Mrs Rafton Sowing And Reaping:

Mrs. Rafton, Sowing and Reaping Lola C. Hardaway, 2005-02 Rich Healthy So was Sara Rafton until the wheels of justice balanced Mrs Rafton Sowing and Reaping begins when Sara steals a multimillion dollar building from her lover while he is drunk Being a slumlord the building catches fire killing thirteen seniors She converts it into a nursing home for greater financial gain but loses her husband in the process Ultimately Sara reaps what she sows forgetting the thing you compromise will be your demise Thrillers are shocking when a patient is scaled to death and the death certificate falsified or the malfunctioning elevator skins a patient's leg to the bone Godfearing Mona Lockard nearly dies but is saved by niece Melody Kyles who goes undercover and exposes the industry

The Bulletin of the Massachusetts Audubon Society Massachusetts Audubon Society, 1951 Canadian Women in Print, 1750-1918 Carole Gerson, 2011-05-24 Canadian Women in Print 1750 1918 is the first historical examination of women's engagement with multiple aspects of print over some two hundred years from the settlers who wrote diaries and letters to the New Women who argued for ballots and equal rights Considering women's published writing as an intervention in the public sphere of national and material print culture this book uses approaches from book history to address the working and living conditions of women who wrote in many genres and for many reasons This study situates English Canadian authors within an extensive framework that includes francophone writers as well as women's work as compositors bookbinders and interveners in public access to print Literary authorship is shown to be one point on a spectrum that ranges from missionary writing temperance advocacy and educational texts to journalism and travel accounts by New Woman adventurers Familiar figures such as Susanna Moodie L M Montgomery Nellie McClung Pauline Johnson and Sara Jeannette Duncan are contextualized by writers whose names are less well known such as Madge Macbeth and Agnes Laut and by many others whose writings and biographies have vanished into the recesses of history Readers will learn of the surprising range of writing and publishing performed by early Canadian women under various ideological biographical and cultural motivations and circumstances Some expressed reluctance while others eagerly sought literary careers Together they did much more to shape Canada's cultural history than has heretofore been recognized
