Family Plots Dana Heller,2015-12-22 Family Plots traces the fault lines of the Freudian family romance and holds that the family plot is very much alive in post World War II American culture It cuts across all genres insinuating criticizing reinforcing and reinventing itself in all forms of cultural production and consumption The family romance is everywhere because the family itself is nowhere

Literary Alchemist Steve Paul,2021-10-29 Winner 2022 Society of Midland Authors award for Biography Memoir Evan S Connell 1924 2013 emerged from the American Midwest determined to become a writer He eventually made his mark with attention getting fiction and deep explorations into history His linked novels Mrs Bridge 1959 and Mr Bridge 1969 paint a devastating portrait of the lives of a prosperous suburban family not unlike his own that more than a half century later continue to haunt readers with their minimalist elegance and muted satire. As an essayist and historian Connell produced a wide range of work including a sumptuous body of travel writing, a bestselling epic account of Custer at the Little Bighorn, and a singular series of meditations on history and the human tragedy. This first portrait and appraisal of an under-recognized American writer is based on personal accounts by friends, relatives, writers, and others who knew him; extensive correspondence in library archives; and insightful literary and cultural analysis of Connell's work and its context. It also illuminates aspects of American publishing, Hollywood male anxieties, and the power of place.
