Redistribute Values Not Wealth:

Problems in Value Theory Steven B. Cowan, 2020-02-06 Problems in Value Theory takes a pro and con approach to central topics in aesthetics ethics and political theory Each chapter begins with a question What Makes Actions Right or Wrong Does Morality Depend on God Do We Need Government Contemporary philosophers with opposing viewpoints are then paired together to argue their position and raise problems with conflicting standpoints Alongside an up to date introduction to a core philosophical stance each contributor provides a critical response to their opponent and clear explanation of their view Discussion questions are included at the end of each chapter to guide further discussion With chapters ranging from why the government should never wage war to what is art and does morality depend on God this introduction covers questions lying at the heart of debates about what does and does not have value Capitalism in the 21st Century Guglielmo Carchedi, Michael Roberts, 2022-12-20 Contemporary capitalism is always evolving From digital technologies to cryptocurrencies current trends in political economy are much discussed but often little understood So where can we turn for clarity As Michael Roberts and Guglielmo Carchedi argue new trends don't necessarily call for new theory In Capitalism in the 21st Century the authors show how Marx's law of value explains numerous issues in our modern world In both advanced economies and the periphery value theory provides a piercing analytical framework through which we can approach topics as varied as labour profitability automation and AI the environment nature and ecology the role of China imperialism and the state This is an ambitious work that will appeal to both heterodox economists and labour movement activists alike as it demonstrates the ongoing contemporary relevance of Marxist theory to current trends in political economy The Political Economy of Fortune and Misfortune Scott Timcke, 2023-03-31 Bringing together philosophical insights with social theory this book develops a better understanding of the role luck plays in generating and reinforcing inequality Limits to Redistribution and Intertemporal Wedges: Implications of Pareto Optimality with Private Information: A Reprint from "Economic Quarterly" , The President's Commission on Income Maintenance Programs, Background Notes United States President of the United States, 1970 The Distribution and Redistribution of Income Peter J. Lambert, 1993 Social Classes and Political Order in the Age of Data Georges Kotrotsios, 2022-09-28 Our lives are changing today but what is the single most important factor driving these changes This question is crucial because attempting to answer it can guide us to an understanding of the processes that are impacting our societies The answer will of course come from the historians of the future but there is already no doubt that the advent of data is behind a radical shake up of our way of living Monetary assets infrastructure equipment and human labor all allow wealth to be created Data does too and it is reasonable to consider a new production factor in this regard data capital This book argues that this new production factor generates innumerable economic opportunities of a nature unthought of a mere twenty years ago These opportunities have led to the creation of a new social class composed of two subclasses data workers and data owners The emergence of this new class repositions existing classes including the traditional working class and the capitalist class creating strong divergences that threaten social cohesion What can we do to ensure cohesion and the proper functioning of society The book argues for the establishment of a regulatory framework and the institutions necessary if we are to open data up and where appropriate exchange and trade it all on a global scale In this regard the state today still playing its traditional role of framework setter and savior when crises loom can become an active economic player thus creating wealth for communities

Law: Key Concepts in Philosophy David Ingram, 2006-11-02 The philosophy of law inquiry into the origins nature and theory of laws and legal principles and those concepts that structure the practice of law is of great importance in moral and political philosophy as well as being a major area of philosophical concern in its own right. Clear, concise and comprehensive, this is the ideal introduction to the philosophy of law for those studying it for the first time. Drawing upon both the analytic Anglo-American and Continental schools of philosophy, Law: Key Concepts in Philosophy summarises the work of key thinkers in the philosophy of law, including Rousseau, Hobbes, Austin, Hegel, Mill, Marx, Dworkin and Rawls. It provides lucid and thorough explication and analysis of central concerns in legal philosophy, covering criminal law, civil law and constitutional law. Finally, the text also addresses key issues in contemporary philosophy of law, including human rights, international law and questions of race and gender.

Boundaries and Justice Sohail H. Hashmi, David Miller, 2021-05-11. Despite the supreme political and economic significance of boundaries and ongoing challenges to existing national boundaries, scant attention has been paid to their ethics. This volume explores how diverse ethical traditions understand the political and property rights reflected in territorial and jurisdictional boundaries. It is the first book to bring together thinkers from a range of traditions, both religious and secular, to discuss the ethics of boundaries. Each contributor represents a tradition's views on questions surrounding the use of boundaries to delimit property and political rights: What does it mean to own something? What resources should not be privately owned? What justifies the erection of political boundaries between one people and another? How hard should such boundaries be? What rights extend to minorities within a state? Should territorial boundaries coincide with social ones? Does national autonomy have an ethical basis, or is it an aspect of modern power politics? Should we aim for a more inclusive community than that afforded by modern nation-states? Cross-chapter dialogue and a substantive conclusion draw out similarities and differences among the traditions represented. Traditions that include Christianity, classical liberalism, Confucianism, international law, Islam, Judaism, liberal egalitarianism and natural law. In addition to the editors, the contributors are Nigel Biggar, Joseph Boyle, Joseph Chan, Russell Hardin, Will Kymlicka, Loren Lomasky, Robert McCorquodale, Richard B. Miller, David Novak, Sulayman Nyang, Michael Nylan, Raul C. Pangalangan, Daniel Philpott, Jeremy Rabkin, Hillel Steiner, M. Raquibuz Zaman and Noam J. Zohar.

