Much Lamented Death Of Madam Geneva The Eighteenth Century Gin Craze:

Gin Patrick Dillon,2004 A harrowing chronicle of England s early eighteenth century gin craze The Atlantic Monthly

The Much-lamented Death of Madam Geneva Patrick Dillon,2002 Between 1720 and 1751 the gin craze nearly overwhelmed London Based on extensive research this title follows the history of gin or geneva from its introduction from Holland after the Glorious Revolution to its role as the sustenance of the poor a quick trip to oblivion in the squalid and diseased poverty of eighteenth century London

Drink in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries Susanne Schmid,Barbara Schmidt-Haberkamp,2015-10-06 This collection of essays covers the representation and practice of drinking a variety of beverages across eighteenth and nineteenth century Britain and North America The case studies in this volume cover drinking culture from a variety of perspectives including literature history anthropology and the history of medicine

The Drinking Curriculum Elizabeth Marshall,2024-01-02 A lively exploration into America s preoccupation with childhood innocence and its corruption In The Drinking Curriculum Elizabeth Marshall brings the taboo topic of alcohol and childhood into the limelight Marshall coins the term the drinking curriculum to describe how a paradoxical set of cultural lessons about childhood are fueled by adult anxieties and preoccupations By analyzing popular and widely accessible texts in visual culture temperance tracts cartoons film advertisements and public service announcements Marshall demonstrates how youth are targets of mixed messages about intoxication Those messages range from the overtly violent to the humorous the moralistic to the profane Offering a critical and at times irreverent analysis of dominant protectionist paradigms that sanctify childhood as implicitly innocent The Drinking Curriculum centers the graphic narratives our culture uses to teach about alcohol the roots of these pictorial tales in the nineteenth century and the discursive hangover we nurse into the twenty first

Consuming Pleasures John Rainford,2010-05-14 Tracing the international and Australian history of both licit and illicit drug use this investigation combines the topic of drug use with analyses of political power the rise of the market and social issues It examines the way in which drug consumption is regulated in the era of global free trade by first looking at the start of the opium growing industry and the racist origins of drug laws Providing a social history of drug use through the lens of international politics market forces medicine and race this discussion also considers the paradox of contemporary white Australian identity and an Australia as a nation of people whose per capita drug consumption often equals and surpasses that of most other nations

Island Endurance Ryan Lash,2025-05-06 Many look to Ireland's Atlantic islands as timeless places resistant to change Island Endurance offers an alternative perspective examining two neighboring islands where people have cultivated their heritage to confront new challenges and opportunities across centuries To the west Inishark is a landscape of ruins with monuments from a medieval monastery alongside the remnants of a village that endured privation and isolation before its evacuation in 1960 To the east Inishbofin remains home to a small community of nearly 200 that bustles every summer with thousands of visitors drawn by the island's reputation for hospitality and distinctive local heritage Combining archaeological discoveries with folklore and ethnography author Ryan Lash explores how islanders from three different historical eras encountered altered and reimagined traces of the past Fifteen years of fieldwork reconstruct more than a millennium of creativity from the development of pilgrimage traditions at the shrines of monastic saints to the reuse of medieval monuments for local devotions in the 19th and 20th centuries to the repurposing of ruins for managing livestock and guiding tourist trails in the 21st century Attuned to the sensory dynamics and other than human elements of landscapes Lash illustrates the power of quartz pebbles picnics and sheep farming to generate vital perceptions of place time and belonging Islanders have continually and creatively adapted their heritage to foster shared experiences negotiate collaborative relations and sustain livelihoods amid adversity Island Endurance shows us that the illusion of timelessness has always relied on the creativity of heritage

Criminal Justice and Taxation Peter Alldridge,2017-02-16 The fallout from the financial crisis of 2007-8 HSBC Suisse in 2015 and the Panama Papers in 2016 has generated calls for far more vigorous and punitive responses to tax evasion and greater international co-operation against mechanisms for giving anonymity to the ownership of property One mechanism to ensure compliance is the use of the criminal justice system The announcement in 2013 by the then Director of Public Prosecutions Keir Starmer of a policy of increasing rates of prosecution for tax evasion raised squarely the issue of whether increased involvement of criminal law and criminal justice in tax evasion would be justifiable or not The relationship between tax evasion and the proceeds of crime is taking on increasing importance treating the proceeds of criminal tax evasion as falling within the proceeds of crime regime inevitably expands the scope of both In this book Peter Alldridge considers the development of the offences and the relationship between tax evasion offences and other criminal offences the relevant rules of evidence prosecution structures decision making processes and alternatives to prosecution Specific topics include offshore evasion and the relationship of tax evasion with other crimes and aspects of the criminal justice system A topical and lively discussion of a heated debate
