Address to the Christian Nobility of the German Nation is the first of the three tracts written by Martin Luther in 1520 In this work he defined for the first time the signature doctrines of the priesthood of all believers and the two kingdoms After the church made a strong attempt at drawing distinct lines on saying who had authority in the spiritual sphere and its matters This division of Christians into spheres motivated Luther to write on the three walls the Romanists created to protect themselves from reform Prelude on the Babylonian Captivity of the Church is a theological treatise the second of the three major tracts from 1520 In this work Luther examines the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church in the light of his interpretation of the Bible With regard to the Eucharist he advocates restoring the cup to the laity dismisses the Catholic doctrine of Transubstantiation but affirms the real presence of the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist and rejects the teaching that the Mass is a sacrifice offered to God A Treatise on Christian Liberty is the third of Luther's major reforming treatises of 1520 It developed the concept that as fully forgiven children of God Christians are no longer compelled to keep God's law however they freely and willingly serve God and their neighbors Luther also further develops the concept of justification by faith In the treatise Luther stated A Christian is a perfectly free lord of all subject to none A Christian is a perfectly dutiful servant of all subject to all
