Reflections Of A Country Doctor:

Reflections of a Country Doctor Jimmie Ashcraft M. D.,2011-07 This book contains my reflections upon my 26 years as an old time generalist family physician in rural America It is merely a collection of stories that depict some of my many experiences over the years The stories mirror those of many of my generalist colleagues who have experienced the trenches of rural primary care My stories span the breadth and depth of the discipline of rural family medicine Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from performing surgery to becoming involved in one s community and from making house calls to providing emergency room care Some are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad JIMMIE ASHCRAFT M D Doctor Ashcraft is a graduate of the University of Oregon Medical School He was a member of the clinical staff of the University of Washington Medical School for 30 years Doctor Ashcraft and his wife Kay live in Montana They have three grown children and six grandchildren The Next

Prescription M. D. Jimmie Ashcraft,Jimmie Ashcraft MD,2011-08-01 I have been most gratified with the positive response to my first book Reflections of a Country Doctor Many readers encouraged me to write another book that told the rest of my story This book contains some of my experiences during my premedical and medical training years and more of my experiences during my twenty six years as an old time family physician in rural America Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from experiencing the joys of pediatrics to the frustrations of medical errors from performing surgery to becoming involved in one s community and from making routine home visits to providing life ordeath emergency care In keeping with the format of Reflections of a Country Doctor some of the stories are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad Doctor Ashcraft grew up as one of four brothers in a poor family in Montana Despite a difficult childhood he managed to work his way through college He was the first graduate from Eastern Montana College to graduate from a medical school He graduated from the University of Oregon Medical School After his medical training he served in the National Health Service Corps Doctor Ashcraft practiced as a family physician in Sidney Montana for twenty five years Afterward he was a member of the faculty of the Montana Family Medicine Residency a program that he helped to develop Doctor Ashcraft was a member of the clinical faculty of the University of Washington Medical School for thirty years He is a Lifetime Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians Doctor Ashcraft and his wife Kay still live in Montana They have three children and six grandchildren Reflections of a Country Doctor

Jimmie Ashcraft,2020-02 The Next Prescription Jimmie L. Ashcraft M. D.,2020-02 An African proverb says It takes an entire village to raise a child The same can be said of physicians No one traverses the journey through medical training and private practice by themselves because the stars are aligned just right The journey demands a considerable supportive effort from a village of many or perhaps many villages This book contains my reflections upon my 26 years as an old time generalist family physician in rural America It is merely a collection of stories that depict some of my experiences over the years The stories mirror those of many of my generalist colleagues who have experienced the trenches of rural primary care In fact on occasion I introduced myself as nothing more than a full time trenchologist My stories span the breadth and depth of the discipline of rural family medicine Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life and from performing surgery to becoming involved in one s community Some are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad Memories and Reflections of A Country Doctor George T. Mitchell,2008-09-09
