Reflections Of Nz A Human Touch:

Reflections of New Zealand Firstpic,2005-09-09 Language, Identity and Diversity in Picturebooks Nicola Daly,2024-10-28 This book presents a range of perspectives on the way language diversity and identity are reflected in New Zealand children s literature based on the published research of Nicola Daly an associate professor in the Division of Education of the University of Waikato and her colleagues The book is organised into two sections The first section examines the use of Te Reo M ori and English in the text of New Zealand picturebooks exploring the linguistic landscape of M ori English bilingual picturebooks The second section The Pedagogical Potential of Picturebooks explores how picturebooks featuring M ori English New Zealand Sign Language NZSL and Pacific languages reflect identity and support diversity in society Research from several educational contexts ranging from kindergarten to university where picturebooks are used to support learning language and learning about language is also discussed Themes of language identity and diversity are explored throughout the two sections and brought together in the concluding chapter s discussion of the power of picturebooks This book will be of interest to scholars in children s literature and education it may also be relevant to scholars in linguistics library and information studies cultural studies and media and communication studies Bodies as Sites of Cultural Reflection in Early Childhood Education Rachael S. Burke,Judith Duncan,2014-10-30 Taking the body as a locus for discussion Rachael S Burke and Judith Duncan argue not only that implicit cultural practices shape most of the interactions taking place in early childhood curricula and pedagogy but that many of these practices often go unnoticed or unrecognized as being pedagogy Current scholars inspired by Foucault acknowledge that the body is socially and culturally produced and historically situated it is simultaneously a part of nature and society as well as a representation of the way that nature and society can be conceived Every natural symbol originating from the body contains and conveys a social meaning and every culture selects its own meaning from the myriad of potential body symbolisms Bodies as Sites of Cultural Reflection in Early Childhood Education uses empirical examples from qualitative fieldwork conducted in New Zealand and Japan to explore these theories and discuss the ways in which children s bodies represent a central focus in teachers pedagogical discussions and create contexts for the embodiment of children s experiences in the early years Touch in Sports Coaching and Physical Education Heather Piper,2014-08-07 In our increasingly risk averse society touch and touching behaviours between professionals and children have become a fraught issue In sports coaching and physical education touching young sports performers and participants has in some contexts come to be redefined as dubious and dangerous Coaches find themselves operating in a framework of regulations and guidelines that create anxiety for them and others and for many volunteer and sometimes professional coaches this fearful context has led them to question the risks and benefits of their continuing involvement in sport Touch in Sports Coaching and Physical Education is the first book to explore this difficult topic in detail Drawing on a series of international studies from the US UK Australia Canada Sweden and elsewhere it presents important new research evidence and examines theories of risk and moral panic that frame the discussion By challenging prevailing orthodoxies the book makes a significant contribution to critical discussion around practice pedagogy politics and policy in sport and physical education and also informs current debates around the nature and quality of all in loco parentis relationships

Promoting Reflection on Language Learning Neil Curry,Phoebe Lyon,Jo Mynard,2023-09-12 This book brings together a wide range of studies practical applications and reflective accounts written by academics working at a university in Japan to present a cohesive overview of their collaborative efforts to promote learner reflection within their institution The book contributes to a shift in language education towards promoting learner responsibility and ownership of their learning through developing a deeper sense of awareness of and motivation for the learning process It makes a convincing case for showing that not only is promoting reflection possible but it can also be effectively integrated into language learning activities with significant benefits to the learners The chapters are highly practical for researchers and practitioners with the research chapters containing instruments which make them ideal for replication studies The text includes a wealth of practical tools and activities for practitioners who will be able to experience first hand how to facilitate student success and increase satisfaction

Extinct Birds Julian P. Hume,2017-08-24 A comprehensive review of the hundreds of bird species that have become extinct over the last 1 000 years of habitat degradation over hunting and rat introduction Extinct Birds has become the standard text on this subject covering both familiar icons of extinction as well as more obscure birds some known from just one specimen or from travellers tales This second edition is expanded to include dozens of new species as more are constantly added to the list either through extinction or through new subfossil discoveries The book is the result of decades of research into literature and museum drawers as well as caves and subfossil deposits which often reveal birds long gone that disappeared without ever being recorded by scientists while they lived From Great Auks Carolina Parakeets and Dodos to the amazing yet almost completely vanished bird radiations of Hawaii and New Zealand via rafts of extinction in the Pacific and elsewhere this book is both a sumptuous reference and astounding testament to humanity s devastating impact on wildlife

