Adamashvili, 2025-06-01 One day Memento Mori realises that he is a character in a book who has the power to travel from one book to another He decides to strike against evil writers who sentence their characters to death He persuades Romeo and Juliet that suicide is not the best solution and that when they are adults they will remember these days with laughter To save many others from an untimely death he travels to the Reichenbach Falls to push Professor Moriarty to his death Memento Mori's efforts to save more characters from their authors is interrupted when he learns that his author plans to kill off a character He has no information about who the intended victim is so with the help of H G Wells time machine he takes all the characters to a different dimension where they have a better chance of survival Everyone Dies in This Novel is a delightful postmodern comedy which has found a worldwide audience Everybody Dies in this Novel offers a big tangle of inter and meta textual fun jumping all about at breakneck speed and it's good and clever fun as such M A Orthofer in The Complete Review In short this is a magnificent romp through literature religion myth advertising modern culture and much else Some of the time you will wonder what is going on but no matter you will soon move on to something else which is seemingly totally irrelevant and or totally postmodern Adamashvili clearly had great fun writing this and shows a wide knowledge for a young writer And were you were worried about Death Remember him He appeared at the beginning You will be glad to learn he gets a good night's sleep John Alvey in The Modern Novel Narratives of Nothing in 20th-Century Literature Meghan Vicks, 2017-04-20 The concept of nothing was an enduring concern of the 20th century As Martin

Heidegger and Jean Paul Sartre each positioned nothing as inseparable from the human condition and essential to the creation or operation of human existence as Jacques Derrida demonstrated how all structures are built upon a nothing within the structure and as mathematicians argued that zero the number that is also not a number allows for the creation of our modern mathematical system Narratives of Nothing in 20th Century Literature suggests that nothing itself enables the act of narration Focusing on the literary works of Vladimir Nabokov Samuel Beckett and Victor Pelevin Meghan Vicks traces how and why these writers give narrative form to nothing demonstrating that nothing is essential to the creation of narrative that is how our perceptions are conditioned how we make meaning or madness out of the stuff of our existence how we craft our knowable selves and how we exist in language Every Day Is a Good Day: Reflections by Contemporary Indigenous Women (Easyread Large Edition) Wilma Mankiller, 2009-12
