The Transformation of Criminal Justice Allen Steinberg,2000-11-09 Allen Steinberg brings to life the court centered criminal justice system of nineteenth century Philadelphia chronicles its eclipse and contrasts it to the system dominated by the police and public prosecutor that replaced it He offers a major reinterpretation of criminal justice in nineteenth century America by examining this transformation from private to state prosecution and analyzing the discontinuity between the two systems Steinberg first establishes why the courts were the sources of law enforcement authority and criminal justice before the advent of the police He shows how the city s system of private prosecution worked adapted to massive social change and came to dominate the culture of criminal justice even during the first decades following the introduction of the police He then considers the dilemmas that prompted reform beginning with the establishment of a professional police force and culminating in the restructuring of primary justice Making extensive use of court dockets state and municipal government publications public speeches personal memoirs newspapers and other contemporary records Steinberg explains the intimate connections between private prosecution the everyday lives of ordinary people and the conduct of urban politics He ties the history of Philadelphia s criminal courts closely to related developments in the city s social and political evolution making a contribution not only to the study of criminal justice but also to the larger literature on urban social and legal history Originally published in 1989 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

THAT'S JUST HOW IT WAS Mary Thorpe,2014-02 This work is a labor of love by writer Mary Thorpe as a tribute to her much loved Granny O Rourke nee Nolan in an attempt to place the stories she heard and was told into a true and historical context As a social worker who came across many cases of social deprivation in modern times Mary had the dawning realization regarding what her own grandmother had been through in even harder times in the late part of the nineteenth century and early part of the twentieth century in Ireland Mary felt the driving need to record her much loved grandmother s story as recognition of Bridget s harsh life and also as a tribute to her and the millions of others like her who made the best of things while still retaining a sense of pride of the worth of education as a ticket out of poverty and of the importance of retaining one s dignity and commitment to family through good and bad times

Mary Larkin was hard at work as the office manager at the Green Mountain Country Store when Cameron Murphy brought her dad Patrick in to visit. That fateful first meeting which took place in You'll Be Mine sets the stage for Mary and Patrick's long-awaited romance in Can't Buy Me Love. For the first time since he suddenly lost his wife thirty years ago, he has met a woman who makes him feel less lonely and all he wants is more of his Sweet Mary from Vermont. Charged, convicted, and condemned, thrown into life as a young mother at the age of just 15 years old, Jacqueline La-Touche was faced with the prejudice of being a teenage mother, feeling that she had to prove to her parents and others most of all herself that she could be the best mother that she could for her child. While she was still proving her worth, her life was rocked by yet another big decision that any girl or woman could make in their life. In 1982, her parents immigrated to Jamaica to fulfill their dreams, leaving her behind and not knowing that their daughter would experience the unexpected and unknown. Life became a day-to-day battle and one long nightmare for this young mother. Destined for a life of hardship and heartache, depravation haunted her life each day, a reminder of where she was. Nowhere. Loveless and abusive relationships played their part in her life; she felt trapped by her situation as she remembered sayings of you made your bed so you lay in it With no mother to turn to for guidance and strength she raised her children alone Loss of control over her life and ashamed to let anyone know what her life represented at that time heartache a secret which she was ashamed of but was the only control that she had over her life could have ended it She fought a daily battle with herself a love hate relationship but then her life changed in a way that she never would have imagined a way she had never known Love and Happiness comes into her life and she is happy again but for how long Just as she thinks that all her troubles are over they had only just begun Faith dealt some cruel hands in this mothers life her faith had been tested so many times with family friends and all the people that were dear to her the people that she had trusted and loved Her life changes for the better when she decides to make a positive change in her life Jacqueline had become so engrossed in her problems that she could not see the forest from the trees A new life discovering new things places relationships happiness and the three Gs God Given Gifts which she would learn to take control of and embrace the good in herself using it in a positive way Lifes ups and downs and big changes were still waiting to happen Crossing rivers climbing mountains how would she conquer them all would she be able to find some sort of peace and be able to build bridges This is an inspiring account of Jacqueline La Touches life and how she managed to endure but not losing sight of her faith and hope having the determination and courage to fight her way through life and still believe in her dreams
