Bulka, 2003 This volume looks at the unique phenomenon of what the author calls Modern Folk Judaism the way that many Jews have chosen to express their Judaism in the context of Modern society The author explores some of the strange contradictory and often funny results that have derived from this choice and how these results have impacted on Jewish continuity The central thesis of this book is that a little bit of Judaism far from fending off the prospect of intermarriage may actually encourage it The author contends that in some way we all make choices about what we think is more and less important and that therefore to some extent we are all folk Jews The book concludes with some suggestions for how we can build upon the strengths of Modern Folk Judaism to chart a more promising course for our collective future Middle Eastern Minorities Ibrahim Zabad,2017-03-27 This is a comprehensive survey of minorities in the Middle East with a special focus on the post Arab Spring era Minority communities in the Middle East are the most susceptible to the turbulence engulfing the region the majority may suffer physical violence and socioeconomic loss but minorities could potentially vanish Instead of ushering in democracy and inclusive politics the revolutionary upheavals have prompted chaos and fear and reinforced the resurgence of Islamic fundamentalism throughout the region Zabad uses historical sources as well as first hand interviews to vividly describe the current status of minorities in the Middle East explaining attitudes towards the revolutionary upheavals as well as the various strategies they used to avail themselves of the opportunities presented and to confront the risks posed The question of ethnic sectarian and religious minorities is situated in the context of the broader history of the region in order to explain the underlying institutional and ideological factors that caused their predicament and problematized their relationship with the majority The book provides a rich trove of information and insights generated from ten case studies that covered the Sh a in Saudi Arabia Bahrain Lebanon and Egypt the Druze the Alawites Christians and Kurds in Syria the Copts in Egypt and the Zaydis in Yemen A Question of Command Mark Moyer,2009-10-20 Moyer presents a wide ranging history of counterinsurgency which draws on the historical record and interviews with hundreds of counterinsurgency veterans He identifies the ten critical attributes of counterinsurgency leadership and reveals why these attributes have been more prevalent in some organizations than others European Evangelicals in Egypt (1900-1956) Samir Boulos,2016-06-27 Missionary institutions were social spaces of closest encounters between Europeans and various segments of the Egyptian society during the period of British colonialism In European Evangelicals in Egypt 1900 1956 Samir Boulos develops a theory of cultural exchange that is based on the examination of interactions experiences and discourses in the context of missionary institutions Drawing upon oral history interviews as well as rich Egyptian British and German archival sources a multifaceted perspective is offered revealing the complexity and dynamics of mission encounters Focusing on the everyday life in missionary institutions experiences of former Egyptian missionary students local employees as well as of European missionaries Samir Boulos explores mutual transformation processes particularly on the individual but also on institutional and social level A Torah Commentary for Our Times: Exodus and Leviticus Harvey J. Fields,1990 This Three Volume commentary includes a summary of the Torah portions as well as interesting interpretations and insights questions for study and Discussion are included for each portion Jewish Literature for Children Cheryl Silberberg Grossman,Suzy Engman,1985 A Torah Commentary for Our Times: Numbers and Deuteronomy Harvey J. Fields,1990

This Three Volume commentary includes a summary of the Torah portions as well as interesting interpretations and insights questions for study and Discussion are included for each portion

Nationalism and Internationalism in the Young Ecumenical Movement, 1895-1920s Judith Becker, Dana L Robert, 2025-03-18 This book explores how and why global Protestant movements have been foundational for studies of internationalism During the early twentieth century hopes for the peaceful coexistence of nations animated emerging international Protestant cooperation Despite national hostilities including world war commitment to global Christian fellowship became an urgent public agenda In this volume essays by European Asian and North American scholars locate the essence of the young ecumenical movement in the dynamic tension between nationalism and internationalism during the early twentieth century Political crises crushing disappointments and imperialist ambitions notwithstanding transnational Protestant leaders networks and movements envisioned Christianity as a contemporary multi cultural worldwide community
