Reflections from a Village Frank Swinnerton, 1970 Countryman's Year John Green, 1994-10-28 Penllyn Village: Lest We Forget E. Gloria Stewart Jones, 2008-08-15

This book is written especially to honor the residents in a small black community whose time as a totally black community may be ending. Not all Black Americans have lived in the urban areas of this country not a better life but different. It is hoped that any who read this book would see that the hopes, dreams, and life styles of many Black Americans are no different than those of other Americans. This story is about such people. Just beyond the Bethlehem Baptist Church on the corner of Penllyn Blue Bell Pike and Trewellyn Avenue in the village of Penllyn Lower Gwynedd Township in Montgomery County Pennsylvania rests a predominantly black settlement. The people who founded the church are the same people who established a firm foundation for the community. But there is something more to the church and residents whose presence there dates back 120 years. The author's purpose is to document their presence before their rich history is swept away by changing demographics. The book's focus is on the black immigrants from Virginia who were recruited from the farmlands of Westmoreland County Virginia to those in Gwynedd and surrounding areas in Pennsylvania. There is a brief acknowledgment of the settlement of the Welsh and other Eastern and Southern Europeans as well as the aristocracy who came before. Also noted are the ties to the Revolutionary War and structures that could be considered as historic sites still remaining in the village. A review of their southern roots was important to understanding the residents' success in their new home. They had strong ties to their families and skills already gained back home. Some came to make enough money to send home to buy the farmland back in Virginia that their forefathers had farmed under the yoke of slavery. Some succeeded and returned home. Others remained to find work in the mills and estates of the wealthy; some were able to start small businesses of their own. Their settlement began with a prayer group of nineteen people that met in a home in Springhouse PA in 1885. Told from the perspective of the elders in the community, the expanding group had already become a community in faith and spirit if not in residence. In 1888, having outgrown their meeting site, they established a church in Penllyn Village and the first black resident moved into the village. When malicious arson caused that church to burn down, they built another. For the greater part of 120 years, the church was their anchor. It is continually illustrated that the early church leadership encouraged them in developing business acumen, political savvy, and artistic talents. Two major land investments established the village as a black community. The first was the purchase of a block of land by young black entrepreneurs in the early 1900s. It was during that time one sees the development of businesses and self-sufficiency that held their community together. The second and most challenging occurred in 1947 when they were able to develop what is believed to be the first Black corporation in the state of Pennsylvania in order to buy the Pershing estate. The Penllyn Homebuilders Association Inc. sold stock for fifty dollars a share and bought the 40-acre estate. As a result, 50 more black-owned homes were added to the community. A discussion of their social and recreational activities from the early 1900s on are what has been observed in American culture throughout that same time span. Simple church picnics, hometown roller rinks, the ice cream parlor, the old swimming hole are typical hometown entertainments of decades past. There is an array of musical talent of an unusual proportion in such a small population ranging from instrumental and singing to contemporary jazz bands. You will note that the residents have never shirked their civic duty. Since the 1930s and 1940s and currently they have been actively involved in all aspects of the political spectrum from conservative to liberal.

A Distant Village Changing: Economic Growth and People's Lives Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-09. A Distant Village Changing: Economic Growth and People's Lives offers a unique perspective on the profound transformation of rural China through the lens of Lin Village, a small community in Southeast China. This book explores the factors that have contributed to Lin Village's remarkable transformation from a struggling agricultural village to a thriving hub of economic activity. Through detailed analysis and engaging storytelling, the book delves into the impact of government policies, local leadership, community initiatives, and individual entrepreneurship in driving economic growth. It examines the changing roles of women, the expansion of educational opportunities, and the impact of technology on rural life. Beyond its economic transformation, the book also explores the social and cultural changes that have taken place in Lin Village. It highlights the challenges that the village faces, such as environmental degradation, rural-urban migration, and the preservation of traditional culture. This book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in China's rural development, economic growth, and social change. It is essential reading for scholars, policymakers, and practitioners working in these fields. It is also a fascinating and informative read for anyone who wants to learn more about the complex and multifaceted transformation that is taking place in rural China. Key Features: Comprehensive analysis of China's rural transformation through the lens of a single village. In-depth examination of the factors driving economic growth and social change. Exploration of the challenges and opportunities facing rural China. Engaging storytelling and detailed case studies. Valuable insights for scholars, policymakers, and practitioners. About the Author: Pasquale De Marco is a leading expert on China's rural development. He has conducted extensive research on the topic and has published numerous articles and books. He is a frequent commentator on China's economic and social development and regularly provides insights to policymakers and practitioners. If you like this book, write a review.

