Reflections From A Prayer Vigil For Peace:

Reflections from a Prayer Vigil for Peace John Andrew Gallery, 2001 For Justice and Enduring Peace Jessica Mitchell Smith, 2023-12-01 A look at the Methodist tradition of social witness Since the beginning of the Methodist movement Methodists have spoken to the issues of the day as an expression of the Wesleyan commitment to social holiness The General Board of Church and Society upholds the Wesleyan commitment to social holiness through witnessing to just social policies and practices This 100 year commemorative book will utilize archival materials from the agency s historic publications to tell the story Friends Journal ,2008 Through the Year with Pope Francis Pope Francis, 2013-11-21 I want the Church to go out onto the streets I want us to resist everything worldly everything static everything comfortable everything that might make us closed in on ourselves Pope Francis World Youth Day 2013 Pope Francis has been called the pope of the people as he captures minds and hearts with his joyful faith with his warm direct and loving attention to those he meets and with his attention to the poor and needy Now you can start or finish every day encouraged by the same engaging spirit alive in these 365 short meditations written by Pope Francis Let his words inspire and challenge you push you deeper into Scripture raise your prayer to new heights or simply fill you with gratitude for God s personal love for you Join Pope Francis and let the flame of faith catch fire within you as it slowly catches fire across the world A Better World Pope Francis, 2022-09-26 We live today in an unstable and dangerous world Countless people are plagued by war and fear and are oppressed by hatred and intimidation The world is hungry for peace Pope Francis has made great efforts to stop violence and hatred and continually calls the world to peace A Better World is another invitation from the Holy Father to love one another and to work diligently for peace In the homilies addresses and writings collected in this book Pope Francis reminds us as children of God to be kind in our daily actions and compassionate toward others even those who are different from us and whom we must accept with love When conflicts arise we are called to resolve them through dialogue and the quest for peace not through hatred and war Lasting peace is not the result of violent means but is achieved through dialogue and fraternity Zamir Abraham Garmaize, 2003-04 This book contains two parts Part one is The War of the Jews How the Jews are Fighting Each Other and the Remedy Part two is ecumenical memorial services for 9 11 Like a lazy river in summer that gives water to a thirsty land is how Rabbi Garmaize describes God s love as it is meant for the people of Israel Garmaize uses ancient lessons from the Torah and the Bible to implore today s Jewish Community to shower one another with friendship brotherhood and love His purpose in this book is to show a divided Israel it is necessary to accept one another in Peace so the same olive branch may be extended to those who would relish its destruction This is a special book for Memorial Services for 9 11 The Memorial Services is for all dinaminations divided into 3 sections Jewish Catholic and Protestant It describes the tragedy hope and prayers Go Deep Doris E. Kizinna, 2009 Where are you in your youth leadership Just beginning Charged full of enthusiasm for the endless possibilities Or overwhelmed as you feel the first signs of burnout approaching If you find you have been caught up in the how of leadership but have lost track of why you got involved in youth leadership to begin with then you have come to the right resource Doris Kizinna an experienced youth leader guides you through personal spiritual exercises on a deep exploration of your own motivations beliefs and calling You will learn to listen for the movement of Spirit in your life and put your faith into daily practice as you mentor the youth in your group She also provides a varied and relevant collection of practices for youth that help them question respond and examine their own beliefs and the role of Spirit in their daily lives Yearning for God, the Path to Peace of the Soul Joseph John Williams,1924 Peace is Possible Mary Alban Bouchard,Herauf, Jerome,1985 Living Peace John Dear,2010-05-19 To take care of each other should be our primary concern in this 21st century and Father Dear is steady on this course Thich Nhat Hanh For John Dear a Jesuit priest and respected leader of the ecumenical peace movement the spiritual life is a combination of contemplation and action of maintaining inner peace and projecting that peace into the greater world It is the spirituality exemplified by the lives of Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr Mother Teresa the Dalai Lama and others throughout history who remained true to the highest ideals while addressing the most difficult problems and conflicts of the real world As a tireless advocate for social justice and human rights Dear has followed that path in his own life and in Living Peace he describes his journey Breaking down the life of peace into three parts an inner journey a public journey and the journey of all humanity he shares the spiritual practices that have sustained him and teaches readers how to integrate these practices into their own lives From the Hardcover edition Youth Retreats for Any Schedule Maryann Hakowski,2007 Retreats offer young people an opportunity to learn more about themselves build relationships with others and grow in their relationship with God Retreats are occasions for conversion and a chance to get away from the busyness of life and encounter God Youth Retreats for Any Schedule includes five retreats on a variety of topics that speak to the needs and daily experiences of young people Ministry leaders can use each retreat as written or mine the book for resources to use in religious education classes youth group meetings mission trips and so on The retreats and activities can also be used as a springboard for creating new retreats Peace At The Last Robert Atwell,2014-09-12 Until relatively recently a Church of England funeral was the default option of the majority of the British population This is no longer the case Exploring what makes a good funeral Robert Atwell suggests many practical ways in which the church can become better at conducting funerals and engaging with those who seek pastoral support Spiritual Guides Fred Dallmayr,2017-12-15 In Spiritual Guides Pathfinders in the Desert Fred Dallmayr challenges the desert character of modern culture Political and economic corruption incessant warmongering spoliation of natural resources and above all mindless consumerism and greedy self satisfaction are all symptoms of what he contends is an expanding wasteland or desert where everything creative and nourishing decays and withers Through an alternative interpretation of Nietzsche s saying the desert grows this book calls for spiritual renewal invoking in particular four prominent guides or pathfinders in the desert Paul Tillich Raimon Panikkar Thomas Merton and Pope Francis What links all four guides together is the view of spiritual life as an itinerarium a pathway along difficult and often uncharted roads Dallmayr begins by drawing a connection between Nietzsche's characterization of the desert in Thus Spoke Zarathustra and the present culture of consumerism in which a nearly exclusive emphasis on productivity efficiency profitability and the transformation of everything valuable into a useful resource prevails over all other goals He also draws attention to another sense of desert namely as a place of solitude meditation and retreat from affliction Aptly defined it becomes a place where spirituality arises from a painful turning about a wrenching effort to extricate human life from the decay of late modernity Spirituality is not a possession or property but rather the contemplation and radical mindfulness that we develop through engaged practices as we search for pathways to recovery Spirituality becomes critical in the dominant political and cultural wasteland because it provides a bond linking humanity together In the spirit of global ecumenism Spiritual Guides also includes a discussion of Muslim Hindu and Buddhist forms of spirituality This book will interest students and scholars of philosophy political theory and religion

