Protean Literacy Extending The Discourse On Empowerment:

Protean Literacy Concha Delgado-Gaitan, 2017 Protean Literacy Concha Delgado-Gaitan, 2017-11-22 Originally published in 1996 During the author's decade of critical ethnography in Carpinteria California she has illuminated the intricate relationships between Latino families as together they build a sociopolitical community to bridge family and school alliances How they extend their learning from the social networks to the family arena and to the personal and in reverse represents their protean responses to the diversity and adversity in their lives This life story captures the collective and individual texts of the Latino children their parents and educators used to empower themselves to transform discontinuity in an age where continuity is increasingly foreign Immigrant Voices Enrique T. Trueba, Lilia I. Bartolomé, 2000 The ethnics are coming and the fear of many observers is that the quality of traditional disciplines will suffer as a result Immigrant Voices In Search of Pedagogical Reform is a new book which shows that such fear is unfounded Ethnic scholars of international repute come together in this new collection of essays to meditate upon the single most important social phenomena in America today Immigration Due to the ever increasing ethnic diversity in today's school populations the need to explore this issue has become more critical than ever Giving voice to a broad range of complex experiences contributors from China Taiwan Mexico Argentina Spain and Slovakia provide insight into the numerous obstacles immigrants must overcome in order to succeed in both the academy and society at large Offering broad theoretical perspectives as well as powerful and unforgettable personal narratives this book serves as a invaluable resource for continued efforts toward educational equity

Lila Jacobs, José Cintrón, Cecil E. Canton, 2002-11-19 This volume presents the personal accounts of African American Asian American and Latino faculty who use narratives of struggles to describe the challenges they faced in order to become bona fide members of the U S Academy These narratives show how survival and success require a sophisticated knowledge of the politics of academia insider knowledge of the requirements of legitimacy in scholarly efforts and resourceful approach to facing dilemmas between cultural values traditional racist practices and academic resilience The book also explores the empowerment process of these individuals who have created a new self without rejecting their enduring self the self strongly connected to their ethno racial cultures and groups Within the process of self redefinition this new faculty confronted racism sexism rejection the clash of cultural values and structural indifference to cultural diversity The faculty recounts how they ultimately learned the skillful accommodation to all of these issues It is through the analysis of survival and self definition that women and faculty of color will establish a powerful foothold in the new academy of the twenty first century The Power of Community Concha Delgado-Gaitan, 2001-11-13 Fifteen years ago Concha Delgado Gaitan began literacy research in Carpinteria California At that time Mexican immigrants who labored in nurseries factories and housekeeping had almost no voice in how their children were educated Committed to participative research Delgado Gaitan collaborated with the community to connect family school and community Regular community gatherings gave birth to the ComitZ de Padres Latinos Refusing the role of the victim the ComitZ participants organized to reach out to everyone in the community not just other Latino families Bound by their language cultural history hard work respect pain and hope they created possibilities that supported the learning of Latino students who until then had too often dropped out or shown scant interest in school In a society that accentuates individualism and independence these men and women look to their community for leadership support and resources for children The Power of Community is a critical work that shows how communities that pull together and offer caring ears eyes and hands can ensure that their children thrive academically socially and personally It offers a fresh approach and workable solution to the problems that face schools today Chicano School Failure and Success

Richard R. Valencia, 2011-02-01 The third edition of the best selling collection Chicano School Failure and Success presents a complete and comprehensive review of the multiple and complex issues affecting Chicano students today. Richly informative and accessibly written, this edition includes completely revised and updated chapters that incorporate recent scholarship and research on the current realities of the Chicano school experience. It features four entirely new chapters on important topics such as la Chicana two way dual language education, higher education and gifted Chicano students. Contributors to this edition include experts in fields ranging from higher education, bilingual education, special education, gifted education, educational psychology and anthropology. In order to capture the broad nature of Chicano school failure and success, contributors provide an in depth look at topics as diverse as Chicano student dropout rates, the relationship between Chicano families and schools, and the impact of standards based school reform and deficit thinking on Chicano student achievement. Committed to understanding the plight and improvement of schooling for Chicanos, this timely new edition addresses all the latest issues in Chicano education and will be a valued resource for students, educators, researchers, policy makers and community activists alike.

Creating Alternative Discourses in the Education of Latinos and Latinas Raul E.

Ybarra, Nancy López, 2004 While Latinos and Latinas are the youngest and largest U S minority group, they continue to be among the poorest and least educated. A major contribution of Creating Alternative Discourses in the Education of Latinos and Latinas is that it provides scholars, teachers and practitioners with counter hegemonic theories, methods and pedagogies that challenge the mainstream assumptions about the education of this group. Drawing on rich ethnographic portrayals including life history interviews, focus groups and participant observation, this interdisciplinary volume bridges diverse bodies of literature in an attempt to bring about changes in the education of Latinos and Latinas.

Foundational Aspects of Family-School Partnership Research Susan M. Sheridan, Elizabeth Moorman Kim, 2015-04-22 This volume focuses on how family school partnerships are conceptualized, defined and operationalized, as well as the research that is needed to advance these foundational issues. Each chapter integrates prevailing approaches into a research based framework for supporting learning from pre K through high school. The book incorporates structural and relational methods into the larger context of educational processes to promote research about collaboration and to improve the academic and behavioral development of students. Diverse theories and models of family school alliances demonstrate approaches and interventions that are goal directed and strengths based, respectful and responsive. In addition, the book analyzes cognitive, behavioral and interpersonal aspects of partnership and discusses different methods of assessing parental involvement and student outcomes. Included in the coverage are innovative agenda setting, discussions on definitions and conceptual frameworks of family school partnerships, need satisfying partnerships, diverse parent perspectives and participation, measurement of family school partnership constructs over time. Foundational Aspects of Family School Partnership Research is an essential resource for researchers, professionals and graduate students in child and school psychology, educational policy and politics, family studies.

developmental psychology sociology of education sociology and anthropology Gendered Identities and Immigrant Language Learning Julia Menard-Warwick, 2009-10-29 Based on participant observation in a California English as a Second Language family literacy program this ethnographic study examines how the complexly gendered life histories of immigrant adults shaped their participation in both the English language classroom and the education of their children within the contemporary sociohistorical context of increasing Latin American immigration to the United States Through outlining the connections between gendered identity work and language learning this study builds theoretical and empirical justification for teachers to negotiate classroom practice with each community of learners responding to students individual goals histories and lives outside the classroom The Wiley Handbook of Educational Policy Rosemary Papa, Shadow W.
