Rediscovering Mcgills Heritage:

This is Our Place, this is Our Home Joan Edward, 2006 This collection of revealing journal entries and biographical sketches describes some of the island's most colourful inhabitants Interspersed with line drawings it reflects the land's rugged grandeur and the people's enduring strength An Intellectual Heritage Ann-Marie Hansen, Kristin Neel, 2013

The Rediscovery of America Ned Blackhawk, 2023-04-25 A sweeping and overdue retelling of U S history that recognizes that Native Americans are essential to understanding the evolution of modern America The most enduring feature of U S history is the presence of Native Americans yet most histories focus on Europeans and their descendants This long practice of ignoring Indigenous history is changing however with a new generation of scholars insists that any full American history address the struggle survival and resurgence of American Indian nations Indigenous history is essential to understanding the evolution of modern America Ned Blackhawk interweaves five centuries of Native and non Native histories from Spanish colonial exploration to the rise of Native American self determination in the late twentieth century In this transformative synthesis he shows that European colonization in the 1600s was never a predetermined success Native nations helped shape England's crisis of empire the first shots of the American Revolution were prompted by Indian affairs in the interior California Indians targeted by federally funded militias were among the first casualties of the Civil War the Union victory forever recalibrated Native communities across the West twentieth century reservation activists refashioned American law and policy Blackhawk's retelling of U S history acknowledges the enduring power agency and survival of Indigenous peoples yielding a truer account of the United States and revealing anew the varied meanings of America

Rediscovering McGill's Heritage Joan Edward, Anastasia Onyszchuk, 1997-01-01 A Noble Roster Ian C. Pilarczyk, McGill University. Faculty of Law, 1999 Rediscovered Self Ronald Niezen, 2009-05-18 Indigenous peoples struggle for justice and selfhood in an integrating world Repatriation of Sacred Indigenous Cultural Heritage and the Law Vanessa Tünsmeier, 2022-01-25 This book examines the ways in which law can be used to structure the return of indigenous sacred cultural heritage to indigenous communities referred to as repatriation in this volume In particular it aims at developing legal structures that align repatriation with contemporary international human rights standards To do so it gathers the most valuable lessons learned from different repatriation laws and frameworks adopted in the United States and Canada In both countries very different ways of approaching repatriation have been used for several decades highlighting the context dependent nature of repatriation The volume is divided into four parts looking first at international law then at the national legal landscape in the United States followed by Canada before the different repatriation models are evaluated against the backdrop of human rights law standards Emphasis is placed not only on repatriation specific legislation but also on the legal context in which it was developed and operates In turn the fourth part develops various models on the basis of these experiences that can be aligned with contemporary indigenous and cultural rights The book ends by considering the models suitability for international repatriation and the lessons that can be learned from them The primary audience includes those addressing the legal hurdles to repatriation be they researchers policymakers communities or museums

Heritage as an action word: Uses beyond communal memory Susan Shay,Kelly M. Britt,2024-04-16 There is no limit to what constitutes heritage By definition heritage is the use of the past for present purposes Yet to any given group or population heritage can be a multitude of things and can serve a variety of purposes Based on shared memory heritage can be tangible or intangible boundless in variety and scope it can be for example objects landscapes food or clothing music or dance sites or statues monuments or buildings Importantly however heritage also has many and varied uses and powers It can be used to control to unite to engage and to empower people communities and nations In this interdisciplinary volume authors from around the world explore how different communities nations and groups intentionally and creatively use heritage both tangible and intangible in a wide variety of ways to positively address social and environmental issues Significantly these studies demonstrate how heritage can be an exceptionally valuable tool for political economic and social change Insightful studies are presented pertaining to heritage as social memory including the nationalistic political use of heritage heritage as resistance to political powers traditional knowledge as environmental science heritage for legal and community action heritage for building peace heritage for Indigenous and minority empowerment and heritage for exploring the past through phenomenological methods The goal of this volume is to move beyond seeing heritage as only social memory a mere interpretation of static past events people or places and instead explores critically the variety of ways heritage is engaged in the present and can be in the future

McGill University Stanley Brice Frost,1980 James McGill is an important figure in Canada s history in his own right The bequest made in 1813 for the founding of a university of which one college was to bear his name only increased that significance The political tensions of Lower Canada delayed implementation of his plans for sixteen years and then it was only by incorporating the Montreal Medical Institution as Faculty of Medicine that in 1829 a beginning could be made Thirty years after his death the Faculty of Arts was finally established but not until the trustee body known as the Royal Institution for the Advancement of Learning was moved from Quebec City to Montreal and established as its board of governors did McGill College begin to revive and hold out promise of a respectable future

