Regional Comparisons in Comparative Policy Analysis Studies Iris Geva-May, B. Guy Peters, Joselyn Muhleisen, 2020-06-29 Volume Three of the Classics of Comparative Policy Analysis contains chapters concerned with Regional Comparisons and Policy Analysis one of the most prevailing approaches in comparative public policy Through the prism of inter jurisdiction comparisons of similarities and variations they address comparisons in specific policy sectors governance or institutional constructs and political regimes The foci are nevertheless on those comparisons between countries or regions which help to lesson draw by identifying and understanding the variation in policy analysis and policy making that exists within or across regions One benefit of regional comparisons is that it often allows studies to hold constant many variables ranging from colonial legacy to federal systems or from language to specific traditions and more effectively isolate dependent variables Regional organizations like the Organization for Economic Co operation and Development OECD or European Union are also considered as catalysts for regional policy approaches and harmonization and occupy a major role in this volume The chapters address a broad and diverse number of countries and geographical areas Latin America North America East Asia Southeast Asia Southern Africa the Baltic states the Nordic states Western Europe Central Europe Eastern Europe and Europe as a whole Regional Comparisons and Policy Analysis will be of great interest to scholars and learners of public policy and social sciences as well as to practitioners considering what can be learned or facilitated through methodologically and theoretically sound approaches The chapters were originally published as articles in the Journal of Comparative Policy Analysis which in the last two decades has pioneered the development of comparative public policy The volume is part of a four volume series the Classics of Comparative Policy Analysis including Theories and Methods Institutions and Governance

Regional Comparisons and Policy Sectors Each volume showcases a different new chapter comparing domains of study interrelated with comparative public policy political science public administration governance and policy design authored by the JCPA co editors Giliberto Capano Iris Geva May Michael Howlett Leslie A Pal and B Guy Peters Financial Markets and Policies in East Asia Gordon De Brouwer, 2003-09-02 This book assesses the need to secure policy consistency the scope for inflation targeting the sustainability of exchange rate regimes and the scope for deeper financial integration in the Australasian area Asian Perspectives on the Development of Public Relations T. Watson, 2014-04-24 The National Perspectives on the Development of Public Relations Other Voices series is the first to offer an authentic world wide view of the history of public relations It will feature six books five of which will cover continental and regional groups This first book in the series focuses on Asia and Australasia Back-Alley Banking Kellee S. Tsai, 2018-05-31 Chinese entrepreneurs have founded more than thirty million private businesses since Beijing instituted economic reforms in the late 1970s Most of these private ventures however have been denied access to official sources of credit State banks continue to serve state owned enterprises yet most private financing remains illegal How have Chinese entrepreneurs managed to fund their operations In defiance of the national banking laws small business owners have created a dizzying variety of informal financing mechanisms including rotating credit associations and private banks disguised as other types of organizations Back Alley Banking includes lively biographical sketches of individual entrepreneurs telling quotations from official documents policy statements and newspaper accounts and interviews with a wide variety of women and men who give vivid narratives of their daily struggles accomplishments and hopes for future prosperity Kellee S Tsai s book draws upon her unparalleled fieldwork in China s world of shadow finance to challenge conventional ideas about the political economy of development Business owners in China she shows have mobilized local social and political resources in innovative ways despite the absence of state directed credit or a well defined system of private property rights Entrepreneurs and local officials have been able to draw on the uncertainty of formal political and economic institutions to enhance local prosperity Television, Regulation and Civil Society in Asia Philip Kitley, 2003-08-29 Kitley critically compares Western principles of broadcasting civil society and cultural regulation with alternative Asian practices of regulation and organization Malaysian "bail Outs"? Sook Ching Wong, Jomo Kwame Sundaram, Kok Fay Chin, 2005 As Malaysia s government responded to the 1997 98 financial crisis the global financial community criticised its measures as bail outs for politically influential corporate interests This book examines the Asian crisis and government policy responses with emphasis on capital controls as well as corporate bank and debt restructuring exercises Crisis and Change in the Japanese Financial System Takeo Hoshi, Hugh T. Patrick, 2012-12-06 At the start of the twenty first century the Japanese financial system is undergoing a major transformation This process is spurred by a sense of crisis Dominated by large institutions the Japanese banking system has suffered from serious problems with non performing loans since the early 1990s when the Japanese stock market and urban real estate market both crashed Delays in responding to these twin asset bubbles by both regulatory authorities and the banks themselves made matters worse and led to a banking crisis in late 1997 and early 1998 Not anticipating this setback in late 1996 the Japanese government inaugurated its Big Bang of comprehensive financial deregulation designed to complete the process of creating free fair and open financial markets Beginning in late 1998 and early 1999 the government finally embarked on a major rehabilitation of the Japanese banking system including making available some Yen 60 trillion approximately USD 500 billion of government funds to recapitalize fifteen major banks adequately fund the deposit insurance program and write off the bad loans of nationalized or bankrupted banks One result of this reform process is that the Ministry of Finance MOF which dominated Japanese financial system policy for most of the post war period has been stripped of most of its former regulatory powers The purpose of this book is to describe analyze and evaluate the process that is transforming the Japanese financial system The chapters address various issues relating to the transition of the Japanese financial system from a bank centered and relationship based system to a competitive market based system Questions taken up include Why did Japanese banks get into such serious trouble Why has the MOF lost its immense power How will the Big Bang s financial deregulation further change the Japanese financial system including the huge government financial institutions and postal savings system What are some of the broader implications of this transition The book is divided into three parts Part I considers the origins of Japan s banking crisis Part II focuses on five particularly important areas of major actual and potential changes Part III addresses the effects of the Big Bang including its potential systemic externalities Taken together this book offers an unusually up to date comprehensive and thorough appraisal and evaluation of the profound changes occurring in Japan s financial system

Indonesia's Overseas Labour Migration Programme, 1969-2010

Wayne Palmer, 2016-08-09 In Indonesia s Overseas Labour Migration Programme 1969 2010 Wayne Palmer offers for the first time a detailed critical analysis of the way in which Indonesia s Overseas Labour Migration Programme is managed and how that fits with other developments within the Indonesian government Commonly portrayed as a corrupt bunch of officials out to line their own pockets at the expense of migrant workers welfare here we are shown that they also make exceptions to rules when the law and political climate are not on their side Wayne Palmer used interviews with over 120 officials in six Indonesian provinces and three diplomatic missions in the Asia Pacific region to understand motivations for corrupt and other illegal behaviour
