

Resilience and faith are two essential commodities in today's fast-paced life. "The name Jars Of Clay" states Charlie Lowell, keyboard player and vocalist for the band, "comes from scripture: 'but we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us' (II Cor. 4:7). That one verse describes exactly the picture we are trying to communicate." Once just a group of friends sharing a common faith and inspiration to make music, Jars Of Clay have begun a movement to bring religious music into the mainstream.

Much Afraid, Jars Of Clay's second full-length album, is the anxiously awaited follow-up to their self-titled Platinum-plus, multi-award-winning debut album. It's important to note here that Jars Of Clay sold over 400,000 copies in the non-secular market several months before it reached commercial radio! Now with a newly recorded album and single already impacting at commercial radio, the band is ready and eager to prove their intentions. By projecting a more intense sound that traces darker themed characteristics than their debut album, Jars Of Clay demonstrate they're far from being just another pious band.

Although a majority of their music is written in praise of the Almighty, Jars Of Clay manage to expound their joy and faith without preaching. By resisting an urge to sound excessively religious by shoving spiritual beliefs down our throats, the casual observer might not even realize Jars Of Clay are a band from the religious world. But these four guys also have other inspirations, as I found out initially in listening to their new album, Much Afraid, and subsequently on a follow-up conversation with Charlie, who was in Nashville.

It seems like Jars Of Clay just got off the road, yet in the last few months you've recorded a new album, Much Afraid, and are planning to go back out on tour within the next few weeks. How are you preparing for the road this time around?

"A little over a year ago we started a co-headlining theater tour with The Samples. It was quite a unique situation, though, because the band that had sold more records in the market got the headlining position in the show. It was an on again, off again thing. We were exhausted and ready to take some time off and prepare for the new album. The record had already been out for well over a year and "Food" had already peaked at radio. So it really just felt like bad timing to go back out on tour; whereas this time around, we are refreshed and ready to hit the road. It just feels like the first official tour we've headlined. With a new album and single at radio, and a well-balanced supporting band [Plum], it just seems this time around things are set up to be more successful, I hope I didn't just jinx us by saying that!"

How much of a role does the band have in the decision-making on who you tour with?

"Actually quite a bit. A couple of months ago we started talking about options and which bands had new albums coming out. We also considered who would fit well with what we are doing musically and artistically, and then see which ones looked possible. Specifically, for this tour, Plum was our primary choice from the very beginning because they have a vision, both musically and lyrically, that is very close to ours. It's just a desire to make good music without coming in with an agenda or being heavy-handed."

"In the case of our last tour with The Samples, it looked good on paper, but when we got out on the road both bands became pretty miserable. We all got along well on a personal basis, but felt that musically we were moving in different directions and as a result both bands, as well as the audience, were suffering. Ultimately, it was a mutual decision and The Samples dropped off the tour with the vacancy to be filled later by The Gufs."
