Travel, Humanitarianism, and Becoming American in Africa K. Mathers, 2011-01-19 Travel Humanitarianism and Becoming American in Africa uses observations of American travelers to southern Africa to ask why is Africa so important to Americans These travel stories show how encounters with Africans lead to a problematic desire to save Africa Kathryn Mathers argues that this is then seen as a way to resolve the tensions between aspirations for a globally responsible America and the current reality of its geopolitical role This book draws fascinating new conclusions about the connections and disconnections on which contemporary American identity is formed

Making Piece Beth M. Howard, 2012-03-20 Relates the sudden death of the author s husband and her decision to pack up the RV he left behind and embark on a cross country journey during which she used America s quintessential comfort food and the simple act of giving to overcome tragedy