Decolonizing International Service Learning Michael O'Sullivan, Harry Smaller, 2023-04-24. Despite the existence of a robust literature reviewed throughout this text, which critiques salvationist models of international Service Learning (ISL), including literature that advocates deeply reciprocal relationships between global northern sending organizations and global southern host organizations, neocolonial models of ISL remain the dominant practice. The authors pose an ISL model that puts north-south reciprocity at the centre of ISL planning and implementation based on their research and engagement in multiple ISL experiences and importantly from the input of representatives of global southern host organizations at a south-south gathering, encuentro. This constitutes a rupture with the current model that views the host village as an extension of a group leader's classroom; rather, it makes the host community a space for difficult learning based on what hosts want their visitors to take home The interruptions of ISL travel represented by COVID constituted an opportunity to consider alternative models despite the awareness of environmental impacts of travel it is likely that ISL trips will resume It is therefore increasingly important that the ISL experience becomes a means of generating solidarity rather than the reinforcement of neocolonial helping imperatives associated with the traditional model

Marriage, Gender and Sex in a Contemporary Chinese Village Sun-Pong Yuen, Pui-Lam Law, Yuk-Ying Ho, Fong-Ying Yu, 2015-07-17 This book explores changing concepts of marriage and gender relationships and attitudes toward sex in a rural Chinese community over the past five decades The book is based on a study of an industrialized peasant village in Guangdong Province from 1994 to 1996 and subsequent visits from 2000 to 2002 According to the authors the rural economic reforms of the 1980s in southern China have challenged and reinforced the deep structure of Chinese familism and this has led to tensions between tradition and modernity The first section of the book explores how attitudes toward marriage and courtship have changed over the past fifty years through personal accounts of three different marriages from different generations In Part II the transition from a traditional to a modern society is discussed from the perspective of several women from different generations The third section focuses on sexual relationships and the growing sex trade in the village Part IV includes updates to the original survey and takes a look at village politics

A Morphological Interpretation of a Northern Chinese Traditional Village Kun Li, 2024-04-23 This book challenges the definition of a new approach for integrating protection and enhancing the Chinese heritage category of Traditional Villages By applying a specific case study in the Hancheng context Shaanxi Province which lacks sound studies the book formulates new theoretical prerequisites for future researches an in depth knowledge path and sound methodological principles By working in a multiple scales approach the object of preservation and enhancement is first of all redefined in its ontology as a unity formed by the courtyard type the morphology of the village and the related landscape structures All these three levels of study have been deeply investigated put into the relationship and resulting in a new methodology which overcomes the inadequacy and ineffectiveness of the notion of setting deriving from conservation Charters to embrace the structural notion of context and a knowledge approach to rural settlements form The innovative and original features of this book are both in the reading villages in their landscape dimension which in turn is studied as a context made of several interrelated structures Another original feature of the book is the integration of Italian historic structural and morphological methodologies with specific Chinese cultural aspects The author s work dug deeply and interdisciplinary in all those dimensions to account for the complex issues that are related and embodied in both the physical and intangible meaning of human settlements opening a novel scientific methodology for Chinese studies as a sound base to define three key integrated project actions what why how to preserve enhance develop MERIP Reports Middle East Research & Information Project,1985-06 Reflections of a Village Schoolmaster Harold Lygo-Baker,1989 Shelf Life Stuart Russell,2000 Building the Workingman's Paradise Margaret Crawford,1995 This innovative and absorbing book surveys a little known chapter in the story of American urbanism the history of communities built and owned by single companies seeking to bring their workers homes and place of employment together on a single site By 1930 more than two million people lived in such towns dotted across an industrial frontier which stretched from Lowell Massachusetts through Torrance California to Norris Tennessee Margaret Crawford focuses on the transformation of company town construction from the vernacular settlements of the late eighteenth century to the professional designs of architects and planners one hundred and fifty years later Eschewing a static architectural approach which reads politics history and economics through the appearance of buildings Crawford portrays the successive forms of company towns as the product of a dynamic process shaped by industrial transformation class struggle and reformers efforts to control and direct these forces "Master Collett." The Reflections of a Village Nonconformist G. H. Ruffell Laslett,1930 Village Housing Nick Gallent,Iqbal Hamiduddin,Phoebe Stirling,Meiling Wu,2022-10-17 Village Housing explores the housing challenge faced by England s amenity villages rooted in post war counter urbanisation and a rising tide of investment demand for rural homes It tracks solutions to date and considers what further actions might be taken to increase the equity of housing outcomes and thereby support rural economies and alternate rural futures Examining past current and future intervention the book s authors analyse three major themes the interwar reliance on landowners to provide tied housing and post war diversification of responses to rising housing access difficulties including from the public and third sectors recent responses that are community led or rely on flexibilities in the planning system and actions that disrupt established production processes including self build low impact development and a re emergence of council provision These responses to the village housing challenge are set against a broader backdrop of structural constraint rooted in a planning land tax finance nexus and opportunities through reform to reduce that constraint Village Housing makes the case for planning land and tax reforms that can broaden the social inclusivity and diversity of villages supporting their economic function and allowing them to play their part in post carbon rural futures It aims to contribute greater understanding of the village housing problem framed by the wider cost crisis afflicting advanced economies and offer glimpses of alternative relationships with planning and land

