which often coincides with laughter from the margins of society and its orthodoxies is one of the special concerns of this book. This goes together with an interest in impure forms of laughter in laughter that is not the serene and intellectually or emotionally distanced response to a comic stimulus which is at the heart of many philosophical theories of the comic but emotionally disturbed and troubled aggressive and transgressive satanic and sardonic laughter. We do not ask then what is comic but who laughs at and with whom where when why and how. The Drama Evanston Public Library, 1909 English Literature of the 19th & 20th Centuries Maggs Bros, 1922 Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston, 1908
