My Dad Is An Ironman:

My Dad Is an Ironman Ray Hoese, 2004-10 Told in the voice of a 9 year old girl who loves to accompany her dad on bike rides and to the pool this dramatic and uplifting story shows how she encourages him to chase his dream and train to compete in an Ironman triathlon Full color

The Alcoholic Ironman John Toth, 2011 For years John Toth lived his life feeling empty lonely and even suicidal He exercised sporadically looked for better jobs every once in a while and drank constantly Even with a loving wife and children something was missing from John s life and he knew he would have to sober up to find it After admitting his problem to his wife John attended an Alcoholics Anonymous meeting and made the familiar confession I m John and I m an alcoholic After ninety meetings in ninety days as if getting sober wasn t hard enough John decided to take on another challenge and start competing in triathlons The Alcoholic Ironman follows John from his first 5K run to the Lake Placid Ironman in New York With no experience running swimming or cycling John faces as many struggles on his way to becoming an Ironman as he does on his way to becoming sober After almost drowning during his first two triathlon swims John wonders what he s gotten himself into His triathlon training like his quest for sobriety never goes perfectly But despite countless setbacks John puts one foot in front of the other and keeps going An inspirational read for anyone who battles addiction low self esteem depression or any other challenges The Alcoholic Iron Man will motivate all readers to face life s obstacles head on and find the Ironman in themselves

Iron Dads Diana Tracy Cohen, 2016-05-04 Among the most difficult athletic events a person can attempt the iron distance triathlon a 140 6 mile competition requires an intense prerace training program This preparation can be as much as twenty hours per week for a full year leading up to a race In Iron Dads Diana Tracy Cohen focuses on the pressures this extensive preparation can place on families exploring the ways in which men with full time jobs one or more children and other responsibilities fit this level of training into their lives An accomplished triathlete as well as a trained social scientist Cohen offers much insight into the effects of endurance sport training on family parenting and the sense of self She conducted in depth interviews with forty seven iron distance competitors and three prominent men in the race industry and analyzed triathlon blog postings made by Iron Dads What sacrifices Cohen asks are required both at home and at work to cross the iron distance finish line What happens when work family and sport collide Is it possible for fathers to meet their own parenting expectations while pursuing such a time consuming regimen With the tensions of family economics how do you justify spending 5 000 on a racing bike At what point does sport become work Cohen discovered that by fostering family involvement in this all consuming effort Iron Dads are able to maintain a sense of themselves not only as strong masculine competitors but also as engaged fathers Engagingly written and well researched Iron Dads provides a penetrating firsthand look at extreme endurance sports including practical advice for aspiring racers and suggestions for making triathlons more family friendly

Every Gift Matters Carrie Morgridge,2015-05-05 Charitable giving is on the rise in America Despite the lingering effects of the economic downturn Americans continue to give generously of their time talent and money more than 335 billion in 2013 a 4 4% increase from 2011 What s more the bulk of that charitable giving 72% came not from large foundations or corporations but from individuals making small gifts For those with passion for a cause and a generous spirit it s vitally important that they leverage their gift in the right way in order to have the greatest impact possible In her first book EVERY GIFT MATTERS Greenleaf May 2015 Carrie Morgridge shares inspiring stories of powerful gifts in action showing readers how to turn the act of giving into a vehicle for positive change Drawing on 15 years of experience supporting causes that align with her passions through gifts Morgridge demonstrates how a smart strategy high expectations a deep network and hands on personal involvement will ensure that one s gift is compounded over time to have the biggest impact possible Each person and every gift can make a difference writes Morgridge Whoever you are no matter how much or how little you have your gift matters The smallest seemingly unimportant donation can transform a life And the best news is that giving transforms two lives the one who receives and the one who gives Through her role as Vice President of The Morgridge Family Foundation Morgridge has learned what works and what doesn't when it comes to giving She argues that in order to ensure meaningful and lasting change a gift must be more than simply a grant of money The giver must assess whether the program is the right fit work hand in hand with the key leaders on strategy develop a plan for making the endeavor sustainable and ensure that their gift can be leveraged to have a bigger impact on the community By sharing real life stories of how this hands on approach to giving has transformed lives including her own Morgridge inspires others to believe that they can also make a difference in their community no matter the size of their gift