Louis Massignon Dorothy C. Buck, 2017-06-01 The root of the word Badaliya in Arabic means to replace or exchange one thing for another The French scholar and spiritual seeker Louis Massignon 1883-1962 interpreted the word as a willingness to put oneself in the place of another to give one's own life for the sake of someone else This offering of himself for the well being of his Muslim brothers and sisters was the inspiration for Massignon's entire life In 1947 the renowned orientalist who had regained his Christian faith and identity while on a research expedition in Baghdad in present day Iraq established an international prayer association that he named the Badaliya and for which he remained the organizer until his death in 1962 The fifteen annual letters and ninety one monthly convocations of the Badaliya are as much invitations to prayer and a consecration of individual lives as they are a witness to the incarnational spirit active and alive in our contemporary world today These letters read like a diary that follows the events and conflicts of the time but also due to the genius of Massignon's mystical reading of history these precious documents reveal fifteen years of a singular spiritual adventure Framed by an introduction presenting the context and genesis of the prayer movement and completed with a description of the Badaliya today this book permits the reader to grasp the fruitfulness of the spirit of the Badaliya No other text has yet permitted us to so deeply penetrate the heart of the spirituality and the struggles of Louis Massignon who remains even today a master for our time

Seizing the Nonviolent Moments Nancy Small, 2015-01-08 Life is filled with opportunities to practice nonviolence If we kept track we'd be surprised at how often we get to choose a violent or nonviolent response to a given situation Seizing these moments is a spiritual practice that shapes a nonviolent heart Many people doing this together shapes the heart of a nonviolent world This book is a humble and accessible approach to nonviolence based on the belief that no one is perfectly nonviolent We are all works in progress Each chapter presents an imaginative interpretation of a scripture story about seizing a nonviolent moment that sheds new light on nonviolence and its spirituality Stories of contemporary peacemakers woven throughout offer lessons for living a spirituality of nonviolence for our times Prophetic words from the US Catholic bishops emphasize the essential role of peacemaking in renewing the earth Questions following each chapter inspire personal reflection and make the book a welcome resource for classrooms parishes and small groups The more we seize the nonviolent moments in our lives the more we are transformed by them And the more we experience the power of nonviolence within ourselves the more we believe in its potential to transform our troubled world

With God in the Crucible Peter Storey, 2010-09-01 Often the church is accused of being so embedded in the culture that effective prophecy leveled at the culture is impossible But this book illustrates that there was a time and a place where the church community was faithful to its mission as the body of Christ as church leaders led people lifted high the cross and they marched into the uncertainty that still prevails Here is a time and place where the call to risky discipleship was answered not with whimpers whines and excuses but with the power of faithful Christians living out their call This book illustrates what it can mean to faithfully answer the call to discipleship and God's service Many people wonder if they would be able to stand up for their faith if it meant great personal sacrifice or the sacrifice of people they love They wonder what they would risk for their faith if anything In the United States where cost benefit analysis is a popular way to assess risk many Christians wonder if they might not have to stand alone because too many see the risks as too costly As suggested by the title this book draws upon a collection of sermons and addresses given by Peter Storey in a variety of contexts between 1966 and 1993 The original audiences ranged from the all white Central Methodist Church in Johannesburg to the South African Council of Churches to the nation of South Africa and to the world All of these sermons and addresses are directly related to specific historical events security police confrontations beatings and tear gassings in churches around the country of South Africa an imposed State of Emergency the murder of 14 year old Stompie Sepie by Winnie Mandela's thugs and the violent jockeying for power between Mandela's African National Congress Chief Mangosutho Buthe's Inkatha Movement and F W de Klerk's regime The book offers the full perspective of what it means to speak truth empower people to stand for the truth and to pastor souls during times when living truth seems almost impossible Key Features 1 Foreword by Desmond Tutu 2 15 chapters each including a brief description of the original context the sermon and its connection with the present and a prayer 3 Epilogue by Will Willimon

Engaged Buddhism in the West Christopher S. Queen, 2012-11-12 Engaged Buddhism is founded on the belief that genuine spiritual practice requires an active involvement in society Engaged Buddhism in the West illuminates the evolution of this new chapter in the Buddhist tradition including its history leadership and teachings and addresses issues such as violence and peace race and gender homelessness prisons and the environment Eighteen new studies explore the activism of renowned leaders and organizations such as Thich Nhat Hanh Bernard Glassman Joanna Macy the Buddhist Peace Fellowship and the Free Tibet Movement and the emergence of a new Buddhism in North America Europe South Africa and Australia
