Reese, Yale Center for British Art, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 2007-01-01 Paul Mellon 1907 1999 was an unparalleled collector of British art His collection now at Yale in the museum and study center he founded to house it rivals those in Britain's national museums and is unquestionably the most comprehensive representation of British art held outside of the United Kingdom This book and the exhibition that it accompanies celebrate the centenary of his birth Five introductory essays examine Mellon's extraordinary collecting activity as well as his role in creating both the Yale Center for British Art and the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art in London as gifts to his alma mater Yale 1929 A lavishly illustrated catalogue section showcases 148 of the most exquisite and important paintings watercolors drawings prints sculpture rare books and manuscript material in the Yale Center's collection including major works by Thomas Gainsborough Joshua Reynolds George Stubbs John Constable and J M W Turner

Rogues and Scholars James Stourton, 2025-02-04 A colorful and fast moving account of how postwar London became the global center of the art market a story of Impressionist masterpieces dodgy dealers and ground breaking financial transactions On October 15 1958 Sotheby's of Bond Street staged an event sale of seven Impressionist paintings belonging to Erwin Goldschmidt three Manets two Cezannes one Van Gogh and a Renoir Kirk Douglas Anthony Quinn and Somerset Maugham were there as celebrity guests The seven lots went for 781 000 at the time the highest price for a single sale The event established London as the world center of the art market and Sotheby's as an international auction house It began a shift in power from the dealers to the auctioneers and paved the way for Impressionist paintings to dominate the market for the next forty years Sotheby's had pulled off a massive coup by capturing the Impressionist market from Paris and New York and now began its inexorable rise opening offices all over the world A huge expansion of the market followed accompanied by rocketing prices colorful scandals and legal dramas London transformed itself from a fusty place of old master painting sales to a revitalized center of contemporary art crowned by the opening of Tate Modern in 2000 The Tate Modern successfully united new and mostly foreign money in London with the art world offering its patrons a ready made sophisticated social milieu alongside dealers in contemporary art In a vibrant and briskly paced style James Stourton tells the story of the London art market from the immediate postwar period to the turn of the millennium While Sotheby's is the lynchpin of this story Stourton populates his narrative with a glorious rogue's gallery of eccentric scholars clever amateurs brilliant emigrants and stylish grandees with a flair for the deal The Fricks Collect Ian Wardropper, 2025-03-04 Before his New York home became a museum Henry Clay Frick engaged some of his era's most important art dealers to build a notable collection and the best decorators to create suitable Gilded Age interiors to accommodate the works This story traces the journey that led to the creation of one of America's finest art collections At its heart this story centers on Frick and his daughter Helen Clay

Frick both pivotal figures in the formation of the renowned Frick Collection The volume delves into the Fricks exposure to and acquisition of some of the finest art of their time With an exquisite blend of textual narrative and ample imagery showcasing masterpieces and the sumptuous interiors of homes in Pittsburgh and New York the book offers a captivating narrative of ambition wealth and cultural patronage White Allom Co and Elsie de Wolfe worked with Frick on the decoration of his houses and influenced the choice of many furnishings the owner acquired and that formed the backdrop for his paintings As was commonplace at the time decorators often collaborated with dealers in creating spaces suitable for the esteemed works of art Further influential figures who shaped the era s cultural landscape include Frick s business partner Andrew Carnegie and noted art dealers Joseph Duveen in London and Charles Carstairs of M Knoedler Co in New York Presenting the glittering halls of their homes and the masterpieces adorning the walls of The Frick Collection this volume is a testament to the enduring allure of art and the power of patronage in shaping cultural institutions