The Legend of The Witch of Woolpit Daniel Joseph, Synopsis for The Legend of The Witch of Woolpit The Legend of The Witch of Woolpit transports readers to the quaint village of Woolpit steeped in history and folklore Set against the backdrop of rural England the story unfolds with the arrival of a mysterious woman whose presence disrupts the everyday life of the villagers In Episode 1 The Origins of Woolpit we are introduced to the enigmatic village its rich customs and the close knit community The tranquility is shattered with the arrival of a stranger prompting a mix of curiosity and suspicion among the villagers As the story progresses into Episode 2 The Woman Accused whispers of witchcraft begin to circulate Growing unrest leads to the formal accusation of the woman culminating in a dramatic trial filled with fear prejudice and societal tensions The villagers grapple with their beliefs and the verdict unleashes dire consequences Episode 3 The Curse Unleashed delves into the aftermath of the trial In her final moments the woman utters a curse that reverberates through the village manifesting in crop failures and livestock deaths The once thriving community is plunged into misfortune and the villagers face the harrowing realization that their actions may have consequences beyond their understanding In Episode 4 The Haunting Woolpit becomes a shadow of its former self as haunting occurrences plague the villagers Struggling to cope with the supernatural manifestations they seek redemption and attempt to lift the curse inviting experts in folklore to help them navigate the mysteries of the unknown The legend evolves in Episode 5 The Legacy as the story of the witch transforms into a local myth preserved and retold through generations The impact of the legend on modern day Woolpit invites reflections on the lessons learned from the past and the enduring influence of the woman s story The narrative concludes in Episode 6 Epilogue exploring the lingering presence of the witch s spirit and the ongoing mystery surrounding her tale Through investigations into historical accuracy and folklore readers are invited to ponder the intersection of myth and reality and the legacy left behind by the witch of Woolpit This poignant tale captures the complexities of human nature the consequences of fear and prejudice and the lasting power of storytelling in shaping culture and community

Chambers's Cyclopædia of English Literature Robert Chambers, Robert Carruthers, 1894 Curating America Richard Rabinowitz, 2016-09-14 How do history museums and historic sites tell the richly diverse stories of the American people What fascinates us most about American history To help answer these questions noted public historian Richard Rabinowitz examines the evolution of public history over the last half century and highlights the new ways we have come to engage with our past At the heart of this endeavor is what Rabinowitz calls storyscapes landscapes of engagement where individuals actively encounter stories of past lives As storyscapes museums become processes of narrative interplay rather than moribund storage bins of strange relics Storyscapes bring to life even the most obscure people making their skills of hands and minds touchable making their voices heard despite their absence from traditional archives and making the dilemmas and triumphs of their lives accessible to us today Rabinowitz's wealth of professional experience creating over 500 history museums exhibitions and educational programs across the nation shapes and informs the narrative By weaving insights from learning theory anthropology and geography politics and finance collections and preservation policy and interpretive media Rabinowitz reveals how the nation's best museums and historic sites allow visitors to confront their sense of time and place memories of family and community and definitions of self and the world while expanding their idea of where they stand in the flow of history
