Schneider, 2018-03-06 This book provides educators with guidance on studying and practicing a curriculum problem solving artistry that is focused on deepening students subject matter understandings through democratic self and social understandings The book begins with a discussion of seven principles of curriculum leadership which provide a framework for the presentation of a theoretical platform that guides a four phased process The curriculum problem solving has four interrelated phases and advice on studying and practicing each phase has been organized into separate chapters using a montage format incorporating inquiry prompts supportive quotations critical commentaries practical tips narrative illustrations and study recommendations There is a continuous recognition of the ways in which the four phases are folded into one another in highly interactive ways hence the problem solving approach is described as a fourfold process The text concludes with an epilogue honoring the disciplined journey of understanding and the pursuit of professional virtues that are central to the cultivation of problem solving artistry An ethical oath that was created by twenty Ohio teacher leaders serves as a collegial pledge to embrace this disciplinary commitment Anti-Authoritarian Curriculum Practice Daniel J. Castner, Jennifer L. Schneider, James G. Henderson, 2025-07-10 Drawing upon curriculum studies and utilizing curricular concepts this book provides a framework for teachers interested in imagining enacting and reflecting upon their daily practices in ways that defy the standardization and bureaucratic management of curriculum and instruction and responds to the needs and interests of their local contexts Although the specific experiences of teachers can vary significantly based on factors such as location district policies and community dynamics the current socio political landscape surrounding educational institutions from pre K through higher education de professionalizes educators Instead of providing an ideological critique of this state of affairs this book provides practitioners with a pragmatic framework that empowers them to critically and creatively engage curriculum in ways that are meaningful within their particular contexts IAENG Transactions on Engineering Technologies Haeng Kon Kim, Sio-Iong Ao, Mahyar A. Amouzegar, Burghard B. Rieger, 2013-09-12 IAENG Transactions on Engineering Technologies contains forty nine revised and extended research articles written by prominent researchers participating in the conference Topics covered include circuits engineering mathematics control theory communications systems systems engineering manufacture engineering computational biology chemical engineering and industrial applications This book offers the state of art of tremendous advances in engineering technologies and physical science and applications and also serves as an excellent source of reference for researchers and graduate students working with on engineering technologies and physical science and applications Tep Vol 22-N2 Teacher Education and Practice, 2010-08-16 Teacher Education and Practice a peer refereed journal is dedicated to the encouragement and the dissemination of research and scholarship related to professional education The journal is concerned in the broadest sense with teacher preparation practice and policy issues related to the teaching profession as well as being concerned with learning in the school setting The journal also serves as a forum for the exchange of diverse ideas and points of view within these purposes As a forum the journal offers a public space in which to critically examine current discourse and practice as well as engage in generative dialogue Alternative forms of inquiry and representation are invited and authors from a variety of backgrounds and diverse perspectives are encouraged to contribute Teacher Education Practice is published by Rowman Littlefield

Action Research Methods S. Klein, 2012-06-18 In Action Research Methods the authors acknowledge that the methodology component is where most of the struggle and confusion lies with students in research methods courses The overall aim is to assist master's level education students with practical and theoretically grounded approaches to the action research process

Letters to the Field Boni Wozolek, Walter S. Gershon, Roland Mitchell, 2024-12-30 Letters to the Field Curriculum Scholars Stories for Future Generations encapsulates a generation of scholars who revitalized the field of Curriculum Studies across North America in the mid 1970s as well as the generations of scholars who immediately followed all of whom are now themselves senior scholars Rather than another edited work of reprints or new monographs this volume seeks to do something special by providing an opportunity for this group of scholars to speak to their field about understandings they believe to be of significance The strength of this book generally resides in two overarching factors First there is the depth and strength of this well rounded highly regarded group of scholars whose work speaks to the heart of the interdisciplinary nature of curriculum studies and curriculum theorizing Second as you might imagine this is a significant moment in the United States when the very foundation of curriculum theory critical inquiry and often an engagement with questions of race queerness disability and the like continues to be under attack in K 12 schools and universities across the United States Contributors speak to the foundations of the field and the contemporary challenges that the field and schools of education more broadly must survive Contributions to this important work are five to seven handwritten or in the case of scholars who are unable to write typed pages There are also chapters that have accompanying photos and drawings The reproduction of actual letters in the book lend authenticity and will appeal to readers by giving an intimate view into the thoughts and wishes of these scholars We also understand that similar to the challenge folks might face when handwriting a document some writing might not be legible to all readers Therefore stable QR codes and or hyperlinks to typed versions of handwritten chapters are included so that readers can easily look at typed versions alongside the handwritten work online Letters to the Field makes an invaluable contribution to Curriculum Studies By providing a history of the rationale used to revitalize the field it will prove a valuable addition to the libraries of educators in a variety of disciplines