Rare Merit Colleen Skidmore, 2022-06-01 Rare Merit is a beautifully illustrated and astute examination of women photographers in Canada as it took shape in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Throughout the camera was both a witness to the colonialism capitalism and gendered and racialized social organization and a protagonist And women across the country whether residents or visitors captured people and places that were entirely new to the lens This book shows how they did so and the meaning their work carries Colleen Skidmore surveys the professional lives and photographs of nearly eighty women studio portraitists travel documentarians photojournalists fine artists hobbyists and photographic printers from Lucy Maude Montgomery on Prince Edward Island to lise Livernois in Quebec City and from Margaret Bourke White in the Arctic to Hannah Maynard on Vancouver Island Why women Why not women Presenting the exceptional range and impact of their work Rare Merit proves that women s practices and images knowingly omitted from founding narratives of photographic history were diverse compelling widespread and influential The Politics and Rhetoric of Collective Remembering John E. Richardson, Tommaso M. Milani, 2024-11-15 This book critically examines the ways that collective pasts are commemorated and contested in a wide variety of national locations media and genres Collective remembering is a dynamic process through which narratives about the past about us and them as well as beliefs values and affective conditions contained in these stories are produced and reproduced This facilitates room for not only the creation of unity but also the potential for contestation and conflict given that different interpretations of the past are often vehicles for opposing political interests This book reflects the geographical breadth and empirical depth of the field of collective remembering Foregrounding the idea that collective remembering always entails contestation individual chapters explore the field of remembrance and its various genres including murals memorials museums newspaper reports speeches textbooks tourist tours and the work of community activists in countries as diverse as Australia Germany Hungary Israel Italy Portugal South Africa the UK and the USA This volume will be of interest to advanced students and researchers in Critical Discourse Studies Memory Studies Rhetoric and Communications The chapters in this book were originally published in Critical Discourse Studies Colonial Entanglements and the Medieval Nordic World Cordelia Heß, Solveig Marie Wang, Erik Wolf, 2024-12-16 The book investigates the multifaceted entanglements between the many pasts and presents of the Nordic medieval period and colonialism The edited volume contributes to the untangling of questions concerning how present recent and past structures of colonialism affect historiography on the medieval Nordic past Consisting of thematically diverse chapters the book brings together a range of approaches related to medieval colonialism in a Nordic context touching both on medieval and medievalist factors The editors and contributors understand their project as part of the growing conversation about colonialism and its reverberations in academia and as a contribution to decolonization efforts The volume will offer an interdisciplinary approach to oft neglected aspects of the medieval world through an incorporation of more inclusive methodologies and re readings of both medieval texts and previous scholarship Family Ties Andrea Terry, 2015-06-01 House museums act as both sources and suppliers of history Functioning first as private residences they are then preserved as commemorative monuments and become living history museums offering theme based tours led by period costumed interpreters so that visitors might experience what it felt like to live back then In Family Ties Andrea Terry considers the appeal and relevance of domesticated representations of Victorian material culture in a contemporary multicultural context Through three case studies Terry examines Victorian homes that have been repurposed as living history museums that host speculative performances of the past The credibility of Dundurn Castle in Hamilton William Lyon Mackenzie House in Toronto and the Sir George tienne Cartier National Historic Site of Canada in Montreal Terry argues relies on the belief that architectural monuments and the objects they contain are evidence of the time culture nation or people that produced them Family Ties connects residential artifacts to performance by examining the Victorian Christmas programs offered annually at each site to demonstrate the complex nuances of living history Through a detailed exploration of the relationship between heritage living history and memory Family Ties illuminates the effects of institutional interpretations of the past that privilege nationalist myths

In the Province of History Ian McKay, Robin Bates, 2010-05-18 Using archival sources novels government reports and works on tourism and heritage Ian McKay and Robin Bates look at how state planners key politicians and cultural figures such as Henry Wadsworth Longfellow long time premier Angus L Macdonald and novelist Thomas Raddall were all instrumental in forming tourism history The authors argue that Longfellow s 1847 poem Evangeline on the brutal British expulsion of Acadians from Nova Scotia became a template a new kind of profit making history that exalted whiteness and excluded ethnic minorities women and working class movements A remarkable look at the intersection of politics leisure and the presentation of public history In the Province of History is a revealing account of how a region has both used and distorted its own past

Negotiating Heritage through Education and Archaeology Alicia Ebbitt McGill, 2021-08-17 Combining years of ethnographic research with British imperial archival sources this book reveals how cultural heritage has been negotiated by colonial independent state and community actors in Belize from the late nineteenth century to the present