Equal Shares John E. Roemer, Richard J. Arneson, 1996. How is it possible to translate egalitarian ideals into practical policy? In this second volume of the Real Utopias Project, John Roemer proposes the creation of an economy which combines a functioning market with a commitment to equality. Roemer's novel mechanism for achieving this end is the creation of two kinds of money: one used for the purchase of goods and the other referred to as coupons for buying shares in companies. All citizens, on reaching the age of majority, are given an equal number of coupons from which they derive ownership rights in companies, including dividends and a vote in board elections. Firms raise finance capital through the state, which converts shareholders' coupons into money. At death, all shares and unspent coupons revert to the state for redistribution. This scheme, Roemer argues, allows for a significant degree of government planning and equal distribution of property in the framework of a free market; it is, in short, a working system of market socialism. In the series of critiques which follow a range of distinguished thinkers engage in lively polemic concerning the practicality and effectiveness of Roemer's scheme. The contributors are Richard Arneson, Fred Block, Harry Brighouse, Michael Burawoy, Joshua Cohen, Nancy Folbre, Andrew Levine, Mieke Meurs, Louis Putterman, Joel Rogers, Debra Satz, Julius Sensat, William Simon, Frank Thompson, Thomas Weisskopf, and Erik Olin Wright.

Moral Economies of Distribution and Redistribution in Africa Tijo Salverda, Cristiano Lanzano, Jörg Wiegratz, 2025-11-03. This book examines how moralities of distribution and redistribution operate and intertwine in everyday African economic life, enhancing current understandings of capitalism on the continent. Through rich ethnographic studies spanning eight countries—Ghana, Nigeria, Burkina Faso, Equatorial Guinea, Ethiopia, Uganda, Kenya, and Zimbabwe—the volume reveals how these moral perspectives of right and wrong connect macro political economies with micro level social norms and expectations. As debates about economic inequality intensify globally, this timely work illuminates how African actors navigate complex redistributive dynamics, duties, and pressures in contemporary capitalist contexts. The contributors provide nuanced analyses of socioeconomic inequalities that often remain obscured in scholarly and public discourse, making a significant contribution to the growing field of moral economy research in Africa and beyond. This book is essential reading for scholars of African studies, economic anthropology, political economy, development studies, and anyone interested in understanding how moral frameworks shape economic relations, practices, and outcomes across diverse African settings. The chapters in this book were originally published in Journal of Contemporary African Studies.

Freedom and Economic Order Linda C. Raeder, 2018-12-17. Freedom and Economic Order is the second of three volumes comprising a comprehensive study of freedom and American society. The book explores the economic dimension of freedom as historically conceived within American constitutional order and examines the two major modern economic paradigms: capitalism and socialism, from both utilitarian and moral perspectives. Topics include the theory and practice of both capitalism, the market process, and socialism, the planned economy, the Marxist critique of capitalism, the conceptions of justice and social justice correlative to capitalism and socialism respectively, and the ethics of wealth redistribution. Volume I: Freedom and Political Order examines the meaning of freedom and the legal and political dimensions of American liberal democracy. Volume III: Limited Government and the Death of God explores the historical rise of freedom in the West and various modern and postmodern threats to the preservation and vitality of the free society.

Forest Lost Maron E. Greenleaf, 2024-10-07. Forest Lost is an ethnography of forest carbon offsets and the wider effort to make the living rainforest valuable in the Brazilian Amazon.

Torts, Egalitarianism and Distributive Justice Tsachi Keren-Paz, 2018-12-20. This book argues from a normative perspective for the incorporation of an egalitarian sensitivity into tort law and more generally into private law. It shows how an egalitarian sensitivity can reformulate tort doctrine with an emphasis on the tort of negligence Rather than a comprehensive descriptive account of existing tort law this book pro actively searches for new approaches and conceptual tools to meet the challenges faced by egalitarians The understanding of tort law offered in this book will bring about better practical results in specific cases It supports the progressive troops in the ongoing philosophical and social battles that take place in the field of tort law and also adds another voice rich nuanced and sensitive to the chorus that is tort theory
