and other grotesques there are the wit and the pace and the bawdry of Crooks In the real life crime parlance of a pushover to put down this book won t disappoint crime buffs about the author Originally a well known playwright Bill Reed began writing longform fiction in his late thirties To date he has written thirteen novels including the so called noteworthy 1001 Lankan Nights books 1 and 2 He has had eight plays professionally staged He has worked as an editor and journalist in Australia and overseas before finally putting his feet up in Sri Lanka      Passing Strange Bill Reed,2015-01-20 Bloom and blush hush a bye Australia s land can Take tea I said Don t let them cut me up bury me behind the mountains she cried Drink tea I said Don t let them cut me up but bury me behind the mountains oh she said Take tea I tell her drink tea now it seeps down through the ages oh Tru My Tru Queenie My Queen Truganinni that you are This is a collection of mainly nationally award winning or highly commended short stories      Shorts Bill Reed,2016-08-01 Here are the award winning or noted short form plays whose productions range from a few minutes to lengthy one actors Each inclusion in this collection has been selected by the Australian Script Centre to be listed for viewing or purchase on its website Australianplays.org These twelve plays are designed either for full production or as workshop exercises with allowances for a few or a goodly number of actors and theatre support staff Some have been produced many times by groups either in advanced level schools or at theatre festivals      Auntie and the Girl Bill Reed,2016-06-28 Dorothy is married to a south Indian surgeon who has been shot in a gang related murder in Melbourne She knows nothing about what s behind this but she feels obliged to travel to her mother in law in Chennai to relate what little she does know This she dreads doing not just because this once Australian everyone s auntie has always turned a blithe deaf ear to her but more because the old girl is a scrawn a whack job a dizzy shouting commands and bouncing around doing power praying in her so called God s Kip out

Auntie's alarming behaviour is exasperated by the current domestic help a girl who has the old shrew's measure. In God's Kip out surliness and plain dumb disobedience palpably beats screaming fits every time. If trying to muster up Auntie's comprehension wasn't enough, Dorothy is soon reminded of her fury towards Auntie's other son Navin who is a doctor specialising in local fertility clinics and of course offering legal terminations to those who would prefer to try again for a son rather than waste a pregnancy on a girl. As screechingly obtuse as Auntie is, Navin remains stubbornly obtuse to any moral problem with what he does; he has the comfort of the broader picture of his beloved ultra sound machine's screen. Nor does Dorothy bank on the physical manifestations of her husband's killing coming to literally try to beat Auntie's door down to get at her. It is as well Inspector Charles Ekanayake is in refuge there with his beloved auntie for his secondment to the Indian CID from Sri Lanka. He doesn't mind broken legs on the front lawn.