Ecclesiology for a Digital Church Heidi A Campbell,John Dyer,2022-02-04 What are the ecclesiological challenges and opportunities raised by technology How have developments related to the COVID 19 global health crisis impacted churches forcing a swift move to mediated and online worship And how will this change the shape churches of theological and programmatic choices for years to come Drawing together a diverse group of theologians and media scholars this volume considers the key theological question churches and religious leaders need to engage with as they look towards long term strategies involving church life and technology Asian Perspectives ,1999 New Zealand Dental Journal ,1986 Outcasts of the Gods? Hazel Petrie,2015-09-25 Us Maoris used to practice slavery just like them poor Negroes had to endure in America says Beth Heke in Once Were Warriors Oh those evil colonials who destroyed Maori culture by ending slavery and cannibalism while increasing the life expectancy wrote one sarcastic blogger So was Maori slavery just like the experience of Africans in the Americas and were British missionaries or colonial administrators responsible for ending the practice What was the nature of freedom and unfreedom in Maori society and how did that intersect with the perceptions of British colonists and the anti slavery movement A meticulously researched book Outcasts of the Gods looks closely at a huge variety of evidence to answer these questions analyzing bondage and freedom in traditional Maori society the role of economics and mana in shaping captivity and how the arrival of colonists and new trade opportunities transformed Maori society and the place of captives within it Psychiatric and Mental Health Nursing Phil Barker,2017-07-20 The concept of the craft of caring dictates that the basis of good nursing practice is a combination of both art and science encouraging nurses to take a holistic approach to the practice of psychiatric and mental health nursing Supported by relevant theory research policy and philosophy this volume reflects current developments in nursing practice and the understanding of mental health disorders The book includes case studies of patients with anxiety schizophrenia and bipolar disorder as well as victims of sexual abuse those with an eating disorder homeless patients and those with dementia and autism A New Zealand Book of Beasts Annie Potts,Philip Armstrong,Deidre Brown,2014-03-01 Touching on indigenous Maori relationships with the now extinct flightless moa the attitudes of Pakeha or European settlers toward sheep the iconography of whales and dolphins the problems of pest control and the pleasures of pet keeping this modern day bestiary is a fascinating study of human animal relations In the book s four parts the authors unravel the contradictory ways New Zealanders nurture and eradicate glorify and demonize cherish and devour and describe and imagine animals The study brings together insights from New Zealand s arts and literature popular culture historiography media and everyday life to describe and analyze their interactions with nga kararehe and nga manu the beasts and birds of the land In doing so it illuminates fundamental aspects of New Zealand society how New Zealanders understand their own identities and those of others how they regard inhabit and make use of the natural world and how they think about what they buy eat wear watch and read Rich multifaceted and engaging A New Zealand Book of Beasts satisfyingly explores how culture both shapes and is shaped by the beasts of Aotearoa The Aging Body in Dance Nanako Nakajima,Gabriele Brandstetter,2017-01-06 What does it mean to be able to move The Aging Body in Dance brings together leading scholars and artists from a range of backgrounds to investigate cultural ideas of movement and beauty expressiveness and agility Contributors focus on Euro American and Japanese attitudes towards aging and performance including studies of choreographers dancers and directors from Yvonne Rainer Martha Graham Anna Halprin and Romeo Castellucci to Kazuo Ohno and Kikuo Tomoeda They draw a fascinating comparison between youth oriented Western cultures and dance cultures like Japan's where aging performers are celebrated as part of the country's living heritage The first cross cultural study of its kind The Aging Body in Dance offers a vital resource for scholars and practitioners interested in global dance cultures and their differing responses to the world's aging population Patient & Person - E-Book Epub

Constructing Colonial Discourse Noel Elizabeth Currie,2005 While Captain James Cook s South Pacific voyages have been extensively studied much less attention has been paid to his representation of the Pacific Northwest In Constructing Colonial Discourse N E Currie focuses on the month Cook spent at Nootka Sound on the west coast of Vancouver Island in 1778 during his third Pacific voyage Comparing the official 1784 edition of that voyage with his Cook's journal account made available in the scholarly edition prepared by New Zealand scholar J C Beaglehole Currie demonstrates that the representation of North America's northwest coast in the late eighteenth century was shaped as much by the publication process as by British notions of landscape natural history cannibalism and history in the new world Most recent scholarship critiques imperialist representations of the non European world while taking these published accounts at face value Constructing Colonial Discourse combines close textual analysis with the insights of postcolonial theory to critique the discursive and rhetorical strategies by which the official account of the third voyage transformed Cook into an imperial hero
