A Reformed Voice in the Ecumenical Discussion Martien Brinkman, 2016-04-26 In A Reformed Voice in the Ecumenical Discussion Martien E Brinkman offers a critical account of the main international ecumenical developments of the last three decades He delivers a sketch of the Reformed contribution to the ecumenical dialogues dealing with issues like contextuality state church relations the ethical implications of baptism the church as sacrament of the kingdom and apostolic tradition He pleads for a stronger non Western input in the ecumenical discussions and emphasizes that in many contexts Indonesia India China the interreligious dialogue has become part of the inner Christian dialogue This study can be considered as a constructive contribution to the development of a hermeneutics of tradition and puts itself the critical question what is lost and found in translation Reformed and Ecumenical, 2021-11-15 The Unity of the Church Eddy A. J. G. van der Borght, 2009 In contrast to its original name Ecclesia Reformata ecclesiology did not develop into a major theme within the Reformed tradition Notwithstanding the undeniable schismatic tendency and the ecclesial embarrassment about disunity the unity of the church did not rise to prominence as a theological topic This volume challenges this traditional low key attitude towards the unity of the church It investigates theological aspects that contributed to a weak sensus unitatis and explores approaches that remedy the disease of division It discusses the role played by scripture the sacraments confessions and discipline it searches for the best theological practices within other Christian traditions it links the unity of the church to the unity of God and reformulates the nature of the church Een waaier van gedachten over geloven - Bibliography of Published Works by Hendrik M. Vroom Dirk van Keulen, Annewieke L. Vroom, 2010-01-01 Street Signs David P. Leong, 2012-07-01 This research explores the cultural and theological complexities within the urban context as some of the most prominent societal realities shaping our cities today Cities represent the convergence of identities industries and ideologies in a dynamic urban ecosystem of pluralism and globalization Far more than just the incidental built environment that houses such phenomena the city is a living breathing organism with vital systems and infrastructure that function as a means of sustenance for its inhabitants Ultimately cities are a cultural reflection of our common humanity in all of its beauty and depravity More specifically this work critically examines the cultural and theological significance of the urban context as an exercise in missiological contextualization Through a dialectical exploration of the locality of Seattle's Rainier Valley and the universality of the street corner three different lenses are used to examine the intersection of faith and culture in the city First through developing a missional theology of cultural engagement the themes of incarnation confrontation and imagination inform a theological posture that is conversant with urbanism Second an interdisciplinary method of urban exegesis that synthesizes the symbolic systems of urban semiotics and the missional theology of cultural exegesis is applied to particular settings in Seattle's Rainier Valley as a form of observing and interpreting urban communities Third an urban contextual theology that is situated in an environment of physical density social diversity and economic disparity emphasizes the necessity of engaging the city with theologies of place neighbor and community In an effort to equip and empower the church and others to engage the city as thoughtful missional people this research seeks to cultivate a combination of critical observational skills in the urban context and a constructive understanding of the holistic Christian mission among the poor and disenfranchised in our urban communities From the street corner in the ghetto to newly gentrified enclaves of hipsters street signs are all around us they point us in the right direction toward deeper understanding alert us to the presence of injustice on the horizon and draw our attention to the redemptive beauty of the city that is revealed in the light of the gospel

Hindu-Christian Dialogue Mariasusai Dhavamony, 2021-11-15 Dialogue is an integral part of the mission of the Christian church The immensity of the ocean of Hindu doctrine and thought presents a significant obstacle to Christians who have been invited by the Roman Catholic Church to scrutinize the divine Mystery present in other religions Many fascinated by Hindu mysticism confuse permanent Hindu beliefs with certain current Western religious movements India's quest for the divine embodies multiple forms Its millennia old methods of meditation and varieties of asceticism often confuse those who are less inclined to experience of an inner spiritual nature This book attempts to address some of these difficulties and questions It is the author's belief that in the Hindu Christian encounter the Christian believer will also rediscover the originality and newness of the Christian revelation viz the intervention of God in the history of salvation whereby God reveals his salvific love in Jesus Christ Possessing expert knowledge of both Hinduism and Christianity the author approaches the Hindu Christian dialogue with sympathy and discernment

Religion, Conflict and Reconciliation, 2021-10-25 From the contents Andre DROOGERS Religious reconciliation a view from the social sciences Hendrik M VROOM The nature and origins of religious conflicts some philosophical considerations Michael McGHEE Buddhist thoughts on conflict Reconciliation and religion Tzvi MARX Theological preparation for reconciliation in Judaism Agus Rachmat WIDYANTO Interreligious conflict and reconciliation in Indonesia Faith and Order Commission Papers, 2002 Fullness of Life for All Inus Daneel, Charles Van Engen, Hendrik M. Vroom, 2005 This important book is needed today The challenges that Christian churches face have changed immensely in the last quarter century One of the central issues facing the churches everywhere in the world is their missionary presence in their nations and societies The authors of this volume are among the world's leading missiological thinkers and represent nearly every major Christian tradition in Europe Africa North America and Asia In this new century the Christian church faces new situations that include for example the fall of communism the globalization of culture cultural and religious minorities and multiple religious majorities in nearly every country ethnic and interreligious tensions relativism and individualism in Western culture the rise of a global impact of a postmodern world view poverty in poor countries and in urban areas in wealthy countries and the decline of Western cultural authority and with notable exceptions of religious authority generally This book speaks of ways in which Christian churches are seeking to respond to these challenges The purpose of this book is to describe some of the main challenges facing the churches in mission today particularly with reference to inter religious conversations all over the world The title of this volume has been derived from the theme of the 24th General Assembly of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches WARC at Accra in August 2004 whose theme is That All May Have Life in Fullness Such Christian witness is more than humanness because it arises from the fullness of God s grace forgiveness reconciliation and hope that God s will may be done on earth as it is in heaven Christian presence in a desperately needy world will make the fullness of God s presence known Such fullness of life permeates the heart mind and action of Christians The editors and authors of this volume hope that it will challenge the reader to reflect upon the missionary presence of the churches and their communication of the Gospel in a secularized religiously plural world filled with struggles violence and rumors of war Fullness of life points to the Kingdom of God that is here already and at the same time not yet here This constitutes Christian expectation and hope This book is must reading for anyone interested in seeing the Christian Church respond in new and relevant ways to the new situations facing our world in a new century
